ence who now hear me it is unnecespary for me to recapitulate. Your crim-20 multifarious, extensive, and devastating, you have persevered with so Worthy action, that you cannot expect posite character, may you die and be forgotten! Sheriff, you will see the sentence forthwith executed. Crier adjourn the court.

The court was then adjourned and ecute the sentence which was done in the presence, of an immense concourse floated for a considerable time,

CONGRESS.

In Senate. Monday January 13, 1834.

question being on Mr. Glav's resolu.

Mr. Calhoun then rose and said tha the statement of this case might be giv. en in a very few words. The 16th section of the act incorporating it, provides that wherever there is a bank or therein, unless otherwise ordered by liberties or immunities, belonging per- it the right of the Secretary to the quesin that case, he should report to Congress, if in session, immediately—and as a rule not less incontrovertable, that the public funds, and I cannot admit such fee or fees. if not, at the commencement of the trust powers are necessarily limited, that the Secretary shall be permitted next session The secretary acting under the provision of this section, has ordered the deposites to be withheld from what is the subject and object of the denied to those who would limit his? sons, in conformity to the provisions of trust, to this case? The whole section power by the clear and obvious intenthe section. The senate is now called of the public funds. With this view What is the real question which now to determine whether the Secretary is they are directed to be made in the agitates the country? I answer, it is justified or not. I have examined them with care and deliberation without the slightest bias as far as I am conscious personal or political. I have but a elight acquaintance with the Secretary and that little is not unfavorable to him. I stand wholly disconnected with she two great parties now contending for ascendency. My political connexionsare with that small and denounced party which has voluntarily wholly retired from party strifes of the day, with in it as a safe and faithful agent to keen a view of saving, if possible the liber-

these impartial feelings, the reasons of their increased security. And lest the the Secretary, I am constrained to say Secretary on his part should abuse so mencement he has placed his right to rect, in case of removal, that he shall course on the pernicious tendency and condoes not attempt to vindicate, and to tion to them, not even then, unless the a right to create a bank. Whatever the which he has not even alluded. I shall deposites can be placed in safer and Government receives and treats as money, said Mr. Cathoun, now proceed with. | more faithful hands. That such was is money; and, if it be money, then they out further remark to make good these the opinioon of the executive, in the have the right, under the Constitution, to assertions. - sition that, in the absence of all legal sion, which placed the subject of the stability and uniformity of value. And i provision, he as the head of the finan .. | removal of the deposites exclusively on | it he in the shape of bank notes, the most efciel department, had the right, in vir- the question of their safety, and that sue of his office, to designate the agent such was also the opinion of the House Congress. Unless you give the highest and place for the safe keeping of the of Representatives then, we have e- practical uniformity to the value of bank public deposites. He then contends qually conclusive proof from the vote notes—so long as you receive them in your tion in regard to the removal of the reference to the deposites, to the extent not a word in the section to justify gress I lay it down as a rule, which I to give all the means necessary to rena to the contrary;) to the subject of the as may best be calculated to enlarge ha ble, and that the amendments be printed. trust. This brings us to the question, power when the right construction is bank. With the same view, and in or- a struggle between the Executive and Larrimore, Burgess and Roberts. der to increase the security, power was Legislative departments of the Governconferred on the Secretary to withhold ment, a struggle, not in relation to the the deposites, and with the same view existence of the bank, but which, Conhe is directed to report his reasons for gress or the president, should have the the removal to Congress. All have one power of creating banks and the consecommon object—the security of the quent control over the currency of the A selected the bank because we confide the public money, but to prevent the ty and the constitution of the country, vest the secretary with power to re-Having maturely considered with move the deposites, with a view to first instance we have demonstrative regulate it. Nay, they are bound by a high The Secretary, at the commence_ proof, in the message of the President according to the nature of that which is ment of his argument, assumes the po- to Congress at the close of the last ses- recognized as money; to give it the utmost when an agent, with general power as.

tumes in the execution of his agency, a power not delegated, the assumption rests on the necessity of the case, and rests on the not faithfully performed all the duties of the case, and rests of the case, and rest of the case, and rests rests on the necessity of the case, and not faithfully performed all the duties to introduce a measure to prohibit Govern- or they may otherwise by law be ex- piece were lodged in the head of his foe,

