

SPAIN.—Of all the countries on the face of the earth, Spain since the restoration of her present monarch, may boast of having obtained the greatest degree of justice from the opinions of men.—The contempt she has received has been nearly equal to the degraded character of her policy, and the detestation in which she has been held has not fallen very far short of what merits for the character and conduct of her rulers.

Fortunately for humanity, Ferdinand & his blood thirsty ministers have not lately found objects for the human cruelties they practised so long as a man of liberal sentiments was exposed to their fangs. Let it never be imagined, however, that the monarch is either satiated, or penitent for the Spanish blood he has shed. He waits only for new victims; but these he would immolate are too well warned by past examples to trust themselves in his power. There is abundant opportunity for him, however, to exhibit his native antipathy to every thing good, and his natural meanness & pride. His own policy every day accuses him of repeated insincerity and falsehood: for he is every day contradicting the declarations he made to the world, that the constitution was demanded only by a faction, which could be put down with a little assistance. Some of his fortresses are still occupied by French troops without which his authority would not be safe. Up to this time he has not been able to stand alone; and he is continually exposed to losses and danger from the privateers which hover on his coasts.—The little he can possibly strip from his treasury, is expended on fruitless attempts against his lost colonies—not a rial is devoted to the encouragement of useful arts or enterprises for the good of that country on which he so profusely poured out destruction and ruin. In the height of his vanity however, he is puerile enough to flatter himself with the idea of re-conquering whole climates in America, when he has not the power to sit on the throne of Spain without assistance. It is but a little time since the Court Calendar, containing the names of the nobility, &c. was published and was found to retain all the titles formerly borne in the American Spanish Colonies, which occupied pages, though the names, (as if for the present only) were left blank.

In this posture of utter imbecility, and in this character of mingled meanness and pride, Ferdinand has had to endure expressions of contempt and insult without number, and will have to bear them, without revenge or improvement, for aught that is now to be seen, till he dies. So wicked was the constitutional system he pursued, under the patronage of France, that England, irritated at it, hastened to acknowledge the independence of the South American states by way of reprisal; and so subject was Ferdinand's nature, that the English ministers who took that step, held him up to the scorn of the world in the public declaration of his motives.

The character of Ferdinand should never be forgotten, so long as he is alive to do harm; and however much we may admire the character of some of his subjects, we never should indulge one favorable thought of him, who is one of the greatest enemies of mankind. We are happy to find, that among all the dissensions that have occurred in Colombia, there is not a sentiment expressed by any party in favor of such Spanish domination; and that Mexico is becoming quiet, established and strong; after the violent convulsion she has lately experienced, and seems ready to present a still more formidable front to any hostile attempt that may be meditated against her.

HORRIBLE!

About the first of May, a Brazilian brig called the Defender of Peter, was run a shore on the Island of Cadiz. A part of the crew remained in Cadiz for some days but happened to drop certain expressions which awakened suspicion, when they were immediately arrested and put into confinement.—They had no books or papers, and the accounts they gave were not satisfactory. About the end of June, they were brought to confess that they were pirates. The brig sailed from Rio Janeiro for St. Thomas and lay off the coast of Africa some days, the Captain having been sent sick on shore. While lying there the crew concluded to take possession of the vessel, though a number of them who could not consent to it, left the vessel in the boat and were drowned before they reached the shore, as it was a boisterous time.—Still they could not agree among themselves who would take the command and four were murdered. They then set sail and fell in with a Boston ship, returning from China, and richly laden. They murdered every soul on board, took possession of the most valuable articles, set fire to, and left her. The name of the ship they never learned or did not recollect. The Topaz, of Boston is missing. The second prize was an Englishship called the Morning Star. The shocking barbarities committed on board this ship have already transpired through the English papers. They also confessed that they had robbed eight more vessels, mostly English and murdered all on board. The brig then discharged her cargo, mostly composed of specie and silks at Corona. The specie alone is said to have amounted to $140,000. They confessed that they run the brig on shore at Cadiz for purpose, it being the only way they could dispose of her without exciting suspicion. When the Fabius left Cadiz they were in chains, waiting we hope for justice.

Chinese Method of Dunning.—When a debtor refuses payment in China, the creditor, as a last resource, threatens to carry off the door of his house on the first day of the year. This is accounted the greatest misfortune that could happen, as in that case there would be no obstruction to the entrance of evil genii. To avoid this consummation, a debtor not unfrequently sets fire to his house on the last night of the year.

