ferson and Madison-not merely inci- shall always have men that will change desitally but directly. Here then we with the popular tide, and from this we see the framers of the constitution attribute much of the present discon- Sketches of plainly interpreting it, giving mabulac- tent in our republic : one aftories the fostering care of government; ter another has been promoted to of but from the then recent colonial con- fice with little claims to popular favor dition of the country, they were igno- till every office is filled, no place is left: rant of the amount of protection neces- others of like pretentions anxious to sary to secure the entire independency procuse place and favour, create the of the country : nor did the condition annual ferment in endeavourng to much truth in the following brief sketch- times when the light which flashed from of 'Another voter.' of the nation then require the same a force themselves upon the people, here es which were found where no one them as they passed glanced like a The object of this writer seems mount of duties as now, our population men of character and talents are left would have thought of seeking them in mirror in the sun only to dazzle the have been two fold—to impeach small, our cities and towns scattering; to lament the unhappy aspect of our a very elaborate speech on the Tariff beholder. Engrossed with his subject integrity of the Levy Court for the a most flourishing farrying trade almost country, too much self respect to urge delivered last winter by Mr. Wilde of careless of his words, his loftiest flights buse of the public lunds committed for all Europe a demand for all our them, while men almost destitute of Georgia, and recently published in the of eloquence were sometimes followed their charge and to diminish surplus staples, we did not so much any qualifications push themselves for. National Intelligencer. We admit with by colloquy or provincial barbarians. claims I may have to public confident need extensive manufactories: Ameri- ward upon an innocent, confiding people. Nr. W, that talent like justice is of no But though often incorrect he was al- by accusing me of exhibiting an uniza again in war with the greatest com- Fellow Citizens let us for the future party and we are happy to recognize ways fascinating. Language with him account against the county. mercial maratime nation in the world, act more circumspectly and more con- in these sketches a mind as much di- was merely the scaffolding o' thought, When prisoners are brought to with a crippled trade, and infant man- scientiously in the selection of our of- vested of prejudice as could be expect- employed to raise a dome which like Bar of the Court under criminal and ulactories, Europe mostly in peace did ficers, from the Constable of the bun- ed from one engaged at all, in stem- Angelo's, he suspended in the hear sations, it has long been the pract not need or require our staples or our dred to the Senator of the nation, not ming the political cauldron-or in the ens. tonpage, hence after the commencement men of superficial parts but men of double double toil and trouble of par- It is equally impossible to forget or Council. The prisoners selection of the late war our manufactories be sound integrity, close application, well ty. We think however that just and to omit a gentleman from Kentucky, in whom they confide to conduct the gan to grow up, but the war over, peace informed and solid judgment, thus u- graphic as some of these sketches, are whom party has since made the fruit defence, and the Levy Courn proclaimed, war duties repealed, dur niting the various qualifications requi- Mr. Wilde has dipped his pencil too ful topic of unmeasured panegyric and our county, have uniformly (w manufactories ruined and destroyed, our site for a good public servant of any deeply in the coloring of triendship detraction. Of sanguine temperament the exception of the Levy Cour commerce uverdone, our bread stutis grade. rotting for want of a market and other | Thus Fellow citizens we present to justice to all. But they are creditable to tion was impassioned, his retorts acri- ten dollars in each case where the great staples greatly reduced in price, you our views of men and measures at the speaker and we copy them as fine monions. Deficient in refinement ra- soners have been unable to pay. Merchants, planters, nanufacturers & this anspicious moment, and we now specimens of sketching. More full and ther than in strength, his style was less this they exercised a legal and a farmers involved in one melancholy appeal to you as the bulwark of this extended sketches of these men may elegant and correct than animated and stitutional power. The 19th an vortex of ruin,-These are the facts in u-tion, although it is to older heads we be found in Watterston's Gallery of impressive. - But it swept away your of our Bill of Rights, provides, I the case, now let us enquire 'or must look for the maturity of wisdom American Portraits. the cause, this we discover in yet while we see so many old men run- I had the honour of the 14th Con- and the force of the stream left you ery man hath a right to be inform the regulation of commerce with for- ning prematurely, (as we think) after gress. It was an honour then What little leisusre to remark upon its clear- of the accusations against him, to eign states, had the war duties on for popularity, floating with the current, am- it is now, I shall not say. It is what ness. His estimate of human pature a copy of the indictment or charge eigo rival articles been continued, our hitious by seeking to lead the juvenile | the twenty-second Congress have been was, probably not very high. It may due time, (if required,) to prepare cities would not have been fluoded with part of our countrymen into pleased to make it. I have neither be that his past associations has not his desence, to be allowed council foreign commodities, had not these been the vortex of anarchy and rebellion by time nor strength, nor ability, to speak tended to exalt. Unhappily, it is per- say that a prisoner shall have the imported our manufactories would not a blind infatuation to the slender claims of the legislators