Azconor, stander! (Here the prisoner attempted to rise, but was so weak in the knees as to be unable, to get up in this case, the power assumed by the who hears me, who will not admit that the public moneys are now less fife the public moneys are now less fife that they were in the Bank of the Uin this case, the power assumed by the who hears me, who will not admit that the public moneys are now less fife that they were in the Bank of the Uin this case, the power assumed by the who hears me, who will not admit that the public moneys are now less fife the public moneys are now less fife that they were in the Bank of the Uin this case, the power assumed by the who hears me, who will not admit that the public moneys are now less fife the public money are now less fife the p and the Chief Justice proceeded.)— ment, is expressly charged with the assert that not a capitalist can be found this week in a variety of local business. On Monday the 24th February inst at 10 and the Chief Justice proceeded.)— and the Chief Justice proceeded.)—

ment, is expressly charged with the assert that not a capitalist can be found this week in a variety of local business. On Monday the 24th February inst at 10 and the considerable high. An attempt was made to pass a vote of discrete will be delivered on the occasion of the considerable high. You have been convicted after a fair and impartial trial of many high crimes and misdemeaners, which, as the whole trial has taken place before the audithe question of the power of the Sec- correct, and I hold them to be unques- administration party at Washington to retary, I do not think it necessary to tionable, the question is decided. The get up a military feeling in favor of this county will make an effort to be pre- Centreville: 23. 25. inalities have been so long continued pursue them, for the plain reason that secretary has no right to withhold the "Van Buren & Johnson" by exhibiting sent, and not suffer small matters to prevent the Secretary has entirely mistaken deposites from the Bank. There has the trophies won by the Col. in the hathe case. It is not a case, as he sup- been, and can be, but one argument ad- the with Tecumseh, throughout the greatest curse. To give effect to any cause much constancy of purpose, and sub- | poses where there is no legal provision vanced in favor of his right, which has Union. tlety of design through a long life of public funds, but one of precisely the optimized that the power to withhold is given to of sundry citizens of Kent and Queen Ann's general terms and without qualification Counties, praying for an act to provide for mercy or delay. The sentence is justice which as presiding officer in the court of public opinion, I now pronounce upon you, is that you be taken from hence to the place from whence you came, a rum puncheon, then to be cast

The 16th section expressly provides that the deposites shall be made in the bank and its branches, and of course it is perfectly clear that all powers hence to the place from whence you came, a rum puncheon, then to be cast

The 16th section expressly provides that the deposites shall be made in the bank and its branches, and of course must assume the position—that the latter ought to prevail over the clear and industrious and industrious and their bank and little ones contortable and hap to Mr. Clay; ver losses not the general and inherent powers of his must regard the power of the Secreta
Which were severally read and referred to Messra. Miller of Kent, Larrimore and Hawkins.

Mr. Scott submitted the following order, Ordered that the comparison of the section expressly provides that the deposites shall be made in the that the deposites shall be made in the Those who resort to this argument a light house on Love point, in Queen Ann's dees not make him desire to see his fe low citizens sober and industrious and their bank and little ones contortable and hap to Mr. Me Duffle, or Mr. Clay; ver losses not the general and inherent powers of his which has rejined by the bodies and souls of the section expression of the section expre drowned in COLD WATER. And are wholly inapplicable to the case, subject and the object of the trust, but means be instructed to enquire into the ex-Nor is it less clear, that if the section as a chartered right, to be used accorbad terminated with the provision di- ding to his discretion and pleasure .recting the deposites to be made in the There is a radical defect in our mode Office of the Western Shore; bank, the secretary would have had no of construing political powers, of which the sheriff immediately proceeded to ex. | more control over the subject, than my- this and many other instances afford put, "will the house adopt the order;" self or any other Senator, and it fol- striking examples, but I will give the lows of course that he must derive his | Secretary his choice, either the intenof spectators, though the water seemed | power not from any general reasons | tion or the letter must prevail, he may reluctant to receive the criminal who connected with the nature of his office select either but cannot be permitted but from express provisions contained to take one or the other as may suit in the section or some other part of the his purpose. If he choses the former citors, clerks, Registers, Sheriffs and other act. It has not been attempted to be he has transcended his powers as I officers of this state. shown that there is any such provision have clearly demonstrated. If he sein any other section or part of the act. lects the latter he is equally condemn-The only control, then which the sec- ed as he has clearly exercised power retary can rightfully claim over the not comprehended in the letter of his stables;" deposites is contained in the provision authority, He has not confined himwhich directs that the deposites shall self simply to withholding the public The special order came up. The be made in the bank unless otherwise moneys from the Bank of the U. States adding the following sections. ordered by the secretary of the Treesu- but he has ordered them to be deposiry which brings the whole question in ted in orther hanks though there is few words-unless otherwise ordered, supposed intention of the legislature, In ascertaining the intention of con- which when it gives a power, intends (unless there be some express provision to resort to the letter or construction,

