riously parlicipand in the perils and General Jackson's passports!! erful nation-who with the SPIRIT of Mr. Dinsmore's, whenever the Con- Springs, Va. by a numerous. company. English brig Robert, Captain Robin- [WHOLESALE PRICES] OF FREEMEN, met the foe at the stitution, laws or the orders of gov- The Honorable James Barbour was an son, lying on her beam ends, and CANDLES m'ld13 [Soap Brown 8 threshold, and WITH VALOR E- ernment, have thwarted the arbitrary invited guest. QUAL TO THEIR PATRIOTISM, will of this man. drove him from their shores and saved Shall weapons of war be his passport clined for the reasons set forth in the board, a young man named Alexander CHOCOLATE a great and glorious city from his incon- to our suffrage and to the Chair of State! following letter to the Committee: Jones aged 17 years, of the town of diary grasp."

preciate, warmed his bosom, and ad- and deliberate falsehood." dressing his troops he tells them:

DEFENDED. WE WILL ENJOY OUR

DIICH. Eagles of his country, resolved to res- evidence to sustain their assertion. cue her from impending danger, or no- Mr. Dinsmoor was in Frederick on ests will be neglected a friend to her foes."

ready cover the lakes; but the brave are by major McIlhenny was correct. In my present and former friends know, united; and if he find us contending a- reply he made a similar statement to that there was nothing in my situation mong ourselves, IT WILL BE FOR that which will be found below. From which could offer a temptation to me FAME, its noblest reward."

daughters Take a retrospect of the the time general Jackson passed as sta- in the integrity and patriotism of its decided on the course most proper to be July 26, conduct of the British Army at Hamp- ted in the anecdote, when he should head. I declare to you on that veraciton, and other places where it has en- have named mr. Dinsmoor's agent. And ty which I hope is unimpeached, that I tered our country; and every bosom, on this trifling and unimportant error, have heard no sentiment escape that diswhich glows with patriotism and virtue the editors of the Telegraph undertake tinguisted citizen in the most secret rewill be inspired with indignation, and to pronounce the whole story a wilful tirement, or in the most free and confi- bably nearly all the valuable effects pant for the arrival of the hour when and deliberate falsehood. we shall meet and revenge those outra- It is evident that general Eaton com | confidence—his acts are before his con- master. Mr. Ross having taken a difhumanity."

Baltimore "contending among them- themselves by stating the fact. selves, for the prize of valor-and same, We inclosed to mr. Dinsmoor, on Gen. Jackson to mr. Monroe as secre- three boxes of jewelry, a trunk of silver From Philadelphia, to Centre-Ville, taught him how we could do it—the In a short time we received from him for that station himself. It so, as the ed in the mechanic's bank of this city, with stout hearts and noble resolution a letter from Major Alexander McIlhen- son, it is not accurate. I never saw ward with so much pride and expecta- sure of having done their duty. my, of this county, in which was de- General Jackson in the Choctaw na- tion, would be abandoned. The true tailed the anecdote which will be found tion but once, about the 29th or 30th of friends of internal improvements should henny was immediately assailed and his officers supped with me at the agen- son, as his elevation would be the ine- recorded of the Earl of Berkley, that he was denounced as a bankrupt. But cy house. With the exception above, I vitable death blow of all their hopes. lest the people might not be willing to believe the statement of major McIlhenbrication was got up for the U. S. Tel- and directed him, though not employed now no longer to admit of doubt. The manded his money, exclaiming at the phia, and arriving there at SIX o'clock, of truth.

From the Frederick Examiner. THER."

