skill of veterans & the names of Scott, Jessup, Leavenworth, M'Neil, and Hadman, were given to their country to adorn the proudest page of its histo-

Five and thirty minutes decided the contest and theretiring foe was pursued and driven to its fortress. None who saw, will forget the terrific beau- ing. wol this scene, the noble appearance of every movement, the awful fury of the battle, its fatal severity, its brief continuance its triumphant close. the victors returned from the pursuit of the retiring enemy, a scene of intense interest was presented plumes and beating hearts, and eyes with many of them. that gleamed with valor and ambition. There too had been tempestuous chiefs | rest equilous of fame, dashing their fiery steeds along the hostile ranks, and there had been all the spirit stirring Here was one who called upon Heaven to protect his children, another raved of a bereaved wife, and a third secrated only by that tie, while others Osborne jr, aged about 21 months. deprecated theirown suffering or pleabright scene that was fading before reer. them and they grasped fervently the boods of those who mourpfully bade them farewell.

Times & Advertiser entreville: E. S. PAd. FEBRUARY 2, 1833

The S. Carolina ordinance was to e ce to the U. States, and dubbed hercouncils of the Nation. The drum $250. clarion call them to other scenes than peaceful argumentation of Tariff and blick land policies-they have no intertin such matters now, they have set the January 26. 1832. rown of glory or a halter of infamy aits them - Let them go and enquire of sorceress their fortunes-We tear iil abides them.

States are for supporting the Tariff dless of the likes and dislikes of South on Society it is recommended that Tuesthe 26th of February be a day set a for the meeting of Temperance Soci- noon of that day throughout the United States. It is ore respectfully requested that all lends of Temperance in Queen Ann's will meet in the Methodist Epis-Church in Centreville on that day lying in the same county called Darland o'clock A. M. and that suitable adses be delivered, DEATHS.

this county on Saturday last Mr. ose who knew him.

Ciuss No. 24; Drawn, December 1st. 23, 58. 61-A Prize of # Virginia Resolutions.

The house of delegates superseded the original resolutions proposed by the

Resolved, That the doctrines of state of the troops, the dreadful precision sovereignty as set forth in the resoluc ions of 1798, and sustained by the report of 1799 are the true doctrines of republicanism, and the said resolutions and report are bereunto appended as the decided opinions of the present general assembly of Virginia, and contain They traversed the field which a lew true interpretation of the constitution minutes before had sparkled with the of the United States-but that we do broud equipage of war. There had not concur in the exposition of them been gallant men and gay uniforms which has been given by the convenand waving banners, and there had tion and legislature of South Carolina, been drums and trumpets, and the nor do the resolutions of 98 or the rewild notes of the bugle stirring the soul port of 99, sanction all the principles to action. There had been nodding proclamation, but are in direct conflict

The bill to alter the time of the mee- | Stevens. sight and sounds that fill the eye and ting of the Legislature, and for other V-Susan Vanderen. the ear, and the heart of the young purposes has passed the senate. In W-Edward Wilson, Joseph Watts. warrior giving more than the poet's the house of Delegates aproposition has fire, to the entranced imagination, been adopted to appoint a joint com- January 5, 1833, What change had a few brief moments mittee to bring in a bill to lay off the produced! Now the field was strew- state in Congressional districts, Afed with the ghastly and disfigured forms | ter appointing Messrs. Pratt. Somer- | Queen Ann's County Orphans' Court with the wounded, with the mutlated ville, Ely, Hammond, George A. Thomand the dying. The ear was filled as, Bourke, and Nichols it was sent

OBITUARY.

Groome, only son of Mr. Samuel Groome newspapers in Baltimore.