Bank of the U. States incorporated by Con- | ledge. ficient means of giving those qualities is a pediency of abolishing the Land Office on the Eastern Shore, and of transferring the papers relating to said office, to the Land

Which was twice read, and the question Resolved in the affirmative.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, the house proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Blackistone, entitled, an act limiting the time for

Mr. Blackistone moved to amend the said bill by inserting after the "sherriffs," in the 3d line of the 1st section the following words, "collector of county levies, con-Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Wilson moved to amend said bill by storm.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That attorneys, solicitors, clerks, Registers, sheriffs, collectors of county levies and constables and of the power which Congress intended it. How as he acquired that right? accounts as all other persons are required other officers of this state, shall prove their to confer upon the secretary, in these It rests wholly on construction, on the to do, and that their fees be collected as other small debts are collected, out of court branch of the United States Bank, the suppose will not be controverted that der it available. But as clear as this clerk, register or other officer of this state. I attempted to reply; it was an all absorbing all political powers under our free in- principle of construction is, it is not to plead the said account in bar, of any fee thought, and I gave the wings of fancy to the sonally to the officer. I also lay it down tion of the safe and faithful keeping of taken and deemed a fair and legal offset to panther had been seen in the neighborhood.

Mr. Handy moved that the said bill with the proposed amendments be Inid on the ta-Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Larrimore presented a petition of bly, authorising gates to be kept on the pubdic roads of said county, and the privilege of erecting the same free from tax;

Now in Type, And will soon be published by D. GREEN

Washington City. whole banking institutions of the coun- of all diseases to which he is liable, the skies more than a hundred feet. Thithced under the control of the executive. lished under the direction of the Soci- mer clouds cast their flickering shadows o-So long as the question is one between a ety for the promotion of Useful Know-

Eastern Shore of Maryland.

lawfully exercised which was not nethat the Secretary placed the money in any shape whatever, as the only means left of giving safety and stability to the currency, and saving the country from corruptors of Jan. 1834 many of the friends of the cause, that al them from manifesting zeal in this most important effort to banish from our county its its supporters must prove to the public that they feel an interest in it. Our efforts, thou in much has been accomplished, have not kept pace with the importance of our in language, elequent and powerful, he bject. If we had been more active, the looses none of the force of the best orators, at millions? Let no one suppose he will be the best, if not the very best one delivered held guittless in the day of retribution, he shall be lukewarm in a cause such moment. It is a fearful thing to neglect to do good when it is in our power. -The ministers of the gospel of every mination are requested to give notice from their pulpits of the intended meeting. Many members of the Society

Feb. 1st 1834.

GROWTH OF BALITIMORE.

No less than five hundred and eighty seven houses have been within the limits of Baltimore city during the past year.

nah, lived some years ago, an individual whose life had been devoted to the woods and ture on this spot in her simple and solitary His eyes brightened at the intelligence; he gerous animal.' I wished him success and he departed, accompanied only by his dog. the watchful hunter as he paoed the margin of an almost inaccessible ravine, eager to discover his prey; but the panther appeared not, and he began to fear he was doomed to journ on the 2 0th of February. watch in vain. At length he leaned his rifle against a tree, and commenced partaking a scanty repast he had provided; all was still ver a harvest field. He was aroused from trest in the earth hear the scancethis terria?

FIBRUARY 1, 1994.

