

A great meeting has been held in N. Carolina by the people—there is no pullification there.

There will be a watch night in the Methodist Protestant Church in Centreville, on Monday night next to commence at 8 o'clock.

There will also be a watch night at the old side Meeting house in Centreville, at the same time.

Consideratus's communication has been delayed several weeks owing to several circumstances—it should have been published immediately after the election, when the speech of Mr. Carmichael, made in the Centreville Court House, was fresh in their memories. Better late however, than never.