of that day as they de- haps more likely to have been lowered efit of council, and if from poverty have been broken and driven to engage of a Military chieftain, we invoke you serve; nor is this the fit occasion. Yet than raised by his subsequent experi- missortune, he is unable to produce in agricultural and other pursuits, had to pause and reflect, and as the chief the coldest or most careless nature can ence. Yet then and even since, ex. to leave him to make his own delet these been sustained the farmer would support and defence of our Republic not recur to such associates, without eept when that imprudence so natural or to throw him upon the precario have received remuneration for their rests upon you use every effort in your some touch of generous feeling, which to genius, prevailed over his better charity of the bar, would be a mocket labour, the price of flour, corn, beef & power to arrest the course of misrule, in quicker spirits would kindle into judgment be had generally the good of this humane and just provision of pork and other articles would have we appeal to you as sons, as brothers, as high and almost holy enthusiasm. kept up to a fair price, land would husbands, as fathers, as th guardians. Pre-eminent-yet not more proudly tone of sentiment whether he spoke of large have an interest in every me have been sustained and all the collat- of our rights, as the repositories of our than humbly pre-eminent, among them measures or of men, of friend or of ad- whether he be write or black, w eral oranches of industry would have honours, as the protectors of our liber- was a gentleman from South Carolina versary. On many occasions le was lives under the operation of our law been upheld and we should not have ties, lives and properties, as the shield now no more, the purest, the calmest, poble and captivating - One, I can and the just spirit of our people de been driven to bankruptcy and ruin, - of chastity and virtue, and while we the most philosophical of our country's never forget. It was the fine burst of mands that no man shall be deprine this state of things was foreseen by ibus entreat you by all that is valuable modern statesmen. One no less re- indignant eloquence with which he of his liberty or his lis some segacious Statesmen -- from 1820 worthy and desirable, let us not forget markably for gentleness of manners, and replied to the taunting question, what and impartial trial. The fair admit to 1824 was a time of bankruptcy un- to lift our prayers to Him who suffers kindness of heart than for that passion- we have gained by the war? paralleled in this nation. No class was not a sparrow to fall without his notice less unclouded intellect which tendered Nor may I pass over in silence a extended equally to the rich and the exempt from this witespread suffering for his choicest blessings, and protec- him deserving of the praise, if ever representative from New Hampshire poor, is the pride of the American per The tariff of 1824 gave a new stimu- ti .n from the consequence of this er- man deserved it, of merely standing who has almost obliterated all memo- ple, and none would impugh it lus to every class of labourers in our roneous misrule. country-it has created a market A Giant .- On Monday a man was The true patriot incapable of all selfish fame he has attained as a Senator from stamp. Another Voter, has false for our surplus produce, it has reduced walking about the attorestices of Boston who ambition who shunned office and dis- Massachusetts.- Though then but in charged that the attorestices beste ericles of necessity greatly below any was six feet ten inches and three quar- tinction, yet served his country faith the bud of his political life and hardly "William Carmichael and his son former price; benefiting us two fold ters high he was one of Bonaparte's ful because he loved her. He I mean conscious perhaps of his own extraor, chard," was a matter of special Le enhansing the price of our agricul- Marmeduke guards, and a pative of who consecrated by his example the dinary powers he gave promise of the The rule adopted by our Levy (tural articles and lowering manufactu- Boston, in America. red goods: since 1824 prosperity with her smiling face has been gently pouring blessings into the lap of industryand the song of joy is now heardwhere mournful melaucholy had been domimant, and we hear not the sound of ecomplaint to any extent, save a small part of the south. There, from disappointed ambition we hear the drear of suffocation were visible. The crime stood by his tomb and recalled him as was indeed peculiar to him, they seem bar, or if he be a gentleman who keep sound of discontent, menace & threats. he had been hanged for was murder, he was then in all the pride and power ed to be emanations from the spirit of up the ancient and honourable professions. The constitution, say they, is violated by the tariff, the sovereignty of the states is in danger, by the liberal construction of the constitution, forgetting that the regulation of commerce the protection of manufactories and common defence and general welfare, were the sole objects to be obtained by the constitution, lorgetting also the only safe rule in elective governments, that the majortfy must rule, and that any measure fairly enacted by a deliberate majority ought to be acquiesced in with out bickerings and treasonable threats. such as are witnessed in some of the southern states. Fellow citizens, while we have the prerogative of freemen and the right of sovereignty, let us not be colonists or vassels to foreign states. but let us be what we profess to be, free knocked down with the violent blow he the reach of praise or envy. For one and independent, not dependent more for the prime necessities of life than for rulers-this will lead us to notice some of the champions of our Amesican polconspicuous, Henry Clay, but not alone, In Ohio, the Jackson party has carried party controversy. But he whose am- son party offering no candidates. The forinferior, such as Everett, Webster, Adams thus: Burgess, Sergeant and a bost neither different in talent or inclination, always ready to meet the Southern tempestsubdue and conquer, such has been

