MUSES' BOWER.

From the Christian Guardian.

TO THEE, MY GOD, TO THEE!

O Lord, thy heavenly grace impart,
And fix my frail inconstant heart;
Henceforth my chief desire shall be,
To dedicate myself to Thee!—
To Thee, my God, to Thee!

Whate'er pursuits my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
That silent, secret thought shall be,
That all my hopes are fixed on Thee—
On Thee, my God, on Thee!

Thy glorious eye prevaileth space,
Thou'rt present, Lord, in every place,
And wheresoe'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit cleave to Thee—
To Thee, my God. To Thee!

Renouncing every worldly thing,
Safe, 'neath the covert of thy wing,
My sweetest thought henceforth shall be,
That all I want I find in Thee,
In Thee, my God, in Thee!

TO LOLOTTE.

"One sigh of thy sorrow—one look of thy love.
Shall turn me or fix, shall reward or reprove;
And the heartless may wonder at all we resign
Thy lip shall reply not to them —but to mine!" BYRON.

There's a tear on thy cheek,
Lovely being, to night,
And the long lash lies low
O'er thy blue eye of light:
There's a sigh in thy heart,
And a shade on thy brow,
Can sorrow e'er steal
To one sinless as thou!

Forsaking the world,
I have wander'd to thee,
For thy smile is my beacon
O'er life's troubled sea,
And thy words as they melt
On the lips I adore'
Are as welcomes from saints
To some happier shore!

But to night thou art sad,
And the flash of thine eye
Is as coy as the star's,
When the shadow flits by;
And the spell of thy voice
Is a tremulous art,
And I fear me some sorrow
Is wringing thy heart!

"Come rest in this bosom,"
Thou being of love—
Let me press and caress thee,
A sully-less dove:
Let me kiss the damp pearls
That hang light on thy cheek,
Where the rose leaf has nestled
For many a week!
Come rest in fond arms,
Pensive girl, and tell why
The glad smile has gone down
From the sky of thine eye,
For no gloom of despair,
Should fall darkly on thee,
Else the seraph and cherub,
Might sorrowing be!

A Radical cure.—The following item was delivered in a farrier's bill for a gentleman in the neighbourhood of Bristol, a few days since: "To curing your honour's mare till she died, 12s. 6d."

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has taken that well known TAVERN STAND, in Chester Town, Kent County, Md. formerly kept by Mr. Thomas Peacock, and lately by Mr. C. C. Money. The local situation of this House gives it a preference as it regards the transactions of business; (being central and within a short distance of the Public Offices and near the landing of the Steamboat and Packets.) The arrangements and alterations he has made in this Establishment warrants him in the belief that persons putting up at his house will have no cause of complaint.

His Bar is well stocked with choice Liquors. And his stabling sufficient and commodious, with attentive Hostlers.

He requests a share of public patronage. WM. CAMP

OR, WHITWELL'S LIQUID OPODELDOC.

For bruises, sprains, gout, rheumatism, cramp, numbness, stiffness of the neck or limbs, chilblains, chapped hands, stings of insects, vegetable poisons, or any external injury—recommended by one of the first physician, in the United States, whose certificates as well as those of numerous respectable individuals, accompany each bottle. This new and improved Opodeldoc is warranted to contain three times the strength of the old hard kind. Orders for it have been received, not only from every part of the American continent, but from South America, the West India islands, and in one instance from England and Russia. Those who disapprove of it on trial can have the money refunded.

AROMATIC SNUFF.

Long celebrated for slow, dull, nervous, headache, for clearing and stimulating the alfactory nerves. The flavor is fragrant and delightful, the effec pleasing and salutary—it remove drowsiness by gently opening and purging the head.

Those troubled with hypochondria will find this a complete antidote. In cases of catarrh or cold in the head, it is a most pleasant and sovereign remedy. It is principally composed of roots and aromatic herbs, and each bottle is accompanied with a certificate of its efficacy, from Doctor Waterhouse, late Professor of the Practice of Physic in the University of Cambridge, Mass.

MARYLAND:——Queen Ann's County, Orphans' court. Dec. 12th, 1829,

On application of Hester Cook, Administrator of Joseph Cook, late of Queen Ann's County, deceased; it is ordered, that she give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks, in the 'Centreville Times & Eastern-Shore Public Advertiser.'

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of Queen Ann's county Orphans' Court, I have hereunto set my hand and { SEAL } the Seal of my office affixed this 12th day of Dec. in the year of our Lord, 1829.

Thos. C. Earle, REG.
of Wills for Q. A. County.

