CENTREVILLE EVENING TIMES

AND EASTERN SHORE PUBLIK ADVERTISER.

IT IS DUE FROM THE PRESS TO THE PEOPLE, THAT ALL COMBINATIONS TO SACRIFICE THEIR WILL SHOULD BE FAITHFULLY EXPOSED.

VOLUME VII.

CENTREVILLE(E.S.) MD. JUNE 21, 1828.

PUBLISHED BY JOHN B. SPENCER DROPRIE TOR & EDITOR.

Subscriptions are considered as intended for ready to promote your happiness at the These and a thousand other instances fidently assured, will prevail in a most the year unless there has been express a- risk of their own. You have allowed us might be cited to show that laws must triumphant manner at the fall election paying off all arrearages.

ing accounts with the editor are expected to pay at the time of advertising. to insure attention.

& PEOPLE'S TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT JOHN Q. ADAMS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT RIC'ARD RUSH.

MARYLAND ELECTORS. Third District. Composed of Frederick, Washington and Allegany Counties. WM. PRICE, GEORGE BALTZELL, Fourth District. Anne Arundel County, the Cities of Baltimore and Annapolis. JAMES BOYLE WM. STEWART, Sixth District. Cecil and Harford Counties. JAMES SEWELL, Sworth District.

Kent and Queen Ann's Counties, COL. THOMAS EMORY. Eighth District. Caroline, Talbot, and part of Dorchester THEODORE R. LOOCKERMAN. Ninth District

Somerset, Worcester, and part of Dorchester Counties. LITTLETON DENNIS.

Jackson Ticket. Seventh District, -Dr JOHN REESE

1825. - pages 141 -2 -3

cease against the troops and subjects chievous.

of the United Kingdom of great Brit- Whenever the invaluable rights pretensions of a powerful enemy will hat under his coat, that no indication in many parts of the country, a very altersin and Ireland.

charges be immediately discharged.

ADDRESS

panies, to Major General Jackson. General-We have delayed until substance forever, in order that we may corps. The offered friendship of each this moment the expression of our feel- for an instant, preserve the shadows .- individual composing it, I teceive with ings towards you, lest the honest emo- It is not to be imagined that the ex pleasure and sincerely reciprocate. tions of our hearts should be ascribed press provisions of any written law can shall always pride myselt on a fraterto a desire of propitiating the favour of fully embrace emergencies which sup- nity with such men, created in such a our commander. At this moment when pose and occasion the suspension of all cause. neither hope nor fear can be supposed law, but the highest and the last, that to have influenced us we pray you to of self preservation. No right is more cury says—what we have frequently that "two or three genteel persons of But, not dwelling on the receive the sincere tribute of our thanks precious to a freeman than that of sufas soldiers, for the confidence you have frage but had your election taken place reposed in us, for the paternal on the 8th of January, would your decare with which you have watched claimers have advised you to abandon over our comforts, and above all, for the detence of your country in order to Crawford, in 1822-3 and 4." The Cuffy Well, Sambo, how you come on In presenting this view, the object will that justice you have done to our zeal exercise this inestimable privilege of Mercury further informs us, that such at de ball, last night? Sambo. Or, be, not to hold out general and vague enin assigning us on every occasion a post the polls? Is it to be supposed that your is the degree of hostility against him in berry bad; I asked Miss Dinah to president may be re-elected by a very of danger and of honor; as citizens, for general, if he regarded the important Georgia, that the consistent politicians Dance; and Miss Dinah she so herry large majority; but to state the grounds the wisdom of the measures you have trust committed to his charge, would devised to protect our country; for the have permitted you to preserve the conskill and bravery with which they were stitution by an act which would have executed and for that indispensable en- involved constitution, country and honexecuted and for that indispensable energy to which we owe our safety. Leaving to others the task of declaiming aing to other task of declaiming aing to other task of declaiming aing to other task of declaiming aing task of the task of the task of declaiming aing task of the task of ta ergy to which we owe our safety. Leav- or, in one undistinguished ruin? port of them—we have understanding consist with the order, subordination, death?" The poor girl smiled, and no same time that it is pleasant to drink first place, the entire votes of the follows doubt felt queer, but did not answer. The cost of the liquor, calculating the ing States, viz : all the States of New England to know when they are wan and discipline of a camp? Let the senenough to know when they are wan and discipline of a camp? Let the sentonly violated and no false reasoning tinel be removed by subpoena from his said she, "If I must tell, it is the litary to the man post, let writs of habeas corpus carry the shall make us ungrateful to the man post, let writs of habeas corpus carry the shoe-maker that wears a striped whose wisdom and valor have secured away the officers from the lines, and is also in the lines, and is also in the lines, and is also in the lines. The priest insisted—"Well then" sugar and brandy, is said to lair short and, New J is all then and is also in the lines and brandy, is said to lair short and, New J is all then and post, let write of the retail price of ale.

