FOUNTAIN INN,
LIGHT-STREET, BALTIMORE
M. BARR,
HAVING leased the above extensive, well known, and long established HOTEL, informs his friends, the friends of the House, and the Public generally, that he has had the house thoroughly repaired and fitted up in a very superior manner with entire new furniture, and is now prepared with every requisite throughout every department of his establishment to make his customers comfortable.
There are several pleasant parlors fitted up with chambers attached, having a private entrance for accommodation of families.
The location of this Hotel is most advantageous for Gentlemen visiting the city on business, being near both the Wharves and Market Street; however it is known to almost every Gentleman who comes to Baltimore by the Bay, and has been formerly a favorite stopping place with them.
The proprietor trusts it will become a favorite house again with gentlemen from the bay, when it is known that the house is in as fine order as it ever has been; and he feels a confidence (will gentlemen call and see the alterations and improvements made) that a portion of patronage will be awarded him, pledges himself that as far as attention and exertion can go toward accommodation, nothing will be wanting to produce comfort.
Terms of board one dollar per day.