Happy probationer! scarcely had the ded pitiously for the pardon of their journey of life commenced before it was ly copied from the minutes of proceedded pitiously for the pardon of their southened before it was ly copied from the minutes of proceedsing. Here were those who prayed the storms and tempest of this vain and the storms and tempest of the storms and tempest of this vain and the storms are storms. The storms are storms and tempest of this vain and the storms are storms and the storms are storms. ardently for death, and some who im- delusive world-to pass through the waploted a few minutes more of life, ters of affliction, the fiery trials of perse-Complaints of bodily pain, and confestion, and the alluring paths of tempta tion thou are accepted without a trial. sions of unrepented crime burst forth Even before thou hadst tasted the vinegar from the souls of many in heart rend. and gall of life thou hast beentranslated to ing accents, while some as they gazed the "sweet fountains above." But to those whose lot it may be to "bear the heat and apon the fast flowing crimson torrent burden of the day-to fight the good fight wasted the brief remains of breath in of faith"-to endure hardships like faith. moralizing upon the shortness of life, ful soldiers of the cross, and at last arrive at the heaven of eternal repose, we say, and man's prodigality of existence. thrice happy are ye, ye shall be as stars that the subscriber bath obtained from English Grammar and Geography Many gallant spirits there were on of the first brightness in Heaven! ye glo- the Orphans' court, of Queen Ann's that ensanguined plain, who prayed rified your redeemer on earth great shall be your reward in Heaven. Ye mourning county in Maryland, letters of administration on the Personal Estate of Fred. The Greek and and yet scorned to murmer. Their your child's eternal gain, he lies still and erick Harrison -- late of Queen do. their eyes wandered wistfully over the height scene that was fading before the intended influence upon your future ca- gainst the said deceased's estate are

> Lean not on earth, 'twill pierce you to the heart, expires.

Which nothing earthly gives or can de-

The souls calm sunshine and the heartfelt joy.

IN CHANCERY, January 15, 1833. ORDERED-That the sale of the real estate of James Boadaway, decd. made and reported by Joseph Wickes Having declined moving from Cene writing, Arithmetic, English grammar, tinued till 9 o'clock, when the committee the Trustee, be ratified and confirmed treville I beg leave to inform my cus- Geography with the use of the Maps rose and the House adjourned. unless cause to the contrary be shewn tomers and the public generally that I and globes, Painting and the elements the effect yesterday in that State, That before the 15th day of March next - have removed my Shoe store to the of natural Philosophy, Astronomy and provided a copy of this order be inser- house lately occupied by Messrs. O'- Botany. True copy, Test.

Public Sale,

In virtue of a decree of Queen Anns e Legislature of almost every state in County Court, sitting as a court of mion, has spoken out against Nulli- Chancery, I will expose to public sale to call and examine for themselves. Nearly all of the middle & Wes- at the Court Honse door of said county

Tuesday February 12th a circular of the American Tempers next, between the hours of 10 in the morning, and five o'clock in the weer-

All that Tract or parcel of Land

Manor, of which Peter Foster died seized and possessed, containing four less. The same will be exposed and dors in the OMON SCOTT—much respected sold to the fighest bidder for cash only Coot and Shoe on payment of which, and on ratification of the sale by the said court, and not before a deed of conveyance will with neatness and despatch, to the the canal totern be executed to the purchaser conveyclaim of the complainant & defendants | a complete hand on Boots. in the said decree and those claiming > January 19th 1823. Trustee.

N intelligent Youth is wanted at this In Office to learn the printing business J. B. Spencer.

committee of 11, of which Mr. Broad- Remaining in the Post Mr. Arlett's taken a room in the house adjoining - Remaining in the Post Mr. Arlett's taken. He will give Sday's later from Europe Office at Centreville Mdv Quarter end. Lessons in Drawing and Painting, from By an arrival at N. York London papers ing January 1st; 1833.

op 3, James Booker

C-Wm. H. Cain, Edward Clark 2 | Centreville, Jan. 12, 1833. Louisa C. Coursey, Seth Clements, Joshua Clark, Charles Clannahan. D-John Davis, Washington Downes.

F-Dr. Lewis W. Faulkner. H-Philip Hinton (of color) Pomeroy Highy Philemon Hines, Patrick Hor. an, Elizabeth Hemsley. James Har-

K-Charles Knight, Sally Kellum. L-Henry Lee, Benjamin Legg, Silas Lumbrick.