ev ry patriot bosom. much the object of politicians to select good men for office as to select men of popular manners and character, often of popular manners and character, of of popular manners and character, often with no other pretention than some litation of the state in the place of Mr. Vroom, imbued with the idiom of the English citizens, followed his remarks, he added that in those than two galls and a large number of his fellow Revolutionary struggle and a large number of his fellow Revolutionary struggle and a large number of his fellow Revolutionary struggle and a large number of his fellow Revolutionary struggle and a large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks, he added that in those the large number of his fellow remarks and the large number of his fellow remar tle tact in electioneering and floating of the state in the place of Mr. Vroom, about twilight on the day of his death, and utters a lamentable Jeremiad upon the popular current, disregarding the claims of talents and integrity in the claims of talents and integrity in other men. We see no good reason who other men, we see no good reason why in which Mr.V. lives. This is a new way of flame in words of magic and tones miles from town, lost two servants men of the clearest heads and sono- of insuling a county. they floor on the popular lineux. we white and h. Eddicined.

GALVANISM .- The spectacle was truly horrific - When I entered the room where the experiments were to take ed, that it continues to be repeated solemn dignity, the deep sepulchral who was a member of our bar receive place, the body of a man named Cargallows scarce half an hour, was lying Maryland, whose ashes now slumber intense bitterness of his frigid irony vices for gain, is equally false; and ter which had been cut down from the and like a brawny desperate ruffian he of his genius. Among the first of his the icy ocean. Nothing could be at sion of idleness, by haunting its por looked. None of his clothes were re- countrymen and contemporaries, a ju. once so novel and as powerful—it was lieus, he has stated a falsehood known moved. He wore a fustian jacket and rist and statesman, first as an orator frozen mercury becoming as caustic it to be false. I have sometimes into tight knee breeches, The first time he was if not truly eloquent, the prince as red hot iron, the galvanic shock was conveyed of rhetoritic ans. Nor did the soundto him! will never forget. Ishrank from mess of his logic suffer any thing by a bim in consternation, with the mo- comparison with the richuess and clamentary belief, that we had positively sical purity of the language in which column on Monday next. He sums up, ther from the parties, of the county. brought the man back to life-for he he copiously poured forth those figura- in a lucid and forcible manner the polit it is only where I have been solicit suddenly sprung up into a sitting pos- tive illustrations of his argument which advises a perfect union of the whole on hy prisoners to defend them who has ture, his arms waved wildly, the colour enforced while they adorned it. But position of Pennsylvania in favor of the been unable to pay, that I have charge drawn apart, so as to show all his feeth not. I feel as if his mighty spirit still says, "the lights which I have had comand his eyes glared at us with appar. ent fury -- One young man, a medical student shrieked violently, and was carried out in a swoon. One gentleman present, who happened to be nearest There was others of whom it were more vote of that State will go against him. the upper part of the body, was almost difficult to speak because yet within Physician.

