long has as many volunteers of all sorts as ure of correspondents, and the roguery of For your impudent and unfounded claim Dublin itself. A score of blacks were rea- friends, he became involved at last. All that upon this lady, whom your master loves— in this county raised a field of Oats the dy to assist him with his luggage, and at he wanted however was a little money for What exclaimed Sophie; but the merch- present season which were found by least a dozen of free negroes and mulattoes present exigencies: with that and a course ant restrained her surprise. had baskets of the best fruit in the world .- of economy for a few years, he might have Whom your master loves, woos, and whom He might have had a wheelbarrow for six- retrieved his broken fortunes. His most in- if heaven is propicious (he says this doubtpence, and the aid of a dozen Sambos for an timate friend and neighbor was this Morson. ingly and humbly,) he will win-for this a- of the common kind. insignificant compliment in copper, Neg- | Who, then was more likely than he to help | trocious insult there is no punishment great tecting these advantages, Vivian made the him with a loan of money? He was rich and enough. Yet if any attempt be made upon best of his way to the house of the Mynheer | childless, but the old planter whom I have her you shall at least be chastised to your Schlachenbruchen, the Fleming, which was spoken of had one single child-a girl. Pity, hearts content. Be satisfied that I do not the quay. The merchant was not at home, having retired, as usual, to sleep at his plantation leaves a few miles from town. Our at the instigntion of his management.

The Telescope, the Columbia S. C. partisans, as president of the Portsmouth We are all armed Mr. Seyton said the merthe quay. The merchant was not at home, he did aid him—at least he lent him money, chant: you had better let us depart quietly.

The said Republican Editor prints, and the management of the Portsmouth of the Port Wassel, a strange figure, somewhat in the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a wife, and the shape of a cone, the cone of a cone of a cone, the cone of a c shape of a cone, that had originally sprung the old planter's daughter for a whe, and up (and almost struck root) somewhere near who thought, that, if the parent was ruined, Sophie and her adversaries: he is here, he Ghent or Bruges. Holding Vivian's cre- his child would be glad of any refuge. He overlooks you, and will punish you. Look Southern man: his object was to lay dentials at arm's length, this "shape" pro- dreamed that she, who had interfered often slaves, I am Vivian your master ! Obey me before the Churches a true statement fled in the incipient stage of his admin- jection to his taking a looking glass and ceeded to decypher the address of the letter between him and his victims, would forget as you value the liberty which every man on of the miseries he had witnessed during istration, in some of his unusual views placing it teside the two papers, between through an enormous pair of iron spectacles. all her old abhorrence, and unite her late my estate shall have if he deserves it.

In due time he appeared to detect the hand with that of the most barbarous tyrant that In the course of time, the blacks, on their their assistance in the benevolent at. In due time he appeared to detect the hand with that of the most barbarous tyrant that with the course of the benevolent at with the course of the barbarous tyrant that with the course of the barbarous tyrant the course of the barbarous tyrant that with the course of the barbarous tyrant that with the course of the barbarous tyrant that the barbarous tyrant th breathed out, "Aw: Mynheer Franz Gref- Well sir, to end this tedious story-" fulle!" and proceeded to open a seal as big It is most interesting to me, said Vivian— from the condition of bondmen, but they rioters aforesaid, after passing a series its operations. Hence the warfare of the beauty of himself and the Repub-These were evidently satisfactory: for he put on a look of benevolence, and welcomed the new comer (who was amounced as Mr. the new com Vernon) to Stabrock. "You will take a ced the money, that Seyton intrigued with world said Vivian one day to his wife, in conthe slaves, and caused many of them to reforeign pleasure which are can confer is to not injured; by a small portion of water. with some acrimony) is held upon a similar of the District court of the United states by the parties advancing with double-Sambo appeared justly proud of his burden | tent which he placed on the table in its original God forbid ! said Vivian, But Seyton? state of integrity: for, after looking for a Did he urge his suit? moment lovingly at the liquid he turned | He did, and was refused. And therefore rival in the colony, excepting one or two, and there is no knowing what claim he which have direct referrence to our present | might urge against me. He once hinted | narrative, He was introduced to Mynheer | that I was born a slave on the Palm-Grove) Schlachenbruchen and his wife, each of estate and, as such belonged to his master:whom, were our limits larger, might fairly 1, who am the only daughter of William lay claim to commemoration. As it is, we Halstein, to whom all, but a few years ago, must pass them by, and content ourselves | belonged. at all events) treating Vivian with more son whom Vivian intercepts? He shall do and caused so great a flame as community arises, as at all events) treating treating mong other sources, from its extremely consideration than his ostensible rank demantion to injure any one and ded, and introducing him to their acquaint- Vivian is not the man to injure any one, and ance. The person, however, into whose so | least of all yourself. Go with us to-morrow; ciety Vivian was more especially thrown, I beg, I pray, that you will. I pledge my honwas a young girl who performed the offices our, my soul, that you shall not be a sufferer. of governess &c, &c. in the house of Myn- The party was introduced to Seyton, heer Schlachenbruchen. The Visitors of ferectious looking man, of middle age, wh the family avoided her, as though she had with a mixture of self-confidence and ambig been the plague, (even the Mynheer himself | uous civility, welcomed the merchant and preserved a distance:) and the consequence his companions. He took no notice of Viviwas that Vivian himself rather looked down an indeed; but when he saw Halstean (who was that with minder the state of the state indeed, an accute-minded and even accom- carried in his hand. plished girl, but she was a little supple, de- | Stand off, ffellow! said Vivian, angrily: mure, or humble as Vivian himself. In fact another touch or another insolent word and she received our hero's advances with indif I will lay you at my feet. ferent cordiality at first; but the magic of The other started and examined our hero's sincerity will win its way and they accord- apperance cautiously and sullenly. He saw ingly, at last, became excellent friends. The nothing however, except an athletic figure About twenty buildings were destroy thing which surprised our hero the most was; and a resolute countenance, and retreated d-stores, dwellings, stables, and how it was possible for the dull, gross, unen- from collission with so formidable an oppo- slaughter houses, - 16, or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidently so much their superior. At last the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: she was the child of—