MEN AND MEASURES.

CENTREVILLE (E.S.) MD. SATURDAY EVENING AUGUST 23

The proceedings of the Jackson meeting, held in Centreville on Saturday last, were handed in too late for publication. They will be attended to next week.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.

The accounts from Kentucky are so conflicting, that we prefer waiting for the official returns, before we venture to give, as the true vote, any of the partial accounts derivable from portions of the State. There are 83 counties in Kentucky—about 50 of which are said to be heard from. Of the returns of these 50, the friends of the Administration, claim a majority of 4000 votes. On the other hand, of the returns of these same counties, Duff Green and Mr. Calhoun claim about 3000 votes, majority. A wide difference, this.

We shall probably be able to put our readers in possession of the true vote of the State, next week. We cannot, for ourselves, form an opinion what the precise majority will be; but we are firmly of the opinion that the vote of Kentucky will go for the Administration by a handsome majority.

FROM EUROPE—IMPORTANT!

By late arrivals at New York, foreign papers have put us in possession of the important intelligence that the Russian Army had crossed the Danube. Their march was directed towards Ismael, Braila, and Galatz; Turkish fortresses which have, no doubt, fallen into their hands ere this. In the passage of the Danube, there was some fighting by which the Turk lost, it is believed, about 1200 men, and some ammunition, Stores, &c.

The demonstration on Turkey by the Russian is no doubt the commencement of a series of hostilities that will be prosecuted with activity and vigour; and the Emperor will hardly stop short of the gates of Constantinople, the possession of which, has likely been a prominent cause of his present undertaking.

Whether the strife that is raging between these belligerents will involve other Powers than themselves, it is certainly, at this time, beyond our ken to declare. But we should not be surprised, if others, growing jealous of the ambition of the Russian should interpose an arm, to avert what they may think a self impending danger.

CASUALTY.

A Negro Man in driving an ox cart up the hill at the South end of this Town, on Friday evening of the last week, fell directly before the wheel, which passed over his head, and mashed it so shockingly, that he died in a few minutes thereafter.

Boyd McNairy, Esq. president, and Wilkins Tannehill, Esq. Cashier of the Nashville (Tenn) Bank, and Col. A. Erwin, have come out, under the very nose of Gen. Jackson and charged him with having been a Negro Trader. Mr. Tannehill has in his possession some of the old Bank Books of the Generals, of some 20 or 30 years back bank proceedings, which give evidence of the offensive traffic, by the General. The Hero's authority paper, at Nashville, has attempted an explanation—and says, he was 'only security for payment of the purchase money—his object only being to aid a poor young man.'

On the other hand, certificates are produced "that the General refused to become security unless he was acknowledged a partner—thereby possessing a controlling influence in the concern.

One of the former partners has given one of the certificates.

Copy of a Letter from a Subscriber to the Editor of the Centreville Times, dated Louisville, Ky Aug. 8, 1828. DEAR SIR—We have just received intelligence from the South and North of Green River, in this state, that Metcalf is running a head. He is also a head in all the upper counties of the state, this county, (Jefferson) went for Jackson; Louisville, has always been considered the strongest Jackson point in any part of Kentucky. News from various parts of the state which had been heard of, justify the belief that Metcalf will have a majority from 3000 to 5000 Votes.—Ohio is certain for the Administration."

It appears by a letter from the secretary of state, transmitted to Congress, that the number of passengers arrived in the United States, on ship board, during the year ending 30th September, 1827, amounted to twenty-one thousand six hundred and fifty-three.

A preacher hearing the cry of an infant among his congregation, commanded that the child should be removed—observing at the same time, that a crying child in a place of worship was like the tooth ache—there was no cure but having it out.

JACKSON MEETING.

At a large and respectable meeting in the Upper District of Queen Ann's County, friendly to the election of Gen. Andrew Jackson, to the next presidency of the U. States convened agreeably to public notice at Mr. Christopher Goodhand's Tavern, in Sudlers Roads, on Tuesday the 19th inst. when Captain James Britton was called to the Chair, and Leml Roberts appointed Secretary. On motion of Mr. Benj. Sudler it was resolved that the chairman appoint a committee of eight persons to report resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. In pursuance of the above resolution the following gentlemen, George N. Newnam, Noah Merchant, James Clow, Joshua W. Massey, Slighter Sparks, Thomas Hewitt, William Start, and Samuel M. Keene, Esqrs. were appointed by the chairman. The committee after having retired, returned and reported the following resolutions which were carried and unanimously adopted.

