We regret exceedingly, to find, that the clerks for the Church Hill election District, were not sworn in on Monday last, according to law. Consequently, that district could not be returned to the Chancellor. The spirit of the law was not, we conceive, at all violated. The informality consisted in the clerks being sworn by a Justice of the Peace in the presence of the Judges, instead of their being sworn by the Judges themselves, or one of them. The committee of Elections, will have to decide upon the question, and there appears to be but little doubt but that the case will be properly disposed of. This affair is regretted by the administration men, en masse. And indeed, many of the Jackson men, from the high, honourable, and chivalrous feeling possessed by the Judges for that district, seem to deplore its occurrence.

The Patriot says "The administration increase since the last election, is 963. And it must be recollected that at the last Presidential election, the Jackson ticket obtained nine hundred majority, out of 6908, the whole number of votes given—now they have three hundred and seventy-six majority, out of eight thousand three hundred and eleven, the average number of votes given. This electoral district is composed of the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis and Anne Arundel county, and it is pretty certain that Annapolis and Anne Arundel will give the Administration a majority abundantly sufficient to offset the small Jackson majority in the city of Baltimore, besides the Administration party will at least gain 150 in Baltimore in November.

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY.

From Anne Arundel County we have accounts—which state, that 4 administration men are elected by an average majority of 122 votes.

DELAWARE.

The elections for State Delegates, Senators, and a representative in Congress took place in Delaware on Tuesday last. No doubt seems to be entertained of the administration candidate, Mr. Johns's election to Congress being certain. In Kent and Sussex Counties, we understand, the administration ticket has succeeded throughout; in New-Castle the returns are doubtful. The success of the administration candidates in the former counties, will, to a moral certainty carry the patriotic little state of Delaware for the right cause.

Vermont Election.—The annual state election took place in Vermont on the 3d Sept. Messrs. Craft and Oliver were elected Governor and Lieutenant Governor, with scarcely any opposition. The Hon. R. C. Mallary has been re-elected to Congress by an almost unanimous vote.

Death of the U. S. Judges.—The Hon. Robert Trimble, U. S. Circuit Judge for the Circuit of Tennessee, Kentucky, and Ohio, resident of Paris, Ky.; and the Hon. Charles Byard, U. S. District Judge for the District of Ohio, resident at West Union, Ohio; both died on Monday the 18th ult. They had both returned from holding court in this town, [Columbus] where their session closed on the 30th July, were taken with a fever immediately on their return, and both died on the same day.—Ohio Monitor.

STAGE COACH STORIES.—A stage coach is being built, to run between Bordentown and Washington, (N. J.) to carry between 50 and 60 passengers. It has two compartments—one above the other; and has four wheels of the usual circumference, the felloes of which are 15 inches wide. A tender is to follow to carry baggage.

In this town on Monday evening last, after a severe illness, Master JAMES PRICE.

DIED on Sunday last, of Pulmonary Consumption, Mrs. ANN HASSIT, wife of Mr. John Hassit, and daughter of Mr. James Booker. The deceased was a good wife, a fond mother, a dutiful child, a sincere friend and a pious christian. She was one of the first fruits of the revival of religion at Hall's Cross Roads. Soon after her conversion the fatal disease, which hurried so many persons in the bloom of life, to the grave, fastened upon her lungs; and for a great while past, she had been confined to her house and to her bed. In the midst of her afflictions, however, she experienced the support and comforts of that religion, which she embraced in better health. In the hours of death she was collected and triumphant; and there can be no doubt, but that the loss of her husband, of her children and of her friends is her eternal gain.

"Her languishing head is at rest,
Its thoughts and achings are o'er,
Her quiet immovable breast
Is heaved by afflictions no more.
Her heart is no longer the seat
Of trouble and torturing pain,
It ceases to flutter and beat,
It never shall flutter again."

Trustee's Sale.

SOME Years ago I was appointed Trustee, by a decree of the Chancellor of Maryland, for the sale of the real estate of Christopher W. Caradine, late of Queen Ann's County, deceased. Under the said decree I will expose to public sale, at the Court House in Centre-Ville, on Saturday the 25th of October next, between 10 and 4 o'clock of that day, all his interest in an undivided moiety of part of a Tract of land called Partnership, lying on the main road, leading from Centreville to Church Hill, near the estate of Charles C. Tighman Esqr. containing in the whole about more or less. I am authorised by the proprietors of the remaining undivided moiety to sell it at the same time, and will expose them at Sale together as an entire tract. The terms of credit will be made known on the day of sale.