or even affect, a disdain for one who was evidence, addressing the truth came upon him: a distance and truth ca tuous, intellectual, accomplished, modest—a scarcely blame me for insisting on the rights received from Washington states, sub- ed into the presence of God. Death government newspaper assails it, it remodel for women; but she had a particle- of my principal. (scarcely apparent, indeed but still there | By no means, by no means, replied the was a particle or two) -a few drops of blood | merchant. All in good time, We will talk he was visited by universal contempt." ask what your larder contains; and then— the particulars as reported;-

exclamation, my-my-sister. The sense- non is not that the way? less brutal wretches!-they little think that | Certainly certainly, said Vivian. Miss under the mask of Vernon the wealthiest of Halstein will leave all to you; I am quite spects the little Pariah beyond the whole of Two or three hours were sufficient to o- Becretary of the Treasury, Mr, Du- like the waves which wander from a use of their own money to defend R. B. Carmichael, Jacksonian. their swollen and beggardly race. A very verlook the accounts.

Short time was sufficient for him to form a Now, said Seyton, I must once more draw short time was suncient for him to form a determination to rescue the object of his ad- your attention to my demand. I claim this, miration from her painful state of servitude. lady, if you will—as a slave. She was born presented by the President at the pre- ward sweeping the power and glory of to assail the Bank and the reputation of Not being accustomed however, to deal with on the estate, has never been made free, vious meeting, the delicacy of ladies he plunged at once into and belongs of right to my principal Vivi-

"I am sorry for you, said he, hesitatingly | non's arm and-

for. You are content or seem so; and so mains with me—have I not the law with me? also can I be. We will talk on another sub- added he addressing the Syndic.

S'death exclaimed the other, recollecting that all depended on the will of Vivian. The his incognito; I had forgot. Pardon me—I lady might indeed be entitled to her liberty; The President, who, as his lady might indeed be entitled to her liberty; was a fool. You will think me mad, with but until she proved her freedom, she must my offers of help and my show of pity, but remain the property of the planter. it is so; I am sane enough, and some of remain the property of the planter. these days you shall confess it. Come, will That is sufficient said Seyton: 1 am Viviyou not go with us up the river? We are an's representative.

with trees, and spotted with cottages: but | "Too well" said she; he was a villian. I that woman, in the name of your master Va-