Colonel Tim. Pickering, of good old in Congress, or their Legislatures at home, in Congress, or their Legislatu them to us and our posterity! We do the enemy may conquer your country not deal in professions, but we pray by only employing lawyers to defend professions, but we pray by only employing lawyers to defend professions, but we pray by only employing lawyers to defend professions.

The federal memory, has come out, over his or appeal to any other just mode of ascere taining the sentiments of heir People, the taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of heir People, the own signature, in favor of the Hero for taining the sentiments of the heir People and the sentiments of the heir People and the heir People and the heir People and the heir People and you, general, to be assured, that in the your constitution,

PROSPECTS.

PROSPECTS.

Private property is held assured by the Private property is held assured by the Presidency. The federalists of his result equally justifies this opinion.

To the votes of these States is next to defend the property is held assured. The federalists of his result equally justifies this opinion.

To the votes of these States is next to defend the property is held assured. The federalists of his result equally justifies this opinion. officers and men of this battalion you Private property is beld sacred in We have before us a letter from stamp go with him every where, and added, a majority of those of Maryland, have soldiers who have been and are all are all and are all and are all a have soldiers who have been and are all good governments and particularly New York, from a first rate source, Jackson is the exclusive republican can- Here, again, we think, there is little dan-

the endearing title of your brothers in sometimes be silent when necessity Istrewed then with bodies of our ene- friend of his country will be, have these rertising, the number of times they wish consciousness that allows us to accept and unnecessarily?—If necessity dictatheir advertisements published; otherwise it. That fraternity cemented in hostile ted the measures, if a resort to it was thirds, the requisite majority. they will be printed until countermanded. blood shall be the pride of our lives; important for the preservation of those and charged at the usual rates of $1 per and in after times will secure to our rights which we esteem so dear and square, for 3 weeks, and 25 cts. per square for every subsequent insertion-Adver- children the respect of posterity. in defiance of which we had so wil- Methodist Episcopal Church, now in difficulty of accurately knowing, in one for every subsequent insertion-Adver- children the respect of posterity.— in denance of which we had so wil- lingly taken up arms, surely it would session in Pittsburg, there are 197 and distant part, afford facility to this mode. ed in the same raitio. Persons not keep press the emotions which agitate us not have been unbecoming in the com. members, including six Bishops. In of practising imposition on the public. The at this moment of our separation - mander in chief to have shrunk from that highly respectable body of men, People of New Hampshire, for example, o pay at the time of advertising.

at this moment of our separation— mander in chief to have shrunk from the last number of the Crawford Mes- doubt that Ohio and Louisiana will vote for safety; and we trust to a grateful coun- He did not shrink from it. In declar. senger informs us, there are but seven the Opposition Candidate; while the cititry for the honors and advancement ing martial law, his object and his on- in favor of General Jackson, and the zens of those States are surprised, at the which your services have merited.

Camp Jackson, March 16. J. B. Plauche, Major. Ste. Geme, Captain. M. White, Captain. A. Guibert, Captain. Huary, Captain. P. Roche, Captain. John St. Jean, Lieutenant. Coeur de Roy, De St. Romes, Lieutenant. N. Thompson, Lieutenant. C. Fremont, Lieutenant. Duhulduod, Lieutenant. L. Pilie, Lieutenant. Benetaud. Bertel, Lieutenant. Huet, Lieutenant. Le Mounier, Sur. Major. THE GENERAL'S ANSWER.

pose, sacrifice my own conscience, or the interference of a foreign agent lish turi. Bareford, when four years of the Election. what I conceive to be the interests of his ranks to be thinned by desertion, old, won the St. Leger stakes at the my country.

to receive, with just satisfaction, the ful force of the enemy remained on unsuccessful on the turf. Sarah, when which should induce themto mislead or des Head Quarters, 7th Military District.' address you have presented. The first your coast and within a few hours sail three years old, won the New-market ceive, either themselves or others: and as Adjutant den . 'S Office, Wish efmy heart the safetyof our country of your city.

March 13 1815' has been accomplished, and it affords. March 13, 1815.' has been accomplished, and it affords I thought and acted differently. It each. The Earl of Darlington gave est amount of information on the subject is a General Orders. - The commanding me the greatest happiness to know that was not until I discovered that the civil 13,000 for this animal. The income concentrated; it has been attempted to congeneral, with the most lively emotions the means taken to secure this object power stood no longer in used of the derived from these horses is intended sider and compare the various parts of this of joy and of gratitude to heaven, an- have the approbation of those who military for its support, that I restored for the benefit of the school establish of the whole correctly, and to lay the renounces to the troops under his com- have and the best opportunities of judg- to it its usual functions; and the restor- ed last year by Sir. Isaac, at Nantuc- sult honestly before the public. That remand that a treaty of peace between ing of their propriety, and who from ation was not delayed a moment after ket This institution now affords ev- sult we have the pleasure to say, is in a the United States and Great Britain, their various relations, might be sup that period had arrived.