From the Telegraph. cludes as follows:

anecdote of Gen. Jackson who he said between the General and myself, I am is directed to one topic; it engrosses all IN PASSING DOWN WITH A under the impression that the result our present thoughts, and chills us with DROVE OF NEGROES, balted at would have been different. the Agency to refresh &c. Being about to proceed Mr. Dinsmore observed that it was necessary for persons passing A new novel, in two volumes, by the was attacked by pirates, off the Colora ers of the Legislature. He also voted through the nation, to show their pass- author of Francis Berrian and Recol- do, about the beginning of May, and ev- in favor of allowing LANDHOLDERS

Hear his toast-" The 12th and 13th "Mr. McIlhenny is just such a witness note of the 23d inst., in which I am in- crewand passengers, with the exception FEATHERS of September, 1814 The days on as the necessities of the coalition re- vited, in such obliging terms, to partake, of this young man, perished. He was FISH which freemen defeated the conquerors quire. Fraud, forgery and falsehood are with a portion of fellow citizens of this in the cabin at the time the vessel capof Europe, and under the proud waving the instruments used and rewarded by county, of a dinner on the approaching sized, in company with three other pas- Mackeral of the "star spangled banner," saved those now in office. Mr. Dinsmore is 4th of July. The pleasure I should feel sengers, and heard the captain give Baltimore from incendiary pollution." | now in this city, and has seen mr. | in meeting them, on such an occasion, some orders in a hurried manner to the General Jackson did not cry out, like McIlhenny's statement, and we are au- would be more than a sufficient induce- crew, who were all on deck: immedi- Beef per bbt. 8a9 a sick girl, "how can it be expected, thorised to say that no such incident ment to avail myself of the invitation; ately after which the brig capsized. She Hams that we should resist the mass of force, as that stated ever occured between but several circumstances will concur at was from St. Thomas, bound to montego Cheese which that gigantic power has collected him and Gen. Jackson, nor did he ev- that time, in putting it out of my pow | Bay, with a cargo of produce and lum- | SugarsLoaf 15 19 to crush us at a blow?" No, a love of er relate the anecdote as stated by mr. | er. I need not say that I regret it the | ber. Captain Hatch cut a hole through | country, which John Q Adams is a McIlhenny. We pronounce mr. McIl- more, as I should find amongother friends her quarter with the hope of extricating Salt per bu atranger to, and knows not how to ap- henny's statement to be an unqualified our distinguished county-man now a- the other three passengers who were in Shot (all sizes

" FREMEMBER OUR WATCH egraph had become for their perver. To yourselves, gentlemen, I offer my others were buried in the cargo. The WORD IS VICTORY or DEATH.OUR sions &fabrications, we still could hardly cordial and best respects, JNTRY MUST AND SHALL BE believe them so destitute of honorable LIBERTY, OR PERISH IN THE LAST principle as to be guilty of so gross a men enjoys freedom, where its blessings that too almost in the very presence of he speaks of James Barbour, late Secre- the mate of the Horace. Mr Foss, di- ust, at 3 o clock p. m. are alike extended to the poor and the the gentleman who could expose them. tary of War, and recently appointed ved after and brought up; they were July 26-2w rich, calls on you to protect her from They are guilty of fraud for so word- minister to England. This gentleman dried anfi will be carefully forwarded the grasping usurpation of Britain-She ing their remarks as to make the im- mr. madison calls his friend, and " our to the persons to whom they are adwill not call in vain. I know that eve- pressions that they were authorized by distinguished county-man." One of the dressed. ry man, whose bosom beats high at the |mr. Dinsmore, and of deliberate false- | regular toasts wasproud title of FREEMAN, will prompt- hood, in pronouncing the statement Our Distinguished Guest .- Destined ly obey her voice and rally round the of Major Mellheuny untrue, without to fill an important public mission ably die in her desence. He who re- Sunday and Monday last and conversed | When this toast was drunk, mr. Barfuses to defend his rights, when called freely on the subject with a number of bour rose and addressed the company on by his government, deserves to be gentlemen who were anxious to learn in a most eloquent and spirited speech, punished as an enemy to his country- the real facts, of the case. It appears of which we are only able to day to give that general Eaton called on him to the following brief extract. It "Your enemy is near; his sails al- know whether the anecdote as related "I may say, said mr. Barbour, that THE PRIZE OF VALOR-AND this statement it will be seen that the to become a patriot of circumstancesonly error committed by major McII. nothing to induce me to unite with and Then look to your liberty, your pro- henny in naming mr. Dinsmoor, as the cordially to support an administration, perty, the chastity of our wives and person present at the agency house at unless I had the most entire confidence ness and sagacity, at once deliberated, &