Then I will tell you sir. His predeces- of your bad history. Your cruelty to these He was not left long to his contemplations | sor was a careless, easy, and very old man. | poor slaves beneath you has come to his ears however, for the sea-port of a West Indaco- By a series of unforseen reverses, by the fail- and for that he dismisses you his service. - as a saucer, and investigate the contents. — deeply, deeply interesting, and his glowing still remained as cultivators attracted equalschnap?" inquired he, with a look which an- volt and run away into the words; and that wire Freedom to cook follow men ticipated an affirmation-"As soon as you volt and run away into the woods; and that give Freedom to one's fellow men. please," replied Vivian: to which the other | the poor man fell from trouble into want, and retorted with another "Aw!" and left the from want into absolute despair. His planretorted with another Aw: and left the room with something approaching to alertness, in order to give the necessary orders, in order to give the necessary orders. The ordinary domestics of the Fleming | buildings were burnt by unknown hands : were much more rapid in their movements: and finally his hard and avaricious creditor, point, for Vivian had scarcely time to look round the relentless Morson came upon him, and and admind the door compelled him to turn amounting to one sixth of their value. The his eyes to that quarter.—He saw a lively- old man—(Miss Halstein's voice shook at his eyes to that quarter.—He saw a lively- old man—(Miss Halstein's voice shook at over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get to get to markets and lively- over hall roads to get t looking black come in with a large pipe of this part and betrayed great agitation)—the over bad roads to get to markets, and to the fame of that section. curious construction; and a leaden box con- old man soon afterwards died, and his only by his veto on the bank of the United taining tobacco, followed close by his com- child was cast upon the world to earn her states, -would furnish them with bad rade Sambo, who bore, in hoth hands, a huge bitter bread. This is all sir. I have given money when they get there. glass, almost as big as a punch bowl, filled | you the history of one half of Mr. Vivian's to the brim with true Nantz, tempered but property, perhaps the other (she spoke this round to Vivian, and said exultingly, Dear | it is (for he is a bad and revengeful man) that | I am fearful of coming upon an estate of But we will not detain the reader with a- which he is essentially the master. In the ny detail of our hero's movements on his ar- absence of Vivian, his power is uncontrolled assiduously cultivated her good opinion. chant he said hastily. Before you leave the the building, and the prompt exertions says the New York Gazette, that the This however was not a thing to be easi- estate, there is a point of some consequence of the firemen prevented any damage, effect of the President's Manifesto, will

But she shall he my friend was Vivian's for the rights you speak of. Eh, Mr. Ver-

"I do not complain sir," replied she cold- such bad thoughts out of your head. Come and turning to Mr, Duane, required sends his thoughts abroad through the this subject, which will strike the farlet us go. Sophie, girl, take hold of Mr. Ver- him to sign the circulars to the offiers universe, ranges upon the eagles pini- mer, the mechanic and all, it is this,-- him to sign the circulars to the offiers universe, ranges upon the eagles pini- mer, the mechanic and all, it is this,-- him to sign the circulars to the offiers universe, ranges upon the eagles pini- mer, the mechanic and all, it is this,-- him to sign the circulars to the offiers universe, ranges upon the eagles pinihave neither of us much to thank Fortune for. You are content or seem so; and so perty. Besides which, Mr. Vivian himself has cate insinuation. Mr. Duane was no while the joys and sorrows of days that there pouring out his grievances & com- - Dixon, Jackson independent. Englishman Vivian. Perhaps you was nev- power of appointing a manager over this protation house, a few miles from town. Our at the instigation of his manager-" She shall not go replied Seyton foaming erly part of them-have apparently hero, however, was received, with show and "Seyton?" asked Vivian, interrupting with rage. Once more, seize upon her men acted rather a small part in reference cient officer, and the directors were not finds fault with us because ours can't seize upon her for your master Vivian. Till to Mr. Pinney. That gentleman states willing that he should give place to one boast the same heauty-well, as beau-

PRESIDENT JACKSON.

The Hon. John W. Campbell, judge discharge of rifles, and was followed up for the District of Ohio died of billious | barrelled fowling pieces, a discharge lever on the 24th.

Destructive Fire.

We regret to state, that this morning a complete finale! about eleven o'clock, the new Steam Planing Establishment, on Green-st. attached, was instantly enveloped and have the charge of youth. the whele consumed. Some appre-

There have been two extensive fires in New York within the past week, and both commencing in Distilleries, g ther too much of a man to resign his voice from their illuminable domain its directors, employs a few printers office, but was turned out, in the true ansearched by the milder of decay to print a few pamphlets, to inform CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES;

from his minister of Finance (with a sure Spirit of Desolation has brooded age them - and this person is the Sec. Wm. C. Johnson, cloudy brow no doubt) and directing and flapped her raven wings, and com- retary of the Treasury. The President! his eyes to the Attorney General, said; munes a moment with the departed. notwithstanding, alleges he has fault to Roderick Dorsey, Jackson. Mr, Taney, I APPOINT YOU SE- Many a fond recollection, and bitter re- find with the Bank management—and 7th District—Remainder of Frederick

NATIONAL TRAITS.