66 956 Anti-Jackson, 61,558 Jackson,

Anti-Jackson majority, 5, 368

the men that have arrested the poverty 1828, Jackson received in Pennsylvania whom it was superfluous to designate. three have died and where there are se Salisbury Journal that the friends of such m n desire our gratitude and best for Jackson 50 804 (or two to one.) At Whose satire was universally leared? In addition to he deaths at the poor house ty North Carolina, at which much the late election the vote for Wolf is about there have been two others in town since quence was deaths. into which we were rapidly gliding; 101.652 votes - Adams 40.848 - majority Whose speeches were universally read? ven cases generally of mild complexion. Union have had a meeting in Burke co the late election the vote for Wolf is about Upon whose satire was universally there have been two others in town since quence was displayed. Mr. Carson and selection the vote for Wolf is about Upon whose accents did his habitually our last report. On Thursday evening an ione advocated nullification. When as to select the late election the vote for Wolf is about Upon whose accents did his habitually our last report. On Thursday evening an ione advocated nullification. When as to select the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the late election the late election the vote for Wolf is about the late election the late electio were probably about 15 000. National Re- listless and unlistening House hang, so aged German and on Sunday afternoon took his seat, David Baker Esq a Riving ries being It is not improbable that the unhappublicans who voted for Wolf on account frequently with wrapt attention? Whose probable that the unhappy state of our country is owing to an these should be added to the vote for Rit
The probable that the unhappublicans who voted for Wolf on account frequently with wrapt attention? Whose frequently with wrapt attention? Whose for the Internal In provement question—
Secretary of the Board of Health Mr. In the second of the Internal In provement question—Tame was identified with that body for Randal's loss will be seriously felt by an extensive in each hand to support his to eight been for nearly thirty years not so strength of the Anti-Jackson party name-dexterous debater? a riper scholar? betmuch the object of politicians to select by 105 000 to 77.000 Jackson—Anti Jackler versed in the politics of our country? which he was a public spirited and value the house he went on the politics of our country? other and not a transient cause, it has ner and deducted from Wolfto show the so long a period ! Who was a more interesting young family by an extensive to his fellow conzens. After premise patent n continue to select men for the councils (N.C.) the new cases for the week en. olina still in the republic then undoubt of the Manor died this week.

