POETRY.

[From the Liverpool Mercury.]

SONG;

Addressed to those who have laughed at the idea of a Rail Road to Manchester.

Sera nunquam est ad bonos mores via,
It is never too late to make a rail way,
Ridentum dicere verum,
Quid vetat?—1st Hor.

I sing of a wonderful tunnel that's made,
For the good of our town and the glory of trade;
Forgive me "Canalists," the subject is sore,
For no doubt you conceive it a horrible BORE.
The time now is coming when no longer we'll float
Just a mile in an hour in your d——d tedious boat,
But with carriage well cramm'd, we will merrily pass
Twelve miles in the hour driven forward by gass.
What a glory 'twill be, to see fat, lean and small,
When packed in the carriage beginning to call
"Come, come, Mr. Coachee, come, come, Sir, we pray,
Now open your vent-peg and let us away"
No stopping at inns, for to breakfast or dine,
For with us we'll carry our beef and our wine;
Our boiler shall cook all the dishes we know,
And we'll feed our potatoes as forward we go.
No harm can befal us, our strong safety valve
Will guard us from surgeons, physicians, and salve,
And if a warm-bath should be good for one's hide,
We may open the boiler and enter inside.
Should our engine explode, and we upwards be hurl'd,
We then shall most certainly rise in the world.
And towards what is high make a nearer approach
A thing that can never be said of a coach.
Then since such effects from warm water arise,
Do not throw your cold water on what you desire;
But drain your canal, and the soms, (oh, odd-rot em,)
That you've sunk in the scheme, you may find at the bottom.

Thos Ashcom,
Oct. 24th. 4t. Sheriff,

Price Two Dollars per Bottle

TO THE PUBLIC.

IN consequence of the numerous frauds and impositions practised in reference to my medicine, I am again induced to change the form of my BOTTLES. In future, the PANACEA will be put in round bottles fluted longitudinally, with the following words, blown in the glass, "SWAIM'S PANACEA—PHILADA." as represented above.

These bottles are much stronger than those heretofore used, and will have but one label, which covers the cork, with my own signature on it, so that the cork cannot be drawn without destroying the signature, without which none is genuine. The medicine may consequently be known to be genuine when my signature is visible: to counterfeit which will be punishable as forgery.

The increasing demand for this celebrated medicine has enabled me to reduce the price to Two Dollars per bottle; thus bringing it within the reach of the indigent.

My Panacea requires no encomium; its astonishing effects and wonderful operation have drawn, both from Patients and Medical Practitioners of the highest respectability, the most unqualified approbation, and established for it a character which Envy's pen though dipped in gall, can never tarnish.

The false reports concerning this valuable medicine, which have been so diligently circulated by certain Physicians, have their origin either in envy or in the mischievous effects of the spurious imitations.

The proprietor pledges himself to the public, and gives them the most solemn assurances, that this medicine contains neither mercury nor any other deleterious drug.

The public are cautioned not to purchase my Panacea, except from myself, my accredited agents, or persons of known respectability; and all those will consequently be without excuse, who shall purchase from any other persons. Wm. SWAIM,
No. 221, Chesnut street. Philad.

—o—

Caution to Purchasers.

This medicine had been used for more than 7 years before an effort was made to imitate it; but the great demand for it, and its wonderful success, have induced a great number of persons to imitate it in various ways—upwards of fifty different mixtures have been got up in imitation of it, which is a convincing proof of its being a medicine of great value. Some are selling Sarsaparilla and other syrups, imposing them on the ignorant for the Panacea; others are mixing the genuine medicine with molasses, &c, making three bottles out of one; thus retaining some of its virtues: others are using the genuine Panacea in their bottles to perform cures, to obtain certificates to give their own a reputation, &c. Some have even resorted to perjury to deceive the public. These imitations and adulterations have, in many instances, protracted the sufferings of patients in diseases where the genuine Swaim's Panacea would have proved instantly efficacious. I therefore deem it a duty I owe the public to assure them, that the composition of my Panacea is not known nor was it ever communicated to any other person in any way whatever; and consequently, that all other mixtures represented to be mine, are fraudulent impositions. Wm SWAIM.
