THE CENTRE VELEE EN TREES EASTERN-SHORE PUBLIC ADVERTISER.

VOLUME XIII.— NUMBER 342 } JOHN B. SPENCER—EDITOR. }

MEN AND MEASURES.

CENTREVILLE. QUEEN ANN'S COUNTY, EASTERN-SHORE, MD. MAY 21 1831.

Weeks at ONE DOLLAR per Square and TWENTY. FIVE CENTS a Week (JONN RICHARDS' grandam,) by thereafter-(If the Cash is not paid at the the old imported horse Medley, his g.

or they will not be taken out of the Post

17 Single Papers, 12 Cents.

The Centreville Times, for persons Hoads, is left at Mr. Legg's.

of Hoe's X Roads, at Col. Roe's. Mi maxter's store, Beaver Dams.

The gentlemen at whose houses the the Stud Book. bundles are left, will please not give them I do hereby certify, that the bay out to any but Subscribers or their ser-

The celebrated and splendid Horse JOHN RICHARDS will stand at | State of North Carolina, Halifac Centreville and Easton the cusuing county, 15th Nov. 1827 - I hereby cerbeautiful blood bay colour, with black Brownrig's mare Lady Legs, by Cenlegs, mane and tail; 16 hands high, tinel, and who was also the dam of Colof a remarkably fine, indeed faultless lector, stood my house during the perv of 21 geese was committed in the figure; abounding in bone and sinew, season, Mr. William Richards of Nor- form vard of Mr. White, of Kent, (Eng. with a full bold chest; and in point of thampton, put his Medley mare, her There was a gander attached to the strength, unexcelled by any horse in the produce from that season, was the dam flock, which was left behind, with U states ... he has proved himself a safe of John Richards, as witness my signa- | bag tied around its neck, containing and oure foal getter .- At three years ture and date as above. of age this beautiful racer, best the Witness .-- A. J. DAVIE. moted horse Washington, at Warrenton, North Carolina, at three 2 mile heats. January 29 1831. Washington after travelling 80 miles | * Mares from a distance put to John to Petersburg, in the two weeks fol. Richards, will be pastured at Chesterlowing, beat at four 2 mile heats, sev- field (his stand adjoining Centreville,) eral of the finest blood horses in Virgin- and grain furnished if required. No liaia, among whom was Mr. Long's fa- | bility for accidents. april 23. mous HENRY, who afterwards ran that splendid race on Long-Island a- Notice to Trespassers. great match for 40.000 dollars, John contract, to preserve the GARDEN at famous piscator. lowing letter from William R. Johnson | Chesterfield from injury, do hereby Esq. a member of the Senate of Vir- forwarn all persons whatever, from ginia,) was originally selected, after trespassing thereon, as a great many trial, from all the best horses of the persons have lately frequented the one of his fore feet, it became necessary to substitute Henry in his place. The further trespass. ensuing fall, John Richards having partially recovered from his lameness, beat " zeveral Horses, among whom was his full sister, the famous mare Betsey Richards, 4 mile heats, winning the

with John Richards, and much pleased male education. that you are the owner of so fine a horse | The terms of tuition per quarter, will although I most sincerely wish he could be, in Spelling, Reading, Writing, Eng. have remained in Virginia one season, Grammar, Geography and History $5, that I might have put my mares to him; - In Natural and moral Philosophy, John Richards got injured so early, and Logic, Rhetoric, Botany, Chemistry, when so young, that the public has not Astronomy, Embroidery, Drawing and The habit of avoiding personal danhad an opportunity of forming an o. Painting, 86.00. For the French and ger, or the instinct, that leads to the bave had a fair and full way of judging two dollars with Eclipse, and I hesitate not to say, but also to the accomplishment and curing. and that had he remained sound he school will merit and receive a liberal man, who had made up his mind to ed, he pointed to the Star Spangled immediately given to the higher offiwould most unquestionably have run patronage. shuffle off this mortal coil, " and only Banner, and said with a sneer, that the match; as from a trial made at Reserence may be had to Hon. E: waited until he had settled in his mind is what we call the Gridiron-I predeparture for Long Island, he certainly and Ringgold Esq. Dr. Morgan Browne, being able readily to agree with him- ness, by the broiling you had upon it all memory on the subject. He had no was the best in my stable; this fact, Dr Peregrine Wroth, Josebh Wickes, self on the important point he inform- yesterday. together with his appearance, size and 4th, Esq. and John B. Eccleston Esq ed a neighbour of his, whom he met obedient,

cea

ble

euos

ave

ases

.&cc.

ctly had e of

1.D

session of the present proprietor.