ges against the laws of civilization and municated his interview with mr. Dins stituents for their judgement. For my moor to the editors of the Telegraph. self, I solmnly aver, I know not the man, Mr. Adams said, we were " divided If he made to them a partial statement on whose fidelity to the republic I would the city, at a tavern, caught the three among ourselves, more in passion than and authorized the publication quoted sooner place my hopes—the hopes of my in a room napping, but one of themsucinterest, with half the nation sold by above bedeserves to be held in contempt children, or my country. their prejudice and their ignorance to by every honorable man; by every man our enemy," Were we, fellow citizens, who would not sanction equivocation, Col. Drayton, a member of congress aged 26; Ferdinand michand, aged 25; THROUGH in 1 DAY "divided among ourselves"-were we falsehood and fraud. At present the from South Carolina, in his speech on and Jean David Guerraz, aged 22. The sold to our enemy, when the attack dishonor rests with the editors of the the bill making appropriations for In- second one escaped, but will probably was made on Baltimore? Or, rather, Telegraph. If Gen. Eaton imposed on ternal Improvements, denied the right be apprehended. His stature is about did not the enemy find the citizens of them it is in their power to exonerate of congress to make them. This is the five feet six inches high. The properits noblest reward?" Mr. Adams could monday morning our paper containing tary of war, in 1817. Now as he re- plate, (among which are sixty table not tell " how it could be expected that the letter of major McIlhenny, and the commended him for that office to mr. spoons, and several packages which Via Delaware City St. George's, Middle, we should resist themass of force, which Telegraph containing the contradiction Monroe, the presumption is certainly a have not been opened,) and $131 in that gigantic power had collected to with a request that he would examine fair one, that should Gen. Jackson be notes, principally of the Georgetown crush us at a blow." General Jackson both, and give us a correct statement, elected President, he will select him Bank-all of which have been deposit. This line is now running, and will contincitizens of Balti more taught him how it the following note, to which we ask the preliminary steps for internal improve- and a detailed list of the articles may be might be done, by meeting the enemy reader's attention. ____ ments are all taken under the immedi- seen at the office of Colonel Sheppard, B A L I I M O B.

has just been handed me. With re- conclude, that should Col. Drayton be Riggs, for their activity in this as well "ANOTHER, AND YET ANO-spect to the anecdote related by mr.mc placed at the head of the War, depart as in many other instances; and in Ilhenney, so fas as I was reported to ment, all those projects to the comple- whatever light the public, may estimate On the 18th of June we published have had an interview with Gen- Jack- tion of which the nation has looked for- their services, they will enjoy the pleabelow. The character of Major. McIl- march, 1813, when he and a number of then for sake the cause of Gen. Jackof Uniontown, Maryland, has written McIlhenny's publication, with a change pected. a letter to agentleman in Fredericktown of name only. I undoubtedly repeated which may readily account for the mis- City, dated July 3d, 1828. "Mr. Dinsmore related the following take. Had the interview taken place The conversation of the whole City of a purse, shot him on the spot.

