A HUMOROUS PUBLICATION

TO BE ENTITLED, THE MIRROR OF MIRTH.

"Mirth that wrinkled care derides
And laughter holding both his sides.

THE subscriber, fully aware, himself that innocent mirth tends more to blunt the arrows of adversity, and promote health and happiness among mankind, than almost any other means which can be used, is induced to try the experiment of starting a publication which will bear the above title. It is unnecessary, perhaps, to state, that he will expect; before he commences the publication the names of a sufficient number of persons to pay all the expenses which will be incurred, and when he assures his friends that his calculations on the score of expense are not very extravagant he hopes the public may be the more inclined to favor the contemplation publication.

The pages of the Mirror of Mirth will be perfectly free from all party spirit whether in religion or politics. And while the most scrupulously devout will find nothing to condemn, those who make no profession of religion will find in every line something to please, to amuse and delight.

The publication will contain witty Anecdotes, pithy Epigrams, Bon Mots, enigmas, Conundrums, Epitaphs, Choice Sentiments from the best writers of the age; and a collection of the best Maxims, on various subjects, which are to be found in the most approved writers. The Editor of the Mirror of Mirth will strive to make it worthy of the support of the community in all parts of this State, and indeed of the country.

Terms.

The Mirror of Mirth will be printed on a royal sheet of beautiful paper, and good type, and will contain 8 octavo pages weekly at the very low price of $1 per annum, payable on the delivery of the first No. $1, 25 if paid at the end of SIX MONTHS,— and 10$ if payment be deferred until the end of the year. Fifty-two numbers will comprise a year, or one volume of 146 pages.

Should a sufficient degree of encouragement be given the Mirror will be embellished, occasionally, with humorous engravings.

Gentlemen procuring five responsible subscribers will be entitled to a sixth copy gratis. Those who procure ten or more subscribers and forward the money, will receive an extra copy and ten per cent, on all money which they collect.

If a sufficient number of names shall be obtained to justify the expense the publication will be commenced as soon after the first of January as practicable of which due notice will be given.

If a sufficient amount of patronage be bestowed in the cities of Baltimore and Washington, subscribers will be furnished in those cities with their papers fee of postage,—in Washington on the day after publication, in Baltimore on the same day they are published.

Persons holding subscription papers will please return the same previous to the first day of January 1834.

UNDERTAKING, & Carpentering!

The subscriber, who has been engaged for the last ten years in the above business, takes this method of informing the public generally, that he is now prepared to do any work he may be favoured with. He assures all those who may be under the painful necessity of calling some one to attend funerals, that he will do every thing necessary for such an occasion—he has a good two horse carriage and will send as usual coffins to any part of the county, free of charge, and will when practicable give his personal attention,

As I intend to keep for my assistance an experienced hand, I flatter myself from past favours, that I shall still be encouraged by a generous public.
