EASTERN-SHORE PUBLICADVERTISER.

VOLUME XIII. -- NUMBER 362 3
JOHN B. SPENCER-EDITOR. 3

MEN AND MEASURES.

CENTREVILLE, QUEEN ANN'S COUNTY EASTERN-SHORE, MD. OCTOBER 8, 1831.

POETRY. 3 3 00, PER ANNUM-or

$ 2,50, IF PAID IN ADVANCE, S ADVERTISEMENTS published 3 Weeks at ONE DOLLAR per Square and TWENTY FIVE CENTS a Week thereafter-(If the Cash is not paid at the time of Advertising, One Dollar Twenty Five Cents per Square will be required.)

a Year; and a Subscriber must notify the E liter before he can discontinue the Paper Remember how your father's have Ali Letters, Communications, & Advertisements, must come POSTAGE free or they will not be taken out of the Post

Subscriptions are always intended for 17 Single Papers, 12 Cents.

on of

rtues

ulted

otion.

uper

hose

efits

that n of my

The Centreville Times, for persons living in the neighborhood of Hall's X Roads, is left at Mr. Legg's.

of Roe's X Roads, at Col. Roe's. For persons living in the neighborhoods of the Beaver Dams, and Nine Bridges, at Mr. Baxter's store, Beaver Dams.

The gentlemen at whose houses the bundles are left, will please not give them out to any but Subscribers or their ser-

FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber will sell several kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS: 6 Horses, & 10Head of Cattle

For further particulars apply toMr. Spencer at Centreville, or on the premises. Sep. 10, 4w

CLARK'S OFFICE, Baltimore, Sept. 26, 1831. REPORT of the Drawing of the Maryland State Lottery, Extra No. 7, for 14511* A Prize of 14263 Prize of 19403, 15173* 8132 2 3561*)

5; 150 of 2 and 000 of 2 each the establishment of such a College in has heretofore been slaughtered in this before the candidate of the adversary your and their confidence—as a man drawn the capital Prize, therefore agree expedient, it should never be imposed es that he may be made to weigh in the have elected him because you and they and deliberately say, that I am even ably to the Scheme all the Even numbers on any community without their con- course of the winter, from two to four considered him politically unsound, un less trustworthy less likely to command being those ending with 2 4 6 8 0, are each entitled to 8 2 cents in addition to sent .- Wherefore Resolved-by the hundred pounds more than the far fa- faithful, and untrue; and no truth is the favor and support of the party than

NEXT LOTTERY draws on Thurs- every lawful means. day, the 27th inst. At Clark's, was This was signed by the Mayor and do around the Brisket, 11 2 sold the highest Capital Prizes 10,000 Clerk, and ordered to be published in do 2000, &c. in the last regular class all the city papers. drawn on the 28th ultimo, and the highest capital prize of $5000 in the previous class.

CHEME. $ 6,000 Dollars I prize of 2,000 Dollars prize of 1,000 Dollars prize cf 500 Dollars prize of 300 Dollars prize of 20 prizes of 150 prize of 3 Dollars

Half Tickets $1 only! --- Quarters 50cts To be had at CLARK'S OFFICES, timore sts.; N. F. corner of Charles directions, communication has been had and Baltimore sts. and N. W. corner with the proper authorities in Marietta, ber next. of Gay and Baltimore sts.

Where the highest prizes in the firms his horrid tale. recent State Lottery has been oftener sold than at any other office!!

or private conveyance, enclosing the widow named Bowers, then living in cash or prizes, will meet the same | Marietta, and, after violating her perprompt and punctual attention as if on son, put her to death by strangling her. personal application.

Baltimore. Oct. 4,

MOTICE.

ALL Persons having claims against Henry Sparks, an Insolvent Debtor, are hereby warned to leave them with the Clk, of Queen Ann's County Court, on or before the third Monday of October for Henry Sparks.

Sept. 19th 1831.

NOTICE.

THE Partnership under the firm of Earle and Sutton, was dissolved on the fi st day of April last: All persons indebted to the firm are requested to make payment to Tho. C. Earle and ther parish. all to whom they are indebted will apply to him for settlement.

From the Philadelphia Daily Chronicle

On to the battle, Belgians march! The Butchmen quake with dread: We'll win the bright triumphal arch, Or die in glory's bed.

THE BELGIAN BATTLE SONG.

Of old for freedom died! Their ashes from each bloody grave Cry "tarnish not our price."

Come, fight for fireside, fight for fame; Not all the world in arms Shall bid us turn our backs in shame, Or shun fierce war's alarms.

For persons living in the neighborhood Then onward, let banners fly, And give our bugles breath; Forward, and by our battle cry, " For liberty or death ! "

> But hush amid that dusty cloud; See yonder bold array, Is it the Dutch, Lord, what a crowd? Good God let's run away.

NEGRO COLLEGE-The city of New Haven and its municipal government have taken alarm at the project of establishing a College for the education of for kissing with an appetite. blacks in that place. A great meeting of Citizens, at which mayor and Common Council attended, was held on Sat-James Hollyday | urday, when the following preamble and resolution were adopted.

> Whereas in the opinion of this meeting, Yale College, the institutions for the education of females, and the other the proposed college in this place, by med of his great size and weight.

From he Frederic (Md.) Examiner.

SINGULAR OCCURRENCE.