Mr. Hinney's speech on the the Doposita Question, is all his friends could ask -- chaste in Congress - on the deposite question.

We defy any man, not perfectly and irrecoverably woodd to Gen. Jackson, to look abroad at the distress of the Nation, and not exclaim-oh, my country, into what evil hands have thy destinies talten-who shall deliver thee of thy peril!

Any man, nay, all men err-but for one to err, and be so pertinacious in his errings, as the president is on the deposite question, surpasses all our comprehension, and excited the deepest feeling of indignation,

The Panther Hunter. dent's offence against his friends; against his country. If we could find any excuse, we would readily do so. But alas, we know of none. The Bunk may have managed badly: Oh, said he once to me, I have seen the it may need restrictions when it comes to be foot prints of the Indian and the panther, renewed; but the removal of the deposites, vests; they have passed away with the wil- was a poor affair for punishment, and inflicted derness, and my own gray head will soon a loss on the government alone, yearly, of lie down in the dust: I must not murmur; $140,000 besides derauging the currency and opening the door to speculators & jobgrandeur, but if I could once again exhibit a bers to prev upon the wants and necessia Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall panther skin as the trophy of my age; I could ties of the poor, and laboring classes - yet and may be lawful for any person or persons forget even that. There was something so still there was hope from our very "patriohaving claims against any attorney, solicitor, melancholy in the idea, that it was in vain tick. President that when he saw how public moneys should be deposited stitutions are trust powers and not rights more clear than that which would lim- or fees sent out against him by any such reflection; it might have been prophetic of man, have retraced his steps—but alas? the affair acted, he would like an henest officer or officers. Any such claim or ac- the old man's end; for on the next day the we have no hope in Israel, there is no count when legally authenticated, shall be villagers were aroused by the report that a balm in the president f and we have the mortifying, the confornding assurance that seemed to have shaken off his years, and I in spite of the petitions from every part of never shall forget the firmness of his step as the Union; of the memorials from the he shouldered his ritle with the hope of gai- Boards of trade; of the payers of the state ning the trophy he desired. Till find the Banks, and the declarations of some of the an old man's eyes do not fail him, I Virginia Banks, that they will not receive sundry citizens of Queen Ann's county, shall have an easy talk; but there is no know- the Deposites; not withstanding all this, we ing what may take place, they are a dan- are told the president will veto any Bill congress may pass on the subject.' Here The day was fast waning away, and the we let the matter drop, if this be patriot-Which was read and referred to Messrs shades of the surrounding trees enveloped ism, we are indeed in a nation of infidels.

Our Legislature has agreed to ad-

There is an infinite degree of amusement. public fund To this point the whole country, This is the real question. In all its varieties and uses together ling waters of the West Branch might be the peoples calling Gen. Jackson a Demander of the West Branch might be the peoples calling Gen. Jackson a Demander of the West Branch might be the peoples calling Gen. with complete directions for breeding, seen meandering in loveliness beneath the ocrat-why, there isn't a greater Federale Not only the selected banks, but the rearing, management and for the cure craggy bank or precipice, lifting itself to list on earth than the Hero-every motion. try, and with it the entire money pow Also a Treatise on Draught; and a co- stream and valley below crimsoned by the at-rank too, as the Hartford convention. er for the purpose of speculation, pe- pious index to the whole, First Amer- setting sun, while thoughts of other days ists could wish it. Look at the appointculation, and corruption would be pla- ican, from the Loudon edition, pub- chased one another across his brain as sum- ments to offices-Mr. Tuney, Mr. M'Lean and all the others. Look at the federal, his lethargy by a rustling in the shrubbery expressions of the proclamation? (though that he has entirely failed to make important a trust, and in order still farbeen created by the will of the Executive,
it is an insult to the understanding to disremove the deposites on an assumption resting on a misconseption of the case.

The animal seemed to have observed dition on which the deposits were given was legitimately, you must go one step farther, some of the subject that the springing into the tree, with a grown, now surveyed the horror stricken that a government and the supervision of the Banks concerns, and In the progress of his argument he has entirely abandoned the first, and assumed a new and greatly enlarged ground to their increased security that he has each of the progress of his argument he has been should have you must divorce the Government and the banks concerns, and he give the notice required by law for the precipice.