PEDIGREE

tler was esteemed in this country, no man Esq. Philadelphia. may 7, a tree upon him, and put an end to his spun herself, a set of body, bed, and Morgan pretended to be broken heart. was several times winner in this state, sequently in South Carolina, particu- Came to the Subscribers, some time weary o, the world, and consider my- gal proceedings. What a scene of bu- der revoked; but Frederic's word was (North Carolina) when a colt, and sublarly at Charleston. He was gotten by the a Steer, and two Heif- he killed directly. the old imported horse Shark—his dam the celebrated race mare, Lady Legs, Come requested to come forward, who was also the dam of the unequal- prove them, Pay for their Keeping and man to the woods. A tree was cho Waverly novles, and abandon all their was he to make his brothers come, unled race horse Collector-she was take them away. gotten by the imported horse Centinel, april 16

33,00, PER ANNUM-or sale of the superied more sale of the superied mor time of Advertising, One Dollar Twenty grandam by old Wild Air, his g.g. gran-Five Cents her Square will be required.)
Subscriptions are always intended for dam by Noppareil, out of an imported a Year; and a Subscriber must notify the mare. Sir Archie, (JOHN RICH-Editor before he can discontinue the Paper | ARDS' sire,) was gotten by the impor-All Letters, Communications, & Ad- ted horse Diomede, out of the imported vertisements, must come POSTAGE free mare Castinira, she by Rockingham, out of Tabitha, Rockingham by High Flyer, out of Purity, sister to Pumpkin, Purity by Matchem, out of the old living in the neighborhood of Hall's X Squirt mare, who produced seventeen colts, three were never trained, two di For persons living in the neighborhood ea young, and the other twelve were good runners .- The above is, in my o-For persons living in the neighborhoods pinion, a correct Pedigree of John Richof the Beaver Dams, and Nine Bridges, at ards. For further information refer to horse John Richards, was raised by The world, and life, and death; me, that he was gotten by Sir Archie, E'en heaven and Christ belong to me, his dam by Rattler, his grandam by old Medley, his g grandam by Wild Air, his g g. grandam by Nonpareil, out of an imported mare; and he is full brother to Betsev Richards.

LITTLETON C. RICHARDS February 15. 1826.

spring. Terms hereafter made known. tity, that in the year 1801, the celebra-He is 11 years old this spring; a ted horse Rattler, by Shark, out of Mr.

BELA BADGER | per:

remale High School. on 28 m

Jockey Club purse at Petersburg. He the Female High School in Cazenovia his lameness until be came into pos day the 25th inst. in the dwelling house vision. of Mrs Eccleston nearly opposite the office of Wm H Barroll E.q. in Ches Richmond, Va. January 9th, 1826. tertown, in which, will be taught the I am glad that you have got safehome useful and ornamental branches of le-

New York.

Of the Race Horse John Richards. ery Co. New York, Hon. Charles worlds, told him he was just going in. Among our forefathers it was a fix dignant to hear that they had not come.

STRAY.

and Son William.

POETRY.

From the Episcopal Recorder.

IS GOD MY FRIEND?

Is God my friend? Then welcome death How sweet the thought appears, That when I breathe my parting sigh, He'll calm my rising fears,

Is God my friend? Then welcome life, And all its trying cares; His wisdom chooses all for me,

And numbers all my years. Is God my friend? Then why should I Distrust my tender care?

He will provide when earthly friends Shall falsely disappear. Is God my friend? Thrice welcome then Affliction, pain, and care, Sweet tokens of a father's love, Which with his Son I share, Is God my friend? Then all is mine,

And all the Gospel's wealth.

Is God my friend? Then sin in vain Shall lure my feet aside, For he is stronger than my foes, And he will be my guide.

My guide through all the stormy paths, Which Christian pilgrims tread, My life, my all, when this frail form Is number'd with the dead.

How bles't to have a friend in heaven, Who intercedes for me; That where my dearest treasure is,

H. M.

Robbers .- Some time since, a rob-D. DAY. twenty-one pence, and the following us, when a messenger came to his stu-

Dear Mister White.

I soon may hope to be.

We wish you good night. We are sorry we cannot stay longer: We've taken twenty-one geese,

At a penny a piece, And left the amount with the gander.