R. T. EARLE, Trustee.
Oct. 11, 3w

To the reflecting voters of Queen Ann's & Kent Counties.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—The great struggle for state officers is over; and the die is cast; and we therefore, beg you calmly to reflect and consider upon your country's good, your own happiness, and the happiness of your families. You are now at peace, and plenty crowns your board. What else do you want? Remember that you enjoy these under the administration of John Quincy Adams, who has been your President for nearly four years. Do you wish a change in affairs? Do you want war, do you want scarcity, do you want to be dragged from your houses, from your wives, and from your children? Do you wish to exchange your domestic quiet for the noise of the tented field? If not, why change your President, who thus far has conducted your affairs uprightly? He is accused of a waste of the public money and yet he has paid more of the public debt than his predecessors, and in the very items complained of has followed precisely the footsteps of Washington and his successors. Believe not the charges exhibited against your President by office-hunters, who wish to make you stepping stones to power. Have they heretofore been the poor man's friends or have they kept you at a distance? Have they heretofore invited you to the hospitalities of their houses, or have they passed you without speaking or with a contemptible nod? Who have been your friends, when no election was approaching? It is not every man that clings around you in electioneering times, that is the poor man's friend; but he is your friend who helps you in adversity, who assists you when you are sick, and who relieves you in distress. Go to these men, if you are in doubt and ask them for the truth, and they will give it to you. They will scorn to deceive you. Such men in nine cases out of ten are the friends of John Quincy Adams. What ought this to speak in his praise. Elevate Gen. Jackson to the Presidential chair and you may regret when too late in the change of your affairs. Military men delight in war and blood shed; and men when they can do so generally follow their own inclinations. Remember the cases of the poor men put to death by order of Gen. Jackson. Are you subject to militia duty—their cases may soon be your own. Hear both sides, and judge calmly like independent men. Remember also that Gen. Jackson received the full pay of a Major General; pay for his services, rent for his house, money for his fire wood, rations for himself and servants, with other emoluments of office, when not engaged in any employment for his Country; but lived in his own house, used his own wood, filled his farm with his servants, and raised his own provisions. Was this just? And ought his friends to say any thing about extravagance after this expenditure? Again I say hear both sides, and then determine.

From the Boston Palladium.

Singular Discovery.—Mr. Horton, a gentleman who has been engaged in boring for water in Providence, has presented to the public some remarkable results. In his second experiment in boring, he selected the extreme point of a wharf many yards from the original land. He bored through the artificial soil—then through a stratum of mud—then through sand, pebbles and quartz gravel. At this point water impregnated with copperas and arsenic broke forth, but determining to proceed, Mr. Horton next struck a vineyard and drew up vines, grapes, leaves, acorns, hazel nuts, pine burrs, and seeds, unknown, together with pure water. This was 35 feet below the bed of the river!

Alabama vs Arkansas.—A Mrs. Mitchell of St. Francis, county, was recently delivered of a fine child, which weighed at its birth twenty-one pounds. Alabama has beat it. A Mrs. Mentable Stout has recently presented her husband with five fine boys at a birth, whose aggregate weight was forty-eight and a quarter pounds!

IMPORTANT!—IF TRUE.—We give the following story as we find it. The Public Ledger of August 30, says, "Letters dated about the 10th of this month, have been received from Malta, which contains news, if afterwards confirmed, of great political importance. They state that his majesty's ship the Dryad, of 42 guns, Captain the Hon. G. A. Crofton, had received orders to sail for Corfu, and then to take Mr. Stratford Canning on board, for the Dardanelles. They further state that object of this Minister's mission to Constantinople, is to arrange with the Sultan moderate terms of peace to be transmitted to the Head Quarters of the Emperor of Russia, and to accompany these terms with a threat that Great Britain will espouse the cause of the Sultan, if they be rejected by his Imperial Majesty."

ALEXANDRIA, (EGYPT) MAY 31. 500 men of a village in the interior have deprived themselves of one of their eyes, to be exempt from conscription. The Vice Roy has caused them to be decimated, and those not executed have been sent to the galleys.

RUNAWAY.

WAS committed to the Jail of Queen Ann's County, on the 28th July 1828, by Edward H. Coursey, Esq. a Justice of the peace, for said County, as a black man, who calls himself Charles John Stout Williams, (alias?) John Williams; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet, six or seven inches high; had on when committed, a black frock-coat, and a pair of linen pantaloons, and a black fur Hat.

The aforesaid Negro Man is supposed to be the property of Mr. Snowden, of the Western Shore of Maryland. The Owner of said Negro Man is requested to come forward, and pay Charges, or he will be released according to law.

The London Sun of the 3d ult. says, "There will be a general war in Europe before Christmas. England avoids the struggle for the present, but will eventually be dragged in with an expense greater in proportion to the delay which she evinces in asserting her true station, and assuming an attitude becoming her moral and national glory."

ADVERTISEMENT.