Sir, your obedient servant, ports -Gen. Jackson replied, Gen. lections of ten years in the valley of the ery soul on board, amounting to 83 in the right to vote in every county in Jackson required no passport to travel mississippi, will be issued in Philadel- all, put to death !! They consisted en which they owned Land. Yet Gener through the Indian nation. Mr. Dins- phia, in the course of this week. Its tirely of old Spaniards, who had with eral Jackson is cried up as a first-wamore said that he did not know Gen. title is The Life and Adventures of Ar- them their whole wealth, which is es- ter Democrat !- Kentucky Reporter. Jackson from any other man, and that thur Clenning, and it is said to be su- timated in specie, plate, cochineal, inin demanding his passport he was on perior to Francis Berrian .- The hero digo, &c. at a million of dollars. After ly doing his duty in conformity with is an American, who passed a consider- completing the robbery, they scuttled different, turned physician. He was instructions from the War Department. able time on a desert island, under cir- and sunk the packet. By this time the General having sent cumstances which possess much interforward his negroes, had mounted his est, and give occasion for rich delineahorse, and laying his hand upon his pis- tions of scenery and peculiar develop- the 20th ultimo, states that on the 29th buried with the patient, and one gets North East Corner of second and Raga icls significantly replied, These ura ments of the human heart.

The Anniversary of American Inde-| from Havre off the west end of St. Do-| -I have often thought of this anecdote pendance was celebrated at the Orange mingo fell in with the wreck of the Baltimore Price Current

Mr. Madison was also invited, but de- the wreck the only living person on Sperm broad -- we have no fear that our interdential intercourse, to diminish that which they had purloined from their gentleman who was recommended by ty found in their possession, consists of THE DESPATCH LINE FREDERICK, July 14, 1828: ate superintendance and direction of the the committing magistrate. Great cre-Sir- Your communication of this day Secretary of War, we have a right to dit is certainly due to messrs. Ross and horror. Perhaps in atrocity the act is without a parallel .- The French Packet, trading from Vera Cruz to Bordeaux, may, Captain Hatch, of the brigHorace more easily off.

nearly underwater. Captain H. took from Dipped A McILHENNY. "I have received, gentlemen, your Princess Ann, in Marlyand, All the bout to leave us on an important foreign the cabin : the body of only one of them Notorious as the editors of the Tel- service. | was found. It was supposed that the Fallow American 9; | sea broke over the wreck with such vi-JAMES MADISON. olence, that it was found impossible to > Extensive Robbery and prompt apprehension of the Robbers.

on Saturday afternoon about three o'. | charges paid. clock, messrs. Ross and Riggs, two of our most efficient police officers, received advice that on the night previous, at eleven o'clock, the locked room of the dwelling of his Excellency the Chevaof his servants, and plate and jewelry of great value, and money to the amount Rent it for the ensuing year, above named, with their usual prompt- and Lots. Apply to pursued; and at balf past six o'clock (in three and an half hours from the time they received the information.) had two of the culprits in custody, and pro-York road, and about four miles from ceeded in making his escape. Their July 26. names are Francois Auguste Michand,

Baltimore Chronicle.

Remarkable presence of mind.—It is he was suddenly awakened at night in his carriage, by highwayman, who, ramegraph, for the purpose of destroying in the public service to receive pass- strongest assurances of the success of the same time, that he had heard that his con in a book kept for that purpose. He majority, have, at different times, and would be robbed by a single highway reported an interview between General from different sections of that state, been man, but that he should now be taught and Saturday Mornings at Four o'clock ANOTHER, AND YET ANO. Jackson and himself, corresponding in received from sources from which wil- the contrary. His lordship putting his RETURNING, leaves Mr. Thomas Pea-THER -A Mr. Alexander McIlhenny features to that contained in major ful misrepresentation could not be sus- hand into his pocket, replied, ' neither cock's at Easton on Monday, Wednesday, would I now be robbed if it was not for | and Friday, at One o'clock, P. M., and takes that fellow who is looking over your for Philadelphia. which as published by Mr. Clay's " the report of the young man, and very Extract of a letter from a gentleman shoulder.' The highwayman turned There is also in connection with this "by authority" press of that place con- probably in the presence of major M. at Havana, to his correspondent in this round his head, when the Earl, who had Line a Stage to convey Rassengers from drawn a pistol from his pocket instead the Baltimore Steam Boat Patuxent, at

