son of my appearance. You are sick, I Mr. Van Buren, action; immediate and ofled! and before I could prevent her, her plans of those designing politicians, who hartshorn was clapped to my distended nos- think more of their aggrandizement, than bly the orifices in my usual organ were at Banner declares himself ready to support licises with some propriety the roat among the papers of Mr. Mason, See that time my only breathing places. Judge any candidate who may be nominated by mon fault of indistinct pronunciation retary to the Duge of Cumberland. then what a commotion a full snuff of harts- such convention, "be he Henry Clay, Dan- among singers. It is but too true sylhorn created among my olfactories!

I bolted for the door, and a hearty echa, he hee! relieved my proboscis, and tobacco chyle, &c. all at once disgorged from my mouth, restored me the faculty of speech. Her eyes followed me in astonishmout-and I returned and relieved my embarrassmen by putting a load on my conscience. It ld her I had been trying to relieve the toot ache by the temporary use of tobacco, while truth to tell. I never had an aching fang in my head. I went home mortified.

Sunday forenoon, Friend A-invited myself and wife to take a seat with him to hear the celebrated Mr. -----preach. Conducted by neighbor A----to his new. Mouth a usual full of tobacco !-- and--horror forrors, found the new elegantly carpeted, white and green; two or three mahogany crickets and a hat stand; but no spit box ! The services commenced: every peal on the And art thou gone—and is this lifeless clay organ was answered by an internal appeal The charming E, honored, prized & lov'd; from my mouth for a liberation from its con- And is she thus so quickly snatch'd away. of using my hat for a spit box; then of turing one of the crickets over: but I could do nothing unperceived. I took out my handkerchief, but found in the plenitude of her officiousness, that my wife had placed one of her white cambricks in my pocket instead of my bandanna. Here was a dilemma. By my cheeks had reached their utmost tension and I must spit or die!

door. My wife, (confound these women. (she might have known better,) got up and As the clods upon her coffin fell. followed me. Are you unwell, Oliver: said Yes, view her grave-dark, gloomy, sad & ty way back to Athens, he bargained was out of sight, and then sent her soul she, as the door closed after us. Lanssvered her by putting out the eyes of an unlucky dog with a flood of expressed essence of cav- Look, ye who priz'd her see how low she to them their daughter and all her com long in the camp, before the endish. 1 wish, said she, Mr. A---had a spit box in his pew. Sodo I. We footed Soon the foul worm will feed upon her marriage which proving very happy, it difference between the ideal gentleman Times & Advertiser. wife had lost the sermon, but how could I help it? These women are so affectionate— Whilst round her rolls the tempest of the of Hymen at all nuptials. she might have known what ailed me, and kept her seat.

that day are not all told yet. After th conclusion of the services, along came Far mer Ploughshare, He had seen me go out Among the shining hosts that dwell on ture with the president, says; of church, and stopped at the open window, where I sat. 'Sick to day, Mr. --- ? Rather unwell, answered I, there was another lie to place to the account of Tobacco. We We hail thee welcome from a world of care had powerful preaching, Mr -- powerful To dwell forever, where thy Saviour is preacher: sorry you had to go out. My No more to heave a sigh or shed a tear. might have known he would-but women Hail, happy soul, the gate of Death to thee must be so polite. But she was the sufferer | Was but the portal of everual light. chair at the open window. Down he sat, & Fo gain celestial joys forever bright. fumbling in his pockets drew forth a formidable plug of tobacco, and commenced un- Now dry your tears, ye who her loss dewisting it. Then you use Tobacco, said I. leetle, occasionally, said he, as he deposit- While angels triumph will you grieve and ed it from three to four inches in his cheek (I mentally pitied those who used more) a neat fence; that of yourn, as flood after flood Say would you bring her back to earth from his mouth bespattered amewly painted white sence near the window. Yes, said I, From joys eternal, heavenly and divine, but I like a darker color. So do I, answered Ploughshare, and vallar suits my notion. pet with his favorite color. . Good thought!, wife will ask him in again I guess. were summoned to dinner-Farmer Plou share seated himself.. I saw his long fingers in that particular position in which a tobacco chewer knows how to put his digits, when Teach her dear babe, to love its Saviour, about to unlade. He drew them across his mouth-I trembled for the consequences should be throw such a load upon the hearth or the floor. But had no intention thus to waste his quid, and shocking to relate;deposited it beside his plate on my wife's damask

This was too much. I plead sickness and rose. There was no lie in the assertion, now I was sick. I retired from the table; but my departure did not discompose Farmer Ploughshare, who was unconcious of having done wrong. I returned in season to see Farmer Ploughshare replace his quid in his ed, would have been his next motion.