1st. Resolved, That we have implicit confidence in the wisdom, integrity, and inflexible patriotism, and in the civil qualifications of Gen. Andrew Jackson—and that we will use all honorable means to promote his election to the next presidency of the U. States.

2d. Resolved, That we view the detestable and dishonorable means resorted to by the leaders of the present administration to secure their unrighteous success to the death like efforts of a desperate and desponding party.

3d. Resolved, That we exult in the disposition shown by the good republicans of these United States to make Andrew Jackson, the Republican Candidate, President of these United States.

4th. Resolved, That we hail with increased confidence the cheering prospects of our Republican Candidate as the next President of this republic.

5th. Resolved, That we as friends of the republican Candidate, Andrew Jackson, do feel it our duty to support our Delegation ticket as nominated by the committee appointed for that purpose.

6th. Resolved, That the following gentlemen be a committee of Vigilance for this District—Vincent Benton, Samuel M. Keene, Thomas Hewitt, Benj. Wilson, Captain Swiggett, Ezekiel Merrick, Jas. W. Price, James Keene, James Glanville, James Dudley, Christopher Ruth, Slighter Sparks, Saml. Tarebuton, Phillip Coppage, Joseph Pennington, John M. Davis, Benj. Roberts, John Price, Risdon Crosby, James Britton, Theodore Britton, William H. Falkner, Benj. Sudler, Thomas Sudler, John Baker, William Colgan, Capt. Joshua W. Massey, Benj. Palmer, George N. Newnam, James Colgan, Alexander Winslow, C. W. Walby, William Gilbert, Charles Clay, Wm. Robinson, Alexander Sorrell, John Hay, William Temple, Joshua I. Massey, James Clow, Chancy Clow, Laurence Ecorett, William Start, Edward Sudler, Edward Coppage, James Britton, Jr., Samuel Milborne, James Nevill, Saml. Jarnal, William Peters, Perry Peters, Samuel J. Sutton.

Resolved that the proceedings be signed by the chairman and secretary, and published in the Centreville Times. JAMES BRITTON, chairman. LEML ROBERTS, Sec'y.

Attempt on the King of France.—On the 18th June, a man named Pamel, made repeated attempts to be introduced into the presence of the King at St. Cloud. Being afterwards apprehended in consequence of the violence of his language, two loaded pistols, and a quantity of powder and ball, were found upon him. It seems that the man is insane.

The Delaware Journal publishes four letters, with the signatures of 13 individuals who decline the appointments by which the Jacksonians at their meeting, had honoured them.—The Delaware Jacksonians seem to be entirely at fault, as these instances of mistaking Administration men for their own partisans are getting common.

SANGSTON & T. BOT. Queens Town, } Aug 23d, 1828.

FOR SALE, ALL that valuable and well known Farm, called "SWAN POINT,"

Situate on the Chesapeake Bay in Kent county, lately part of the estate of Samuel Chew, Esq. deceased. The richness and fertility of the soil of the greater part of the Farm have long rendered it an object of notice, and are no where surpassed—its convenience to Baltimore, either by the boats of the farm or by the Rock Hall Packet, affords an opportunity of a frequent attendance on the market there, with the various productions of the farm, added to which there is a capital FISHERY fitted for all seasons on the premises. The shores afford an inexhaustible supply of manure from the seaweed and grass deposited there—an inland Marsh sufficient to maintain a numerous stock—Tavern Creek running back of the farm gives an advantage for the approach of deck boats near to the Granary for the loading of grain &c. either for the Baltimore market, or that of Philadelphia by means of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, expected to be in operation in October next. In short, few farms possess superior advantages or greater capability for improvements.—The whole contains according to a recent survey, 650 ACRES. There are on the premises a commodious BRICK DWELLING HOUSE & kitchen, various out houses, extensive Stables, and a large and spacious Barn, which although at present somewhat out of repair may readily be brought into good condition. Possession may be had on 2d January, next—Title indisputable. For Terms of Sale apply to Henry B. Chew, Esq. Baltimore. William Barroll, Esq. Chestertown or to BENJAMIN CHEW, No. 87 South 4th street Philadelphia. Aug. 23—3w.