Gen. Jackson voted in the Conven- to the Steam Boat. tion of Tennessee for that clause of the castle or Wilmington, will meet a Stage Constitution which excludes all but from Dover at St. George's. LANDHOLDERS from being memb- | FARE, From Philadelphia to Delaware

A printer whose talents were but inlasked the reason of it; 'In printing,' Lanswered he, 'all the faults are expos- Manufacturer of American White Viale Wreck.—A New Orleans paper offed to the eye, but in physic they are

11 GRAIN Wheat FLOUR 295 Superfine bbl 5 City Mills Herrings bl 2 37 3 Susquehanna 4 13 Cloverseed 25 & Barley 7a93 SPIRITS Brandy 4thp gal 48 Rum 3d proof 42 Gin 1st p Brown 9 to 10 } Apple Brandy 33 Gin Holland 105 -- American 30 Rum Jamaica 100 per 1001b 9 00 --- New E 38 · P'ch B'ndy 75a100

> Schools. Primary

Politicians must pardon us for mak- effect any thing forward. A hundle of The Commissioners of Primary Schools fraud and so deliberate a falsehood as ing particular reference to the last sen- letters were seen floating out of the sky- for Queen Ann's County, will meet in The only country on earth, where are contained in the above article and tence of mr. Madison's letter, in which light, about ten feet under water, which Centreville on Saturday the 2d of Aug-

Six Cents Reward.

Ranaway from the Subscriber, in the month of May, 1828, an apprentice Boy, by the name of Elisha Tarbutten. whosoever brings back the said Boy. We learn from the Chronicle, that shall receive the above remard—and no

WILLIAM HARGROVE July 26.

For Sale, or

The Farm on which the Subscriber lier Huygens, the minister near the U. now resides, containing about On Hunnited States from the Netherlands, at dred acres; near Halls Roads. The Washington, had been opened by three terms of sale will be low. Should it of $3000 taken therefrom The officers | IIII retaining the House, Garden NATHAN BETTON, Jr. 3t on the Premises.

Private Tuition,

Three or four children, of either sex, can be accommodated with hoard in-the Subscribers family, where they will be instructed by a competent Teacher, in Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmethe use of the Globes-Terms of board and tuition $25 per quarter, exclusive of bedding. Melfi la

Maryland,

town Warwick, Head of Sas afrass, and Head of Chester, to Centreville.

ue throughout the Season to leave Philadelphia by the Steam Boat

CAPTIAN W. WHILLDIN, trom Pine Street Wharf, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday Mornings, at SIX o'clock, for Delaware City; there to take the CANAL PACKET

LADY CLINTON. FOR ST. GEORGES, AND FROM THENCEIN

To Middletown, Warwick, Head of Sassafrass, Head of Chester, and Centreville; arriving at Centreville the same Evening at Eight o'clock. Returning, leaves Centreville on Tuesreject his testimony on account of his ny substantially correct. I had left a Kentucky. The result of the ap- ming a pistol through the window, and Four o'clock, arriving at Delaware City in poverty the following vile infamous fa- young man in charge of the agencyhouse, proaching election in Kentucky, seems presenting it close to his breast and de- time to take the Steam Boat to Philadel-

Connected with the Despatch Line is a Major McIlhenny's reputation as a man ports from travellers, and to record them Administration party, by a respectable Lordship had boasted that he never time of Stages from Centreville to Easton, Heaving Centreville on Tuesday, Thursday

the Despatch Line the morning following

Georgetown, to intersect the Despatch Line at Massey's Cross Roads, and to con vey Passengers from Massey's CrossRoads

Passengers coming in this Line for New-

St. George's, 1,50 Middletown, 2.00 Warwick Do. Head of Sassafrass, 2:50 Head of Chester 3 00 Do. Centreville MULFORD. & Co.

T. W. DYOTT, WHOLESALE DRUGGIST AND Bottles, Demijohne, &c. &c.

July 12-3m

streets, PHILADELPHIA.