Every nation has its traits. The

A great crop of Oats. Mr. Rawley Morgan of Richland,

DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR: According to their own account in

The Mississippi Gazette gives an aca count of a rencontre between a couple of individuals, which commenced by from one of which by severely wounding and disabling one of the comba Baltimore, Sept, 28. tants, terminated the fight, A pair of pistols and a dirk! were also furnish. ed to each of the parties, in reserve for

The College of New Jersey is a helonging to Messrs. Howland and present in a most flourishing condition. Woollen, took fire and was entirely The number of students is greater than consumed. A very large quantity of it has been since 1820, and the appli-You! exclaimed our hero; are you the per- Plank, dressed and undressed was burnt cations for admission this fall are quite in the neighborhood, which were eith- healthy location. Although the College immediately destroyed or necessari- has been nearly a century in existence pulled down. Such was the rapidi- not a single death of a student occurwand intensity of flame, that a wagon red there. This is worthy the notice loading in the yard, with three horses and attention of parents and others who nensions were left for the Medica Col- | There is a confident hope, and pret-

THE PAST.

flection that another year has been et - participates. Vivian to her one morning, in his very blun- thought all that was past, Surely good wine thought all that was past, Surely good wine and would help you.

"Spare your pity returned the lady, we or ten black slaves appeared. You are at or ten black slaves appeared to the black sl mains with me—have I not the law with mer added he addressing the Syndic.

That officer assented, adding, however, mysterious power which annihilates the to do with its money arrangements 6th District - Montgomery, and part of The President, who, as his flatterers shadowy obstacles of years and space, with the Government-but that another tell him was born to command, turned alone retraces the vista of time, where officer of the government, should man- Geo. C. Washington, actual measurement, to yield eighty- The hostility of Gen. Jackson to the would be hadly occupied in our preper, five bushels to the acre. The oats were U.S. Bank scens to have grown out or we could give an extract or two-of a vindictive spirit because he could ; Sangamo (Illinois) Journal, not control the operations of that in- but to do the Editor justice, we can stitution. The first movement on the pin it up in our effice, where the levpart of the Bank exciting the ire of the ers of the curious may call and see it, Hero, was the rejection of one of his and enjoy a little innocent laughter.

U. S. Beensk.

OUTOBER 5, 1839.

By his vetoes on internal Improve- bullies, whose conduct is a reproach his temerity in continuing a fierce war- for the Elkton Academy, So, The whole scope of government, for the last few months, seems to have been directed to the propagation of some feasible plan to cripple the operations of the Bank, during the remnant of duel, which was to have taken place time, it is to remain in existence, with on Monday last, at Bladensburg, did this view, the public deposites are to not go on, for what cause we are not be withdrawn, as announced in our prepared to say. Both parties have last paper, and the President has made made public statements of the matter. this annunciation a suitable occasion The gentlemen are highly respected for the expression of a valume of illib- citizens of an adjoining county, and, ineral and unjust charges against the dependent of our repugnance to this president of the Bank, and those di- mode of settling disputes, we should rectors who concur politically in sen- have regretted the injury of either. timent, with him. They are charged, with offering bribes to the presses of the country, to enlist them in the favor, of the Bank, Sof loaning money to irresponsible persons without proper security, so as to influence and control pub ally to secure a recharter for the Bank, our county. when it shall, at a future day, have ap ched upon the dial place of eternity, to How silly is the conduct of the prehose bourne we are all gliding with a sident in trying to destroy the operathe Presidents' house on Moaday, when power wither at the blightning approach the beight of the Bank's offence? One 2d District-Talbot, Caroline, Queen the Secretary of state, Mr, M'Lane, the of the destroyer, and one generation simple question may here be asked-Secretary of War, Gov, Cass, and the follows another in endless succession, have not the directors a right to make D C. Hopper. National Republican earth with his control, he spans the in- means to repel the slanders of the Kitch longer Secretary of the Treasury. Ol- have fled, pass before the mirror of re- plaints-wantonly forces the secretary 8th District-St. Mary's, Charles, Calwas somewhat tremulously uttered.

Was somewhat tremulously uttered.

Was somewhat tremulously uttered.

Was somewhat tremulously uttered.