M-James Mason, Ann M. M'Connekin, Patrick Murning, R. Morris. S-T. B. Seeney 3-Charlotte Stevens, Benjamin Shunk, Thos. Sutton, lege, New York, who comes highly the question of nullification,

S. C. FALLOWFIELD.

MARYLAND

On application of George with strange, and melancholy, and ter- to the senate for their consideration Newnam Adm. of Frederick Harrison life sounds, the shouts of victory had and concurrence. Abill for establishing of Q. Anns county decd; its ordered that even place to groans of anguish, the a state Bank was offered by Mr. Teac. he give the notice required by law for complaints of the vanquished the pray- kle read the first time and referred to creditors to exhibit their claims against er or the imprecations of the dying. the committee of Ways and Means. | the said deceased's estate, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks Departed this life in Millington Kent in the Centreville Times & Eastern. tenderly aspired a beloved name, con- County, on Tuesday 29th inst, Samuel Shore Public Advertiser, and one of the

In testimony that the foregoing is truthis 2d day of Feb. in the year of our Lord, 1832. Register of Wills forQ. A. County,

Butsuant of Order

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN. hereby warned to exhibit the same with December 8. 1832, -3w the proper vouchers thereof to the Sub-A broken reed at best, but oft a spear, scriber at or before the 29th Sept. 1833 On its sharp point peace bleeds, & hope or they may otherwisely law be ex-But put your trust in Him who can give Given under hand this 2d day of For girls at Warmon.

Jan. 29, 1833.

NOTICE:

recived a large supply of Ladies and months. Ramsey Waters. Gentlemens Boots and Shoes, also a large stock of Sole and upper Leather Doct, P. Wroth and Judge J. B. Ec. Reg. cur. can. which will be manufactured at the cleston, Chestertown. shortest notice by the best workmen on the Eastern shore, and strict attention January 5, 1832. given by myself: and will be sold unu> sually low for cash or country produce. My friends and the public are invited

> ROBT. BISHOP January 12, 1833.

NOTICE.

The subscriber respectfully informs they have a General Assortment of his friends and the public, that he has If t'esh Cooos moved to the house formerly occu- which were selected with great care pied by Mr. Robert Bishop where he will from the Philadelphia and Baltimore carry on Shoe manufacturing business markets. in all its various Branches, he has just | received a large supply of

BUSINESS

Two apprentices wanted at the a- colored Mecinos. nig to him and his heirs the land sold bove business immediately Also two All kinds of country produce taken to him, clear and discharged from all or three journeymen shoe makers, one in exchange for goods.

by, from, or under them or either of Centreville, January 26 1838.

Portrait Painting.

M. E. Mynarts, Portrait & Miniature LIST OF LETTERS Painter bas returned to Centreville and nature--- Portraits, and Landscapes- to the 8th Dec are received. An werp B-Doct. James Bordly 3, Robt. acquired, and which is amusing and ter a loss of 2000 med. may be seen at his room.

MILLINGTON ACADEMY.

ing and render it an object for parents | torce, and wards under his charge.

healthiness of its inhabitants and the then pudible throughout the hall. by other village of equal advantages circumstances, ting and intelligent community.

For reading, Writing and

Arithmetic, per quarter The Greek and Latin Languages By order of Board of Trustees,

E, T. MASSEY Secretary.

Geo. N. Newnam Situated on the road leading from Ad m'r. of Frederick Harrison decd. Cester Town to Millington, about ten tern Shore.

The branches taught are Reading,

If. The Nation of S. Carolina, by the ted in some newspaper once a week Brian and Legg as a Grocery Store- The terms for Board and tuition, are ace, not of priest, but of mad cap politi- for three successive weeks before the third door below M. Francis Arlett's twenty one dollars per quarter: the first ans and pseudo patriots. Mr. Calhoun 15th day of February next. The re- tavern and directly opposite Mr. Pere quarter in advance. No scholar will other S. Carolina members of congress port states the amount of sale to be Wilmer's tavern. Where I have just be received for a less time than six Sold to a gentleman in Paris, Ken-

REFERENCE

REMOVAL

They have also a General Assort-

Leather, Materials &c. Hardware Queensware Hundred and sixty five acres, more or and is now prepared to execute all or- AND GROCERIES, choose may save their feelings, and the and examine their Cheap Goods.

their assortment some very handsome It is hoped that all persons thus inter-

PALMER, JENKINS & KENT. as proposed, THO. HUGHEY. Centreville January 5th 1832.

Blank Fieri Fas

Baynard 3. Sarah Baley, Robert Bish | instructive to the mind. Specimens ERUPTION OF MOUNT ETNA. A violent e uption of Mount Ætna took place on the 17th and 18th of Nov. which destroyed Bronte, a town situated nine leagues from Gatania and which contained a population of ten thousand persons!

Congress.