Mr. Spencer will do me the favour to insert the following in his useful paper, as a reply to the report industriously circulating in Queen Ann's County, that, in exploring the section or district which was allotted to me by the Bible Society of Church Hill, for the purpose of ascertaining the families which were destitute of Bibles and Testaments, I made my excursion an electioneering project for the purpose of knowing the sentiments of the people on the great question that now agitates the Union. Now this report is calculated to injure me in the circles of the moral and religious parts of community, and was got up, in my estimation by some ignis fatuus, whose work is in the dark and whose business is to excite the prejudices of others to an equal degree of fiery temperature with his own furious disposition. I therefore, feel myself bound to deny this report, and assert there is not a syllable of truth attached to it; and I dare the person or persons who promulgated this unmanly remark and malicious falsehood, to prove their base and unamiable assertion, which is wholly unfounded and destitute of truth; got up, doubtless for no other purpose than to injure my election, and circulated by some unworthy member of society who has been actuated by principles of prejudice and jealousy, and who is fearful of being himself supplanted in some lucrative situation of honour and trust.

The Bible society of Church Hill was organised by Mr. Donan, and I and other gentlemen were appointed collectors and distributors of the Testaments and Bibles. My district was laid off and I performed the duties allotted to me under a sense of duty due to myself as a Christian Citizen and unworthy servant of God, and social fellowship for my fellow men.

The first day I was accompanied by Mr. Donan, who, handsomely and solemnly lectured every family on the advantages and the sweets of the religion of the once lowly but now exalted Jesus.

The 2d and 3d days I explored the other portion of my district, alone, and completed my task. The District contained 56 families 36 of which were totally destitute of either Bibles or Testaments.

In conclusion, I ask, are men to be slandered for performing their moral and religious duties? who will next be ready to do good acts, though they may know and feel the necessity of performing them with the view to be serviceable to society? yet will they not withhold exertion for fear of slander?

Further, if any man wish to see with his own eyes and hear with his own ears let him ride through the section of the country which I explored, SAMUEL R. OLDSON.

P. S. I wish to be understood as attaching no blame to the gentlemen composing the Corresponding Committee, viewing them as high minded and honourable men that had been imposed on by the assertions of the unworthy. S. R. O.

Maternal Intrepidity.—A gentleman informs us that some time last week, the wife of Lemuel Alexander, of S. field, in this state, went to the well to draw water, with a young child in her arms. While in the act, from some cause, the child slipped of sprang from her, and plunged into the well, which was about 30 feet deep. The mother immediately seized the well pole, with which she descended a part of the distance, and then jumped down to the relief of her child, which was raised from the water, and held in that position, until the cries of Mrs. A. brought Mr. Joshua Arnold to her relief. Both the mother and child were taken from the well, without having received material injury. Journal.

A meeting was recently held in Frankfort, (Ky.) passing some resolutions, declaring the proceedings against the tariff in the south, factions and unjust, tending to treason and disunion, and the denunciation of Kentucky, from that quarter, illiberal and insulting.

POSTSCRIPT.

In Frederick County the administration ticket has succeeded by a majority of 333 votes. In Prince Georges, 3 Administration men and one Jackson man have been elected.

In Montgomery County, the administration Candidates are also elected, by an average majority of 223 votes. In Washington, the Jackson, by an average majority of 122. In Charles County the administration, by an average majority of about 150. In Calvert, also, by majorities of more than 200.

DELAWARE.

Mr. Johns is certainly elected to Congress by a majority of 419 votes over Mr. Bayard, the Jackson Candidate. And a majority is certainly in favor of the administration in the Legislature, Kent and Sussex having elected administration Delegates.

From the Palmyra, (N. Y.) Sentinel.

Awful Calamity.—About 4 o'clock on the morning of the 10th inst. the new Grist Mill and Distillery of Messrs. Thompson & Ridaway, about three miles north of this village, were consumed by fire, and what is more painful to relate, two men perished in the flames! They lodged in the upper story of the mill, and were probably asleep at the time it took fire, which is supposed to have originated from the chimney of the distillery, which was situated on the ground floor directly under the mill. The names of the deceased are Timothy Blorrell, lately from the state of New Jersey, where, it is said, his family resides; and Asa Harris, a young man, whose parents live near Mill Creek, Bradford co. Pa. The loss is estimated at from $ to $10,000. We understand, however, that a policy had been underwritten upon this property for 6,000 by the Aetna Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn.

A happy Death.—The more you are acquainted with God while you live, the more willing you will be to die to go to him; for death, to a child of God, is nothing else but a resting with God, in whose bosom he hath often been, by holy meditation, when he was alive. Dr. Preston, when he was dying, used the words,—"Blessed be God, though I change my place, yet I shall not change my company; for I have walked with God while I lived, and now I go to rest with God."