then thought the Merrimack had burst its banks and was about to overflow me with its waters I could not escape—the water had bacco juice. I coughed and screamed and Thereforeawakening, found I had been asleep with a quid in my mouth. My wife entering at . Resouven. 1. That we, the young that situation would not have been at the circle, the widow and the maidthe moment Ishrew away the filthy weed. gentlemen of said county shall not pay all necessary, but the d-n Yankees their hair disheveled, and their garm. Huz, if I were you, I would not use that our addresses in future, to any young are so bold and impudent, that there ents, by travelling soilded and torn.

kept my, word. Neither Fig nor Twist, scribed by a physician. Pigtail, nor Cavendish have passed my lips since, nor ever shall again,

NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Editor of the Philadelphia National Banner, for the purpose of securing harmony of movement and the concentration of strength upon one candidate in op osition chosen in every state, according to the ratio for 850. of representation, by meetings of citizens opposed to the election of Mr. Van Buren. We think the suggestion a good one, and worthy of attention, Every good citizen making her trips from Cornwall to N. Britain to all Americans, whether they and she looked as you might suppose Mr. J. G. Bennett, coeditor of the Jackstay the march of corruption and usurpation | York, passage free! which under the present admininistration, is taking such rapid strides; and threatening with destruction the fair fabrick of our Con- elected without opposition U. States States, but know us as only one great, ly he gains a raft and is paddling to Post Master, of Philadelphia, and Amos 1800 guineas in an old house and the without opposition U. States States, but know us as only one great, ly he gains a raft and is paddling to Post Master, of Philadelphia, and Amos 1800 guineas in an old house and the states of the stat we may reasonably anticipate that the same Senator from South Carolina in the nation, who collectively woo their lib- shore, and already she seems to feel Kendall, the Kitchen Cabinet scullion, of handed it over to him, rewarded these system will be pursued that now disgraces place of the Hon, S. D. Miller, re- erty, and established their indepen- his fond embrace but still is anxious - Washington. Mr. Bennett's offence is a- honest fellows by a donation of the Hon, S. D. Miller, re- erty, and established their indepen- his fond embrace but still is anxious - washington. the nation. On the part of the opponents of signed.

iel Webster, Lewis Cass, John M'Lean, lables are tacked together so as to be young soldiers above the common level Benj W. Leigh, or any other man who no more intelligible than fee-faw-fum. both from the same place, a town in He threw ten! the mail spring from sibly of the Manhattan Bank Stamp. combines sufficient talent with well appro- For example, the old tune Uxbridge in Lancashire, and each had much friend- the ground as if she would leap to

The foregoing is from the Louisville He- | the singing books runs thus; rald. We of the Gazette say ditto, -ditto, ditto-"ANY MAN who combines sufficient talent with well approved patriotism, rather than THE MAN of the Kitchen Cabinet, and of the office holders. Cincinnati Daily Gaz.

Poetry.

FOR THE TIMES.

DE MIRS E. C.

ents; but the thing was impossible. I tho't And far from friendship and love remov'd. Q yea! she's gone—a husband's bursting

A mother's breast, with pain and anguis

A father's grief, a sister's sore distress, the time the preacher had named his text, Their cries and tears, declare she is no

() no, 'tis true, we see her borne along. I arose, seized my hat, and made for the The lovely intant's cries her absence tell, tress In the dead of the night, when from a distant window (a pearer ap- to conquer, how they dog about,) imagining me unwell We saw the weeping of the mourning throng the robbers were all asleep he rose and proach not being permitted.) and heat drear,

lies:

there-

But look again-see faith, with friendly

Tobacco, oh Tobacco! But the deeds of Has pull'd away the curtain of the sky,

Hail happy spirit, to the climes of bliss, by it. Compliments over. I gave him my From pain & sorrow it hath set thee free

Bow down submissive to the will of God, dont show dirt. And he moistened my car- Know his designs towards you flow from

> Walk in the shining path your E trod, And you shall meet her in the climes a

And gain that faith which sin and death late war between Great Britain and were now overwielming them, at the discerns.

ney through.

and the church bell opportunely ringing, of Queen Ann's county have rendered well land locked and apparently per- ments of death, took them into his called him away before he could use his themselves extremely disagreeable to tectly safe from the incursions of an trembling hand, and quietly laid them plate for a spit box-for such, I was persua- the young gentlemen uf said county, and external foe, on expressing his surprise down. The officer was obliged to in-I went up staics, and throwing myself on elsewhere, by the use of Tobacco and to the captain of the steamboat (a true terpose and command the volunteer to the bed fell asleep. Dreams of inundations, Snuf-and whereas they have left off John Bull) at so unnecessary a forti- throw: he lifted the box into the right floods, and fire, harrassed me. I thought I the salutary practice of washing their fication having been erected he replied hand, then lifted the box into the left, was burning, and smoked like a cigar. I treth with salt and water in the morn. ing, which is the best preservation -and have commenced the unpleasant reached my chin-I tasted it was like to and injurious custom of rubbing smill.