Our town is at present in the enjoyment of our state and nation merely because whites and 18 Color red. Deaths 13-2

Whites and 18 Color red. Deaths 13-2 dest hearts should not always be selec. The Cholera continues to advance

From the Georgetown Columbian

Webster.

because it cannot be improved.

the table, and the marks in your cemetry. It it not long since I The piercing coldness of his sarcasms 'Another Voter' be a member of let others pronounce his eulogy. I must anti-Jackson ticket. Of Gen. Jeck on he the county. haunted the scene of its triumphs and pel me toknow that he has no vestige when I dared to wrong them indignant- and lamentable to relate that he is in heart Press, I shall never claim an exem ly rebuked me.

of no party exclusively; nor is justice.

the fearful and solitary sublimity of ably abated since our last publication. Pennsylvania-a filain statement -In genius stood a gentleman from Virginia There has been no new case since of silver?

this House. With a genius eminently metaphysical be applied to politics Lowntles, his habits of analysis, abstraction and Mr. Spencer,- The election has condensation, and thus gave to the pro passed, and the angry passions. Pinckney, Randolph, blems of Government something of unjust feelings, which it too cften Calhoun-Clay, and that grandure which the higher cites, having had a reasonable time mathematics have borrowed from as subside, I think proper to notice and tronomy. The wings of his mind were lication which appeared in vour na There is a great deal of beauty and rapid but capacious, and there were on the 29th ultimo, over the signal and has not rendered the same or equal and impetuous character, his declama. 1830) allowed the defending cou feelings with it like a mountain torrent in all criminal prosecutions sens or good taste, to adopt a loit; Bill of Rights. The community by and letting reason argue for him, ry of that distinction by the superior Abother Voter, and those of noble precept so entirely his own that greatness he has since achieved. The extends to every member of the bar: Boston (Eng) Herald. the first station in the republic was nei- same vigor of thought, the same force I have no doubt, Mr. Spencer if ther to be sought after nor declined, a of expresion the short sentences, the will take the trouble to make the sentiment to just and so he ppy express. ealm cold, collected manner, the air of amination youwill find that your lain unimpassioned voices all have been de such allowances. There was also a gentleman from veloped only not changed even to the The charge of volunteering my se > wan, is published in the United States! Gazette, which we shall transfer to our cases I have never sought requitale of democratie principle in his Constitution I do, the freedom and liberty of the a dishonest and corrupt man. - No doubt tion from its most searching scrutif These names have become historical. can now remain, that Gov. Wolf is opposed to Gen. Jackson and that the electoral

NEW JERSEY.-The Legistature of ged with obtaining money from one received from the lest arm. It was who was, or aspired to be, politician this State met at Trenton yesterday and the public authorities of the county some time before any of us could resome time before any of us could resome our experiments.—Diary of a avoid all mention of these men. Their Council, and John P. Jack on of Newark Spencer as a measure of justice acts their words, their thought their as Speaker of the Assembly. The choice such charges shall be made under very looks, have become subjects of was in both instances unanimous the Jack responsible name, and not that of ries foc eleven and the antilackson eight Congress, party controversy. But he whose am-men. The votes of the parties stand bition is of a higher or lower order, has Westcott, was re elected and David John-thus:

Among them, but not of them, in The Cholera in Hagerstownhas consider-we k; and Mr. Jonathan Hager living was uttered the whole audience as near town lost one. Mr. Van S Beashear There was also, a son of South Car- and Mr Peter Newcomer late residents places, and the old veteran sar down Communications.

of the Court to desire them to em istration of our criminal jurisprudere posed where cases have been teld the court, that justice might be do A letter from Mr. Ingham to Mr. Go- to the poor and ignorant, but in en

> No men estimates more highly the in relation to my political epinions political conduct, but when my privil integrity is attacked, when I and chi infamy of falsehood. WM. CARMICHAE

Plain Dealing .- We perceive by one impulse united in a most deafening ders pur midst the enthusiastic cheers of his fello Our town is at present to the enjoyment eitizens .- N. C. Spectator,

ALB ROB

Esqu Vice Presi vemb mont week > on M ly ha Do g ed wi sent chant ties s usefu menti rarely

finish

casin

pass t

are a

have I did S nack Sever enlarg pened Sirrib ible b goods.

all of

of eithe tent fre Havi

ture of

With th to mane of his br