The United States and Great Britain, their various relations, might be sup that period had arrived.

The United States and Great Britain, their various relations, might be sup that period had arrived.

The United States and Great Britain, their various relations, might be sup that period had arrived.

The United States and Great Britain, their various relations, might be sup that period had arrived. was ratified and exchanged at Wash- posed the most ready to censure any Under these circumstances, fellow its liberal benefactor; and of securing the first bursting out of Opposition, which ington on the 17th of February last. | which had been improperly resorted to. | soldiers, your resolution to lt others in the grateful affections of ages to was contemporary with the election of In consequence whereof, he loses The distinction you draw, gentlemen, disclaim about privileges and onstitunot an instant in revoking and annul- between those who only declaim about tional rights will never draw upon you of his name. ling the general order issued on the civil rights and those who delight to the charge of being indifferent to those Suicide.—Mr. Christopher Tilling- that such re-election may be now anticipated with a reasonable degree of certainty. 15th of December last, proclaiming maintain them shews how just and inestimable blessings—your stach- hast, of Wilmington, N. C. put an end Of the more general grounds which conmartial law, which is hereby revoked, annulled and countermanded; and he orders all hostilities immediately to knowledge all theory is useless or mis-

which we enjoy under our own hap never trust or surrender them to the un- might be left of his fate. Melancholy Candidate; whether there be not the pre-And in order that the general joy py constitution are threatened by in- derhand machinations of men who arising from embarrassments is suppo- valence of a more sober temper, in judging attending this event mar extend to all vasion, privileges the most dear and stand aloof in the hour of peril, and who sed to have led to the act. He has left between him and his competitor; and in a stand aloof in the hour of peril, and who sed to have led to the act. He has left between him and his competitor; and in the hour of peril, and who sed to have led to the act. manner of persons, the commanding which, in ordinary times, ought to be when the danger is gone, claim to be a wife and child. for all military offences heretofore com- required to be infringed for their secu- An honorable peace has dissolved.

An editor in one of the country towns far, conducted them wisely and safely and military offences heretofore com- required to be infringed for their secu- An honorable peace has dissolved. mitted in this district and orders that rity. At such a crisis, we have only to our military connection; and, in a few in the Western States, makes a most growing doubts, and hesi ation, now appearance in acufactory and orders that rity. At such a crisis, we have only to our military connection; and, in a few in the Western States, makes a most growing doubts, and hesi ation, now appearance in acufactory and orders that rity. At such a crisis, we have only to our military connection; and, in a few in the Western States, makes a most growing doubts, and hesi ation, now appearance in acufactory and orders that rity. At such a crisis, we have only to our military connection; and, in a few in the Western States, makes a most growing doubts, and hesi ation. all persons in confinement under such determine whether we will suspend, days, I shall quit a country endeared strange apology for the non-appearance committing the fortunes of this young Refor a time the exercise of the latter, to me by the most pleasing recollec-ROBERT BUTLER, that we may secure the permanent en- tions. Among the most prominent of Adjutant General. joyment of the former. Is it wise, in these gentlemen, are those I shall ever such a moment, to sacrifice the spirit entertain of the distinguished bravery, From the city battalion of Uniform com- of the laws to the letter, and by ad- the exact discipline, the ardent zeal, hering too strictly to the letter lose the and the important services of your suspended all rights and procleges in- sign of the times." matter of surprise, that they who boast manifested that lively sens slity of vage, who declined to accept. was invaded thought resistance a virtue to send in his adhesion to Gen Jackson. subjects to which they relate. and the sile t approbation of all-but From the Boston Evening Bulletin. Fellow Soldiers: - Popular lavor has gainst it, It was not until a victory, will remain at the stables in Brington, properly counteracted.

mote the success of the Administration candidate."

Terms of the TIMES & ADVERTISER always ready to affront every danger in our own, yet, shall the power invalunder your command; fellow citizens, ding it prevent a general from marching his army over a cornfield or burning his army ove that victory is already won. In the General Conference of the The great extent of the country, and the ly object, was to embody the shole re- remaining one hundred and ninety, are confidence is longing to real conviction, that sources of the country for its defence. in favor of Mr. Adams. This, as the not only New Hampshire, but others, also, That law, while it existed, necessarily Messenger remarks, "is no ordinary of the New England States, perhaps near-

TION.