In the progress of his argument he has security has no right to act to relation to the Government and the banks concerns, and he give the notice required by law for the precipice.

In the progress of his argument he has security has no right to act to relation to the Government and the banks concerns, and he give the notice required by law for the precipice.

In the progress of his argument he has grown, now surveyed the horror stricken hunter, while his fierce and fiery gazemade he give the notice required by law for the pains and penalties of displeasure of the progress.

In the progress of his argument he has grown, now surveyed the horror stricken hunter, while his fierce and fiery gazemade he give the notice required by law for the pains and penalties of displeasure of the progress. ed a new and greatly enlarged ground to their increased security that he has next on the first and us right to order them to be withheld back to the old system of the strong box, the said deceased sestate, and that the said deceased sestate, and that the first and of cold and silver. If you have a right to produce the notice required by low for the hard of the strong box, the said deceased sestate, and that the cither side, and he gave himself up to the horselessness of deceased as the funds are and of cold and silver. If you have a right to the removal seemed as the said deceased as the funds are and of cold and silver. If you have a right to the said deceased as the said equally untenable; and yet broad as from the bank so long as the funds are in safety, and the banks has faithfully to receive bank notes at all—to treat them for the space of three successive weeks, be hope—he held his knife open in one hand of corable—its intention, being to make the In some one or more papers on the whilst unconscious of what he did, he firmly cerable its intention being to make the grasped a small sappling with the other; his people, thro' the banks, dependent upon the dog, however, instead of relieving his fears, will and pleasure of the government. And In testimous that the foregoing is tru- only excited them, irritating the foe by an ly copied from the minutes of proceed angry bark, as it lay crouched upon the thereby giving the government a control. ings of Queen Ann's County Orphans limb like a cat ready to spring upon her mg influence in all the elections of the U. Court thave hereunto set my hand and if it felt conscious that its prey was sure, and because he dared to differ from the presithe Seal of my office affixed a pleasure in holding its victim in terrific dent, and the substitution of another to ofthis 24th day of Jan. in the suspense. At length, ripping up the bark fice because his vews were more supple recumbent length together, then suddenly the proscription of all the government of-Tho. C. Barle, expanding itself, sprung through the air to- ficers who dared to differ from the Hero-Register of Wills for Q. A. County wards its victim. The hunter, who had ea- for opinion's sake, and the strengthening of gerly watched its motions, with a shriek of his influence by making all the officers that the 16th section does not restrict of that body that the public funds in that provision of the Constitution which prohis power, which stands he says, on the bank were safe, which was under that provision of the Constitution which provides that the subscribers hath obtained from the bank were safe, which was under that the subscribers hath obtained from the clothing and seemed night to have carried him headlong with it over the dread abyes—of a quaster. Is this not all that the bapthe same ground that it did before the place of the act incorporating the and foes as deciding the question of county, Maryland, letters Testamen.

The same ground that it did before the place of the United States. There is no other alternative. I repeat you must divorce the pounty, Maryland, letters Testamen.

The same ground that the did before the united states. There is no other alternative. I repeat you must divorce the pounty, Maryland, letters Testamen.

The same ground that the did before the united states. There is no other alternative. I repeat you must divorce the pounty, Maryland, letters Testamen. bank. It is unnecessary to inquire into the correctness of the position asto the correctness of the position assumed by the Secretary; but if it were to be conferred being established the

Government entirely from the banking system; or, if not, you are bound to incorpoitive presonce of mind the old man ripped assumed by the Secretary; but if it were to be conferred being established the

Government entirely from the banking system; or, if not, you are bound to incorpoitive presonce of mind the old man ripped assunder his clothing, and it fell from crag to
chap fallen do the old patriots of regulation. it would not be difficult to show the question now arises, has the Secretary the currency. And should the deposites against the said deceased's estate are of its fall to the carth, struck on his ears that we did not aid in building up this dy-

> THE RESERVE OF THE PERSON NAMED IN COLUMN TWO IS NOT THE PERSON NAMED ECT: When such men as Mr. Cal-The hunter exhibited histropy, but the houn speak, it becomes a nation of could not endure them, and his remains now life emin to listen,