The Trustees of Millington Acade. The following formed a part of the my after unwearied exertions have debate in the House of Representasucceeded in obtaining a competent lives on Thursday on the engrossing Teacher to take charge of the above subject of the tariff. In committee institution. They therefore, now have of the whole on the state of the Union it in their power of informing the pub. Mr. Vinton of Ohio in addressing the lic that it is open for the reception of chair in opposition to the bill reported pupils. They have employed Mr. John from the committee of Ways and Means C. Taylor a graduate of Union Col- touched in the course of his argument

Juliet Senuit, Ann Stansborough Danie recommended by the Rev. Mr. Nott, Mr. Vinton said, he would rather see President thereof, the Hon. J. W. Taylor the whole of the persons assembled in late speaker to the house of represen. this hall swept off, he would rather see tives, and other distinguished charac- our broad rivers running with bloodters, and from the trial that we have he would rather see the one-half of already had of Mr. Taylor's qualifica- the population put to the sword than tions, capacity and mode of teaching to see one word of our glorious Conwe have been highly gratified, andflat stitution blotted out; one iotum of the ter ourselves that he will soon regain great inheritance which we had receifor the institution itsformer high stand- ved from our forefathers obliterated by and guardians to place their children A considerable excitement here a-

The village of Millington is rapid. Mr. McDuffie exclaimed, in an indigly improving and has alwaysbeen pro_ nant tone of voice, Robespierre, and verbial for salubrity of its climate, the expressions of dissent (hissing) were morality and hospitality of its citizens, Mr. Carson said, no person could reand boarding can be obtained upon frain from the expression of his feelings more moderate terms probably than a- on such an occasion and under such on the peninsula. The above consid. Whathad they heard this night, Good God Court, I have hereunto set my hand and climate in which they may in future that all the talent, all the virtue, all the expect to continue, and associating patriotism and public spirit which adorns with a neonle of habits and dinositions this hall, ought to be swept away before with a people of habits and dipositions any particle of the Constitution should be congenial to their own, cannot fail of violated. And that, Mr. C, continued, Thos. C. Earle, recommending themselves to a reflect- with increasing vehemence was not all. The rivers of our country were to run with blood, and one half of our fair popu-THE TERMS OF TUITION ARE, lation were to be swept away rather than that the constitution should be violated; Has it not been repeatedly stated that unconstitutional laws have been passed. has it not been so declared by a soverrign 4.30 | state? and yet it is to be said that our riv-5.00 ers are to run with blood, and ourselves to be swept away and one half of the present population of our country des royed 6.00 rather than that the constitution should be violated. My God! said Mr. C. to what conclusions are we to arrive?

Mr. VINTON said that he had not used the words ascribed to him of a violation of the Constitution, but he had said that he would rather see the events take place to which he had alluded, than see at ny portion of the Constitution obliterated by force. The obliteration by forcewould involve the otter annihilation of the Constitution and the ruin of the Goverment or the republic.

Mr M'DUFFIE said he could not help exclaiming Robespiere, and though it was miles north of the former place, in one not in order, yet he assured them it was of the healthiest situations on the Eas- involuntary. He owed an apology to the House, which he now made-but he owed none to the gentleman from Ohio.

Sylvester's Office. No. 113. Baltimore-Street.

Nos. 0 39 50 61-1,000.

ELIZABETH THOMAS, OP Attend to the last NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the late firm of Wilmer and Driver either on open Palmer, Jenkins and Kent have re- account, note, judgment, or otherwise, moved to the Store House recently oc. are respectfully asked to call and pay cupied by Messrs. Earle and Sutton, their respective claims before the first and of late by J. & W. Lindsey; where | day of February next, at that time every claim, no matter by whom due, will be placed in the proper officers hands for collection. The subscriber who has undertaken the collection of the claims due the above firm, deems t proper to give this public notice of bis most possilive intention, to wipe hie hands of all this business, by proceeding as above; and also that all who Their Customers and the Public in cost accruing on warrants; suits, exegeneral are respectfully invited to call cutions &c. The subscriber can be found either at the Centreville Hotel N. B. They have recently added to or at S. K. Godwin's counting room, ested, will take the advantage of the time allowed, as it will be very disagreeable to the subscriber to procees

JOHN R. DRIVER for the late firm of Wilmer and Driver

Centreville, January 19th 1133.