How calm and quiet a delight It is alone

To read, and meditate, and write. By none offended, and offending none;

And please a man's self, none other to displease.

MUSIC-STRIKE UP. Come all ye bold Ohioans. I'll have you for to know, That for to fight the enemy, We're going for to go.

Fellow-soldiers, you have 'filled the measure of your country's glory;' you are dismissed. There's the whole of it.

WISHING FOR DEATH.

persons who are resolved on suicide purpose. His neighbour being willing chief was Lydia Strachan. Hon. Duncan McMartin, Montgom- to humor the candidate for a change of life with very little trouble.

He fixed himself on the spot, folded his city by the path of preparation which arms, and prepared to await the event. their great-grand mothers pursued

The chopper began to lay on with vigorous blows, while the death's can- | Since the fashionable " Dunstable I didate kept his eye upon the top of the Bonnets," so much worn and admirtree, to see when it would fall. He ed by the ladies, have received a new stood very composed for a while, but name, they seem in a fair way to be at length began to appear uneasy and discarded by the northern fair ones. not perfectly satisfied with his prospects. They are now called " Kendulls." --And while the axe-man seemed to him Dunstable, the place where they were toredouble his blows winking and wink. first manufactured, had the honour to ing, he thought he perceived the tree be the birth-place of Amos Kendall, the begap to nod, and the next moment Heaven-born Auditor. What an unwould be his last. The cold sweat be- for unate appendage a bad name gan to issue from the skin-his limbs coming up, asked him why he ran a-

Oh, said he, I was afraid if I staid there I should he killed.

you came on purpose to be killed!

simplicity but I forgot that. Oh how I trembled! It I'd staid there a minute longer, I should have been a dead man. What a crash it made when it fell!

banged if I do.

The Literary Husband, Dr. Thomas and author of the Annotation on Locke's Essays, was one day busily engaged in translating for the Book seller, Libani-

Why don't you wheel that barrow of coals, Ned? quoth a learned vender a very hard job: there is an inclined plane to reliave you. Aye, master replied Ned, who had more relish for wit than work, the plane may be inch ed, but hang me if I am.

were invited on shore to dine.

vable stallion; wishing you success and White, Cazenovia, New York. Rev was resolved upon death, and would about 30 years of age, was found sus | he acknowledged that he had tall bro-WM. R. JOHNSTON. | the Theological Seminary-Hamilton, sist him in the accomplishment of his ton; the name on her pocket, handker | them from their spades.

JOHN RICHARDS was gotten by Kellogg, Cayuga Co. New York, Rev to the woods to chopping, and that if ed maxim that a young lady should nev- Send the fellow himself, he exclaimed, Sir Archie, his dam by Rattler, Rat | W. T. Bradley, and Jonathau Whit he would fell er be permitted to marry until she had and see if he cannot bring them .-. table linen. From this custom all mar- ed at the thoughts of parting with his I'm very much obliged to, you said the ried women are called spinsters in le- regiment. He applied to have the orlast year Three Head of Cat- self bound to you for life. I'll go and sy industry Philadelphia would present, always irrevocable; and with a disconif all the young ladies who long to be solate face he set out upon his mission. Accordingly he followed the axe married were obliged to cast away the But a new difficulty struck him. How. sen, and he was directed where to stand fashionable amusements, in order to less he showed them the recruitive THOS. REED, so as to receive the full force of its fall, approach the goal of metrimonial feli-money?

Mr. Nourse -- This gentleman stood trembled—he could stand it no longer! high on the list of public defaulters, He took to flight, and never looked be- discovered by the searching operation bind him until he had got at least for- of the Jackson administration. He ty rods, when he ventured to stop. He was proclaimed, condemned and diswas pursued by the sxe-man, who on missed; and stood before the public as a criminal who had misused the confidence of Government, and applied the public monies to his own use. But fortunately for Mr. Nourse, there was I thought, returned the chopper, such tribunals as courts of justice, where the question of his alledged defalcation. Ab, true, said the man with great could be tried with impartiality and determined on principles of justice. To those tribunals he appealed, and the decision has been not only an honourable acquittal of the gross allegations Crash! why the tree is standing yet. against him, but a verdict for $ 12.000 I merely chopped it with the head of in his favour. Thus has justice tothe age. With the head of the age do umphed over proscription, and the adyou say. O you cheating rascal! but I'll ministration has the mortification of never trust you to kill me again, I'll be being deseated in the attempt to destroy the reputation of an aged and deserving public servant. This defeat will probably add six months to the con-Morrell, the celebrated lexicographer, finement of Doctor Watkins. Balt.