"murder will out." The plain reason by a single military achievement. There was, my readers that my dear wife said | would appear, we think, to be indications I must stay at home and take care of flection, not in partisans and zealots, but in the children, while she went to Camp. theminds of candid and reasoning men, who | Meeting, and as I am a peace making have hitherto countenanced the cause of sort of a man, I did as I was bid, which sel of their better judgement; to put it to stated—that "Mr. Calhoun can rever colour" could be accommodated with cations, it is the immediate purpose of this be forgiven by the leading politicians boarding and lodging. We suppose Address to refer to particulars, and to exin this [that] State, for the decided and somebody as genteel as Sambo describility with some details, that view of the effectual opposition he gave to Mr. bed to Cuffy, would suit the advertiser. expressed.

an English paper has discovered a mode made, on the more doubtful, though less

To the People of the U. States. One part of the policy of those who strive, by whatever means, to preventable The Episcopal Convention of Mary- re-election of the present Chief Magistrate No Subscriber can withdraw without arms—it was given to us on this field, speaks. The only question with the land have adjourned, without being a of the Union, is, to subdue the hopes and ble to choose a bishop for the state, supporters, by such representations of the ADVERTISERS are requested to state, at the time of ad- mies; and we feel a noble pride in the laws been made to be silent wantonly the Rev. mr. Johns, the most popular state of public feeling as show his re-eleccandidate, wanting 3 or 4 votes of two tion highly improbable, or impossible. They seek to ensure victory, by raising a shout > ly all of them, give satisfactory proof of having joined the same cause. Whatever of consistent with its provisions. It is FIRST FRUITS OF PERSECU coloring, of exaggeration, or, we regret to add, of unqualified misrepresentation, this themselves the champions of those The President of the United States erto, not to have been found wanting. Not rights and privileges, should not when has appointed Wm. Clark, of the state only are slight and doubtful manifestations they were first put in dan er by the of Pennsylvania, Treasurer of the U- of opinion, when favorable, swoln into improclamation of martial law, have nited States, in the room of Judge Sa- portance, and magnified beyond all just dethe most clear and decisive results of full which they have since made so osten- N. B. The gentleman thus appoint- popular elections, if unfavorable, are made tatious a display. So far however, was ed Treasurer of the United States, is to go for nothingbut formal statements are, also, put forth, sometimes under the authis from being the case, that this mea- the same Wm. Clarke, whom the Jack- thority of names, such as are willing to be sure not only met then, the open sup- son majority in the Legislature of Penn- appended to them, which are known not port of those who when their country sylvania, proscribed, bec. use he refused only to be partial, but to be absolutely un-

> Notwithstanding the general intelligence even received the particular recommen- The Race Horses,-We learn that of the community, there maybe danger that dation and encouragement of many two of the celebrated horses sent to this long continued, will produce more or less who now inveigh the most bitterly a- country by Admiral Sir Isaac Coffin, of the effect intended, unless seasonably &c

It has been deemed expedient, therefore, always been with me a secondary ob- secured by that very measures had pour this city, during the present sea- on the eve of the adjournment of Congress, ject.—My first wish, in political life has lessened the dangerwhich occeasioned a son only—after which they will be that the friends of the Administration, been to be useful to my country. Yet resort to it, that the present feeling guar | sent to the south. They are said to be throughout the whole Union, should be in-I am not insensible to the good opinion dians of our rights discovered that the of the finest breed in England, of per- channel, in which they have confidence, of my fellow citizens; I would do much commanding general ought to have suf- feet form and entirely sound; and have what is the belief, entertained here of the to obtain it; but I cannot for this pu. - fered his posts to be abandoned through acquired high reputation on the Brit- present state, and the present tendency of

It is the purpose of this paper to state and his whole army to be broken to Doncaster races, against 84 horses at what that belief is; with some reference to From NILES'S REGISTER, April 29, These principles have prepared me pieces by mutiny; while yet a power 25 guineas each—and has never been ceeds from those who have no mothes sent Chief Magistrate, as the present; and > creasing reluctance to transfer the highest public concerns from hands which have, so lication. These are his own words: | guide it, no otherwise brought into the "I feel ashamed to own the fact, but fice, than as having distinguished himself their own consciences, and to inquire what A touch above the Vulgar.—A late there is, in his calents, in his civil experi-Buffalo Emporium had an advertise- so highly fitting him for the situation for GEORGIA - The Savannah Mer- ment, which concluded with a notice which he is proposed, as to justify the ex-

But, not dwelling on these general indi-

will, 'by their opposition to him, pro- genteel, she fainted away in a minute, on which we believe there will be a major-An engineer in Bucks county, says be revelected. This is the first object.