Ha! said Seyton, then no time is to be lost. Trospection, and many a tear drop dims to resign, and removes the government trospection, and many a tear drop dims to resign, and removes the government deposit s from the site of the spectary of the reasury.

Was somewhat tremulously uttered.

Ha! said Seyton, then no time is to be lost trospection, and many a tear drop dims to resign, and removes the government deposit s from the site of the secretary of the reasury.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the reasury.

Was somewhat tremulously uttered.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the reasury.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign, and removes the government to resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The plaints—wantonly forces the secretary to the resign.

Note: The uation where Congress had placed John T. Stoddart, Jackson them. This is a high handed, an arlietrary measure-originat d by private' malice, and one that must lessen the evenues and health of that govern * ent

Wit

500 pa

of New

the fors

courtes

posites sider ti

epium-seclud

ter wes

ered a

them 9

particu gyo ri of othe

courtes

Were

Barrel

in Ma

who w

thing

a stre

an att

suppli

merel

pre-el

chase

of the

a paragraph or two directed against the Centreville Times, We are at a loss which most to admire in it -- Its grantmar, wit, or intelligence. The space

The President, finding himself baf. the Republican Editor, we have no obthe rights of the south, but such das- answer the purposes for which it was ry handsome man, and prints a very tardly bullying as this would seem to intended, and then declaring that if he handsome paper - and smells most heusion. It is not at all a southern once legal and useful has been very never took the first honour at college, affair, indeed, but the affair of a few generally and justly ridiculed. But nor was never thought of as a principal

First dubbing him, says Major Jack, an A.S. S Amazing, smart, scholar -ch?

We are happy to state that, the TOur citizens will bear in mind that, on Monday next, the eleclie opinion, with a view more effectu tion will take place in plied for it! Now this suicidal course We are happy to see that Mr. John of the President is the achine of rash- Sergeant has been nominated in Philaness-The persons whom he thus delphia by "the independent Democracriminates, are stockholders in the tto Convention," as a candidate to sup-Bank—and so is the Government of the ply the vacancy in Congress occasion-United States, to a large amount—is it ed by the resignation of Dr. Sutherland. likely therefore, that the notes of irres- Mr. James Gowan was first nominated ponsible persons would be discounted, but declined. With two such Reprehername) had few of the qualities common- this young person; and he touched her as he spoke, with the point of the cane that he spoke, with the point of the cane that he and a loss of the money of the stock- sentatives on the floor of Congress as to them as ours is to us. In all the highest statesmanship, combined with There is a thrilling solemnity in re- profits of the bank the government private worth and purity of character. National Intel.

> Mr, Clay's friends in the West, say step as fleet as the sweep of time, and tions and credit of the Bank - but it is it is not to be taken for granted that he that the souls of many who at its com | corruptly managed-he says, it is dan- | will not be a candidate for the next of a warmer tinge than what loners through of that presently and beached by the people at large, in view of an ap 1st Congressional District-Worcester the pallid cheeks of an European; and hence will look at the balances. After that, we will The Calmet Council convened at heauty and genius and wealth and repet the governmental slanders, This is John N. Steel, Nat. Republican Anne, Kent and Cecil:

3d District-Harford and Balt. countre

Charles S. Sewell, Jackson nominated. J. T. H Worthington, (Jackson inde-James Turner pendent 4th District - Baltimore City wards No, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12, and excellent Nantz must have washed all determined upon the course to pursue, ment by the mighty grasp of intellect, There is one common sense view of Renj, C. Howard, Jackson nominated. By your leave, it must not be so, said Sey- of the customs, directing the removal ons of genius far into the regions of The U. S. Bank was called into life by N. I all and Sey- of the customs, directing the removal ons of genius far into the regions of The U. S. Bank was called into life by N. I all and Sey- of the customs, directing the removal ons of genius far into the regions of The U. S. Bank was called into life by N. I all and Sey- of the customs, directing the removal ons of genius far into the regions of the U. S. Bank was called into life by N. I all and Sey- of the customs, directing the removal ons of genius far into the regions of the U. S. Bank was called into life by N. I all and Sey- of the customs, directing the removal ons of genius far into the regions of the customs. mind, but all availeth nothing. Death the people-by the necessities, and the No. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. Anne-Arundel the Pal Groves, which belong to the rich ton is superseded. Mynheer, here has the Englishmen Vivin Parkens von the Parkens von the eye, as cherished associations bloom deposit s from the Bank-from the sit. Daniel Jenifer, National Republican,