County.

to "the heir," proposes that a National Convention shall assemble at Washington city to the attachment felt for the vention shall assemble at Washington city Havanna. Twelve lessons are given and four and made off in safety with maid; and both, with equal constancy ship of the Key State. Wonder how he li

COMPETITION.

The Steamhoat Experiment is now

Singing.

A writer in the Bangor Courier crit-

A-tanchor-laidre-mo_tfro-mome, Toi-ling-cryswee-tspirit come;

At anchor laid, remote from home, Toiling, I cry, sweet spirit come:

Now, for all practical purposes singer of this school might precisely as well waste his lungs in shouting derry down da, &c, at the top of his gamut, much in the same spirit as we once overheard a sleepy little urchin at. church droning out as innocently as could be, the verses of "Cock Robin in harmony with the repetition of the Hymen was a beautiful youth of Athens, who, for the love of a young vir- ow, she was indeed much grieved at ling to the lovers, he commanded them a locality distinct and peculiar to itself. gin distinguished himself, and assisted his step, which he had taken without to go immediately to the chaplain, to Letters are used to form syllables, and sylat the (Eleusinian) rites: and at this her privity or consent, but being in an he united by that tie which death only lables, words, all of which are alike distincttime he together with his beloved and easy situation, and not wanting his as- could dispolve. He often declared he there are about 100,000 letters used in prindivers other young ladies of that city, sistance for her support she lamented felt more pleasure from this action, than ting this paper the present week. was surprised and carried off by pi- only through affection for him, The from the battle of Culloden. He shed rates; who supposing him to be what widow sent forth her son with tears tears, but they were not those of Alhe appeared, lodged him with his mis and blessing, the maid eyed her lover exander, when he wept for more worlds cut their throats. Thence making has- time to his steps with her heart, till he with the parents that he would restore after him in a deep sigh. They had panions if they would consent to her volunteer had wolut proof of the widbecame the custom to invoke the name and soldier which he had dressed up in

A DESTINY!

And O, behold your clear loved Is. stands, in a late article explanatory of his rup- In vain had he endeavored to By from Rye, 70 cts, our seat as the chief of the kitchen cab- his heart behind him, and was absent inet, we could have held the destiny of from himself in the noise and bustle this people in our hands !!!

land. We know of no gentleman of of Scotland flew from their heels, and regulations of the Legislative body and martial was held and they were conis withal, a gentleman of unblemished demned to die, but the General order-

ORIGINAL ANECDOFE: ILLUS-TRATIVE OF AMERICAN ENTERPRISE AND DARING.

the United States, an American citi- awful crisis, were strongly painted in Then shall she, when she's gone life's jour- | zen then on his travels in Europe, took | their pallid countenances. Their friendpassage in a steamboat from Greenock, ship was real and sincere but not that In glory clasp her mother to her arms. M crossing the north Channel to Belfast. fabulous and heroic kind as to wish to On the passage down the river Clyde, die for each other, each wished to live he with other strangers, being not a and each was disquiered at the thought little surprised on behalding a consid- that his safety must be built on the For the Times, erable work of defence thrown up on death of his friend. They alternately committee to examine and report thereon. one of the banks of the river at a point requested each other to begin, The lov-Whereas, many of the young ladies so distant from the sea, and in situation er looked extnestly at the little instru our thanks for his favors. (little knowing that he was addressing and gave it to his right again, and as an American, to whom the censures if ashamed of weakness or superstition cast upon his equalitymen for their no- cast his eyes upwards for a noment; The latter gentle man wanted the supeble daring, was a high treat.) Why, and was in the act to throw, when the rior station, but the Kitchen Cabinet comsir, had we been at war with any na. shricks of female sorrow struck his ear, pelled him to knock un der. tion on the earth, a military work in and in burst from an opposite part of Yankee Doodle.