Pursuant of this Order

Notice is Hereby Given—that the subscriber of Queen Ann's county hath obtained from the Orphans' court of said county in Maryland, letters of Administration on the estate of Joseph Cook, late of Queen Ann's county deceased, all persons having claims against the said deceased's estate are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereof to the Subscriber at or before the 30th June, 1830: or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 12th day of Dec. 1829.

THO. C. EARLE, Reg. of Wills,
Dec, 19. 2w. for Queen Ann's County.

TO THE PUBLIC.

IN consequence of the numerous frauds and impositions practised in reference to my medicine, I am again induced to change the form of my BOTTLES. In future, the PANACEA will be put in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following words, blown in the glass, "SWAIM'S PANACEA—PHILADA." as represented above.

These bottles are much stronger than those heretofore used, and will have but one label, which covers the cork, with my own signature on it, so that the cork cannot be drawn without destroying the signature, without which none is genuine. The medicine may consequently be known to be genuine when my signature is visible: to counterfeit which will be punishable as forgery.

The increasing demand for this celebrated medicine has enabled me to reduce the price to Two Dollars per bottle; thus bringing it within the reach of the indigent.

My Panacea requires no encomium; its astonishing effects and wonderful operation have drawn, both from Patients and Medical Practitioners of the highest respectability, the most unqualified approbation, and established for it a character which Envy's pen though dipped in gall, can never tarnish.

The false reports concerning this valuable medicine, which have been to assure them, that the composition of my Panacea is not known nor was it ever communicated to any other person in any way whatever: and consequently, that all other mixtures represented to be mine, are fraudulent impositions. Wm SWAIM.

CERTIFICATES:

From Dr. Valentine Mott, professor of Surgery in the University of New-York, urgeon of the New-York Hospital, &c.

I have repeatedly used Swaim's Panacea, both in the Hospital and in private practice, and have found it to be a valuable Medicine in Chronic, Syphilitic and Scrofulous complaints and in obstinate cutaneous affections.

VALENTINE MOTT, M. D.

From Docter N. Chapman, Professor of the Institutes and Practice of Physic and Clinical Practice in the University of Pennsylvania, Presiden of the Academy of Medicine of Philadelphia, &c.

Caution to Purchasers.

This medicine had been used for more than 7 years before an effort was made to imitate it; but the great demand for it, and its wonderful success, have induced a great number of persons to imitate it in various ways—upwards of fifty different mixtures have been got up in imitation of it, which is a convincing proof of its being a medicine of great value. Some are selling Sarsaparilla and other syrups, imposing them on the ignorant for the Panacea; others are mixing the genuine medicine with molasses, &c, making three bottles out of one; thus retaining some of its virtues: others are using the genuine Panacea in their bottles to perform cures, to obtain certificates to give their own a reputation, &c. Some have even resorted to perjury to deceive the public. These mitations and adulterations have, in many instances, protracted the sufferings of patients in diseases where the genuine Swaim's Panacea would have proved instantly efficacious. I therefore deem it a duty I owe the public so diligently circulated by certain Physicians, have their origin either in envy or in the mischievous effects of the spurious imitations.

The proprietor pledges himself to the public, and gives them the most solemn assurances, that this medicine contains neither mercury nor any other deleterious drug.

The public are cautioned not to purchase my Panacea, except from myself, my accredited agents, or persons of known respectability; and all those will consequently be without excuse, who shall purchase from any other persons. Wm. SWAIM.

—o—

I have within the last two years had an opportunity of seeing several cases of very inveterate ulcers, which having resisted previously the regular modes of treatment, were healed by the use of mr. Swaim's PANACEA; and I do believe, from what I have seen, that it will prove an important remedy in scrofulous, venereal, and mercurial diseases. N. Chapman, M.D

FROM DOCTOR W. GIBSON.

Professor of Surgery in the University of Pennsylvania, Surgeon, and Clinical Lecturer to the Alms House Infirmary, &c.

I have employed the Panacea of Mr. Swaim, in numerous instances, within the last three years, and have always found it extremely efficacious, especially in secondary syphilis and in mercurial disease. I have no hesitation in pronouncing it a medicine of inestimable value.

W. Gibson, M. D.

FROM DR. WILLIAM P. DEWEES

Adj't. Professor of Midwifery in the University of Pennsylvania, &c.

I have much pleasure in saying I have witnessed the most decided and happy effects in several instances of inveterate disease from Mr. Swaim's Panacea, where other remedies had failed—one was that of Mrs. Brown (See Book of Cases, page 53.)