IRISH INGENUITY.

Morgan, the gay and handsome son poetic excuse written on a slip of pa- dy and told him that his wife, who had of an frish farmer, tired of home, been languishing some time, had re- went to take the chances of the world. lapsed into a severe fit of sickness, and and seek his fortune. He traversed that, dreading her dissolution was at England and France, probably without hand, she wished to speak to him im- much care or knowledge whether he mediately. Go, said be, and tell her were moving to the North Pole or the I have only two periods to translate South, till he found himself in Prussia. and I will then come to see her. A sec- This was in the days of the first Fredond messenger informed him that she eric, famous for his tall regiment of One of the most heautiful descriptions was in the last agonies of struggling guards, and for nothing else: except his ot retirement is an ode of Charles Cot- nature! I have not more than two words being the most dangerous compound of gainst Eclipse. To contend in that The supscriber, being bound by ton, the friend of old Isaac Walton, the to finish for the printer's devil is at my fool and madman among the crowned elbow, said the doctor; return to her; heads of the continent. He had but I shall be there as soon as you. A mo- one ambition, that of inspecting twice ment after, her death was announced a day a regiment of a thousand grenato bim. I am very sorry, indeed be diers, not one of whom was less than observed, for she was a kind good wo- six feet and a half high. Morgan was South; but having accidently injured is hoped that none will after this notice him to volunteer into the tall battalion. It is stated in the French paper that This turn of fate was totally out of the a still-born infant was carried to Mr. Irishman's calculation; and the pros-General Orders. - The following no Portal, of Paris, for dissection, who pect of carrying a musket till his dying tice is taken of the electing of a Gen- | conceived the idea of inflating its lungs | day on the Potsdam parade, after hav. eral officer, by the Painsville Gazette: The experiment was tried for a few ing made up his mind to rove the world Miss Susan Corton, late principal of Right-about Face! -- Doctor Ashel minutes, when the air returned warm, and live by his wits, more than once Brainerd is elected by the Legislaturo the blood began to circulate, and the tempted him to think of leaving his bonhowever was never effectually cured of New York, will open a school on Mon- of Ohio, Major General of the 6th Di- child was sent back alive to its parents. or and his musket behind him, and fair-A surgeon at Lyons recently made a ly trying his chance for escape. But similar experiment with complete suc | the attempt was always found impracticable: the frontier was too closely watched, and Morgan still marched up and down the Potsdam parade with a disconsolate heart: when one evening of black diamonds, to his man; it is not a Turkish recruit was brought in .-Frederick looked to nothing but the thews and sinews of a man, and the Turk was full seven feet high. How. much did his majesty give for catching that heathen? said Morgan to his cor-Anecdote. The day after the hattle poral. Four hundred dollars, was the pinion of his excellence as a racer. I Spanish Languages an extra charge of preservation of life, is so strong, that of Stonington, several British officers answer. What a pity my five brothers While | cannot hear of this, said Morgan; I am of him; having trained him with many No incidental charges will be made. sometimes conduct it in a very ludi- at dinner a lady sitting next to one of a dwarf among them; and half the moothers, in order to make a selection to By the most unremitting attention, erous manner under the fear of that the officers, asked him to explain to her ney would bring them all over immerun the great and celebrated match not only to the Literary advancement, death which they are desirous of pro- the flags of the different nations that diately. The discovery of five tall redecorated the room. After telling her cruits was worth at least a pair of colthat he was decidedly my choice, morals of her pupils, she trusts her was decidedly my choice, morals of her pupils, she trusts her to what nation several of them belong ors to the corporal. Information was cers, who took an early opportunity of conveying it to the king. Morgan was New market, a day or two before my F. Chambers, Wm. Barroll Esq. Rich- the most comfortable way of dying. Not sume so, sir said the lady, with quick instantly questioned. But he had lost brothers. The regiment were his onle relations and with them he hoped to blood, makes him, in my opinion, a val- Chestertown, Rev. Messrs. Leonard with an axe on his shoulder, that he The hody of a well dressed semale, live and die. At length being urged, with him, I am respectfully your most Dr. Kendrick, and Prof. Harchall of take it as a great favour if he would as pended by the neck in a shed in Bos- thers, but nothing on earth would move After some time the king inquired for the five Irish recruits, and was in.