The Deserters.

ship for the other, They had entisted heaven, he caught her in the arms,together, through different motives, they they fainted on each others neck, and marched together, and were inhabi- recovered only to faint again. The vol tants of the same tent. One, whom unteer was the least affected of the four I shall call the lover, had enrolled his and all his attentions were employed their minds to the views of an irresponsible name through an uneasiness from be- about his mother, whose head was on ing disappointed in what he thought his lap, but she was insensible to his all his happiness was centered, the care, Soon after the nomen had rush, he had no right to expect any thing better marrying of a sweet girl of his own ed into the ring an officer had run to from such men, and did not descripe any town, by whom he was much beloved the duke's tent to inform him of the thing better; if he could or would not sub-Her relations were inexorable, and his uncommon tenderness of the scene - serve their purposes another would, so he hopes in vain. The other, a lad of He accompanied the officer to the spot must be hit on the head and go down, spirit believing the soldier's life such as and standing behind the first rank was the recruting officer had described it | an unobserved spectator of the whole willing to see wars, to accompany his transaction. He could hold out no friends, and serve his country, like- longer, he came into the circle, raised provoking as well as laughable errors of Boston Journal. wise accepted the king's pictures, and the widow up, and pronouncing in her curring in printing, when they are informwas called the volunteer. He was the ear he is pardoned, restored her to life ed, that every letter of the alphabet stands only son of his mother, and she a wid- and happiness, together. Then turn on a separate and independent body, and has teac his imagination, and the miserable, half starved food for powder. As for Centrebille: E. S. Hid the back for his assiduity of warfare. the lover, he was insensible to the hardships of the body, the agitation of The editor of the U. S. Telegraph, his mind absorbed his whole attention. the object of his love, he brought his If we had consented to have taken person only, leaving his thoughts and of the day, at a silent midnight watch or when stretched upon his bed at We have heard it confidently asser night. They communicated their sitted, that Thomas Wright, 3d, Esq. of | wattons to each other, and took the fa-Queen Ann's will be the Speaker of tal resolution to desert. Thus wingthe next House of Delegates of Marys ed by love and urged by fear, the hills the Jackson party who would prove they had arrived at a village within more acceptable to the people at large | 4 mile of their own town when they as Mr. Wright combines with talent, were grertaken by a horse pursuit, and a practical knowledge of the rules and reconducted to their camp. A court character,offirmness and independence, ed as is unusual in such cases, that congress. Kent Ing. they should cast lots and only one suffer At the prointed time the ring was formed the drum placed in the centre, with the bay and dice upon its bead, and the delinquents made to enter. The horrors which sat brooding on Shortly after the termination of the their souls the preceding night, and lady that is in the habit of using snuff, was no telling how far they would ven. What a sight was this! The mother I wont, said I. Since Sunday I have or tobacco, in any form, unless pre- ture to penetrate into the heart of the and son on the one side of the drum, country, I myself, saw two of their and the maid and lover on the other) RESOLVED-That a capy of the privateers during the war come sailing The first transports of their frantic Joy above be put in the Centreville Times, up the river, under heavy press of can- at finding them alive, were goon aba- an expose of his views. Cc. and says he ved that the removal of the deposites was de-The young Gentlemen of Queen Ann's the battery, and thought surely they must follow. The officer was a man his removal of the deposits -Mr. Rush would be sunk, or at least crippled and who did not hurry the volunteer to is a Pennsylvanian; an Anti-Jacksonian captured, but to my astonishment and throw. He put his hand to the box and an Anti-Mason; but is no help or cre-A seminary for teaching the art of mortification, after having fired upon of his own accord, his mother fell pros. dit, we suppose to any party. 17 Mr. their colors flying, and drums beating and fervor, poured forth their different ked Gen. M'Kean's election? guess he Ir-

He threw nine; a gleam of imper. | Kitchen Cabinet overseer.did. The term Yankee is applied in Great fect joy lighted up the widow's face, be of the North, the South, the East, her to have done, it standing on the son Pennsylvanian has had his portion of or the West, for they pay no regard to shore, she had seen her son shipwreck. that paper seized upon by the Sheriff, at the lost; were locked in each other's arms, have the entire posse of Kitchen Cablain

DECEMBER 14, 1833.

Baltimore Market Wheat $1,10, Corn 5

Our news toom Washington, though limited, passeques a good deal of interest. Not having got fairly under way, Congressional affers occupy but a small space the papers

The house has been pecupied in deter mining which of the Ken ucky members, gainst the Bank, he has sunk the feelings of a penses Messrs. Moore or Letcher is entitled to a a president into those of the partizan. A seat, and has referred the matter to the we said before, the General attempted a committee on elections. Neither gentle- control the appointment of the Portsmouth, man takes his seat till the matter is deter- (N. H.) Branch Bank officers, and being sident very reprehensible in detaining the gave notice that he should forth with introduce into the Senate, a bill of somewhat similar principles

Mr. Benton said the course of the president was very proper, and that he should defend him.

Mr. Calhoun gave notice that he should move the repeal, forthwith, of the revent collection bill.

The Senate was also occupied with the contested election of Messrs. Robbins and Potter of Rhode Island, and appointed a

The Hop, R. B. Carmichael will accep 173 A letter from Washington says -the office-holders have determined to run the following ticket For President, with a publication, from Henrico, Va. jail, to the Car of the "Little Magician," in which he denies being indebted to the government at all. If this be so, it certainly is very strange that the Kitchen Cabinet has been able to get him there.

Martin Van Buren, For V. President. Rich'd. M. Johnson.

Mr. Richard Rush, has come out with ked it no better than Mas er Martin the Cabinet, you are kicked out of doors In less even yet some envious billow gainst the irresponsible Cabinet,—he says, shilling to each man of the pathin should snatch him forever from her eves, the has never swerved in his loyalty to the Meanwhile the lovers, giving up all for Hero, but that old Nick must, and ought if The following narrative was found and entreated to be killed thus togethe worthies, soullion and all. We agree with er on the spot. She was held from him Mr. Bennet, but advise the salle Heronot by force, He advanced toward the logo to Washington while the Magician would have ascended a littler for frolic. | said, he may be) hit with a silver buffet post

But to lay joking aside-what a deploralife state our country is in, when presses and built up by the officers of the General Gov. ernment, to corrupt the people, and bend cabal which surrounds the president. It is deplorably shameful. As to Mr. Benneit.

The readers of Newspapers & Books will not wonder that there are frequently

THE MESSAGE.

03- We cannot but be astonished at the pertinacity of opposition, manifested by Gen. Jackson in his message to the U. S. Bank-The General certainly imagines the For Pu Bank the many headed monster, and thinks that the oftener he bangs it, the sooner he'll knock it in the head-well, there is surely some policy in this mode of battle, and if MIR the Hero of two wars, and forty frays is not ... Mir successful in his sorties, he must be patted on And

In the General's year ago Message, he thought the money of the Government, was not safe in the U. S. Bank; in his last Message he says, in perfect contradiction former assertions-the Bank retains specie which to an almost unprecedented amount in its the exp vaults! Jove, what a change of opinion the which General's mind has undergone in a year; or is unner may be, different hands blew the bellows he will while the General struck. The fact is, the the pub Hero has got his choler so wrought up a- number foiled by the Directors, he sw re by his In the Senate, a Message has been re- right red arm, Bank or no Bank, he would ceived from the President, returning Mr. put the Bank down. You know, its a day Clay's Land Bill, passed the last session of gerous thing to offend the Hero; once a man lost his life thereby, and so the bank has lit-Mr. Clay thought the course of the pre- the reason to expect much mercy at his hands . On the whole, the message is a small af-Bill during the recess of Congress, and said fair—the feelings of the su len, half-fledged the thing was unprecedented-improper& politician predominate throughout, and we be have only one enlightening fact in the whole Anecdo stupendous Kitchen Cabinet offering-that, the' the post office department is insolvent; Bentime there is yet money enough in the Treasury the age to keep the government afloat a little while - Maxime > 05- Mr. Taney, Secretary of the Treasury, has favored the public with a long rigmarole relative to the removal of the Government Deposits from the U.S. to the State Banks, "A great big man I," Now the fact is, Mr, Taney had nothing to do !with the matter—he was a more tetotum in The the hands of the Hero, -the law express Ted on ly confides the removal of the deposits to the and good discretion of the secretary ;-Mr Duane" alevo pag dismissal abundantly proves who the operate of $1 p. tor was in the affair, We hope Mr, Ta- Wery of ney's suppleness may do him some good,

We observe by the Pennsylvania Papers that Gen M'Kean has been elected to the U.S. Senate from that State, It will be recollected that this gentleman at the election of President and Vice Preside decidedly disapproved of the Election Mr, Van Buren, and we may therefore safe IP Lieutenant Randolph has come out ly infer that Pennsylvania, at least, is not till

> The President, in his message, speaks of the report of the government directors, as har ving determined him with reference to the en or m withdrawal of the deposites, The report was made late in August; yet, by a reference

It is very agreeable now a days to be publ a friend of General Jackson's. Il in old Chief, you do not concur in every measure recommended by the Kitchen we may say in the very presence of be the General himself .-

New York Star, on the

A gentleman in Ireland, whose is. In William C. Preston, Esq. has been our geographical division into separate ed, buffeting the waves, when present instigation of a custom-house officer, a borers recently discovered a lio r l of a