On Sunday evening the 3d instant,a Bridgeton, N. J. Sept, 20, 1831. man, who called himself Daniel Shaf-Baltzell, Esq a magistrate of this city, To the Gentlemen assembled at Hillsbo' although they could easily have elected been worsted. and requested to be committed to prison, alleging that he had committed a murder, during the last winter in Ma- GENTLEMEN, rietta, Pennsylvania, and that the reproaches of his conscience had become so severe, that he was unable, any longer to endure them. His narrative being perfectly coherent, and he himself appearing entirely sane, the magistrate complied with his request and commit-N. W. Corner of Calvert and Bal- ted bim. Since that time under his and such intelligence received as con-

His stery is, that during the deep snow of last winter, he, whilst in a state ***Orders either by mail (post paid) of intoxication, entered the house of a Address to | The fact of such a person having been JOHN CLARK, Lottery Vender, found dead in her house, about the time stated, is fully substantiated by the accounts received from Marietta -- and the whole demeanor of the prisoner, since his confinement, as well as his positive declarations, has induced a general belief in the truth of his singular confes-

strip a Pole to his shirt - but if you at- ment which is coupled with such hu- we find them in the unsuccessful in- worthy in the estimation of the party. JOHN LUCAS 3rd. Trustee, tempt to take his shirt, he will regain miliation, or which may be considered dustry with which he has sought every whose organ you are, than a man re-

> It is said that a young female, named Dembinski, is at present serving in a tice. regiment of Polish cavalry.

A melting sermon being preached in a country church, all wept but one man; on being asked why he did not cry with the rest, Oh, said he, I belong to ano-

C. Ville Oct. 1. THO. C. EARLE make a pupil understand the nature to do, as I shall do, vote the National be brought out for Congress, he was, at your old friends? I reply, with concious nature or receiving of an action, as Pe-sioners. ter is beaten, now what did Peter do? This is the first time I have ever felt | me gentlemen, for enquiring, but were thought, with the gravest countenance under circumstances, that if I was not brought into competition with me, imaginable, replied, Well, I dont know to complain, I might be considered as quite sure to a man that you were quite without he hollered!

are so mean, that private people would though subaltern in its character, and decision, that he might have set himbe ashamed to act in the same way; humiliating in itsattendant circumstan- self to give your party some trouble?all is trick and finesse, to which the ces. Considerations of a delicate sort too If such was the newness of your conficommon cause is sacrificed.

KISSING WITH AN APPETITE. without emotion and becoming tender expressed by the startling wonder with up in the county of Surry, one of whose might ruffle the peaceful serenity of received. tenets is to salute each other at a mee- family friends, to vindicate myself from I am pursuaded that I cannot be conting with a holy kiss, One of the few aspersions and imputations that would tradicted in saying, that in my whole male devotees, a young lady of a thou if merited, make me hateful to myself, political life I have never given any sand charms, happened to encounter a and, it silently submitted to, would cast demonstrations by applications, pretenyoung gentleman of whom she was en- the shade of my aknowledge dishonor sions, or asking through others for ofamoured, and gave him a more cordial upon my friends and children. and loving salute than was quite beco- This is the condition, gentlemen, to lief or the charge, that I am mortified ming. The next day she received a which your late proceedings have re- at the loss of a station that I desired. message from the highpriest of the sect, duced me, and as I approach you with In this matter before your committee, saying she had been excommunicated

SINGULAR EPITAPH.

Here lies John and Mary Ebon. Struck by lightning sent from Heaven. In 17 hundred and 77

THE GREAT OX.

schools already existing in this city, are known, that one of the largest animals in nomination—a third name, I hear. important to the community and the ge- of the cattle kind, is now to be seen in was mentioned, but mentioned only to still been no imputation upon my po-No. 11328* (Even No) the Cap prize 6,000 neral interests of science, and as such this place, in the possession of Dr. Wm. be put aside. Of the two names pro litical probity of character—and as for 1 000 have been deservedly patronised by the Elmer, by whom he was raised, and who posed and acted on, mine was one of any other person being adjudged by you public, and the establishment of a col- has been feeding him for the purpose of them, and I was rejected, after discus- to possess superior talents, learning and lege in the same place to educate the slaughter, during the ensuing winter or sion, in comparison with one, who, at statesmanlike knowledge, I am, as I 300 colored population is incompatible with spring. He was 6 years old in June the last Congressional election forced ought to be, the last man in the unithe prosperity, if not the existence of the last, and is allowed (by gentlemen who himself as a candidate upon you and verse to object to it. But when you present institutions of learning, and will have viewed him, and have seen other your party, prevented you from taking compare me with a man that you and be destructive of the best interests of the large cattle in different parts of the U- a candidate of your own, and was then your party ( to which party I belong ) With 10 of $20: 20 of 10, 100 of City; -And believing as we do that if nion,) to exceed in weight, any one that permitted by you and your party to fall cast off and repudiated as unworthy of No 11.328 an Even Number having any part of the country, were deemed country. It is the opinion of good judg party, when you and they could easily doubted, distrusted, and condemned whatever prizes they may have drawn Mayor, Aldermen, Common, Council med Salem Ox, raised by Job Tyler. more generally accepted, than that one such a discarded man, you really de-All marked thus * were sold at CLARKS and Freemen of the City of New-Ha- Havingobtained his dimensions, which third, at least, of all the votes he did grade and humble me, gentlemen, in a ven, in City Meeting assembled, that were taken a few days since, I insert get, were given grudgingly and most re- manner that I do not believe I merit I we will resist the establishment of them, that some estimate may be for- luctantly-rather to resist a Jackson at your hands, and that I cannot sanc-Girth back of his Shoulders is, 10 ft 4in. were given. What then is the obvi-

Body, Height; Length from the Horns to the Rump. 10 do from the Nose to the end of the A VISITER.

er, voluntarily came before Michael M.GOLDSBOROUGHS LETTER they withheld their votes and confidence have needed it, and who could not have this District in the next Congress-which I find that you have appointed personal enemies, if they ever heard in chance medley is as complete as by respectively, I could find in it much vour decision, Gentlemen, has tender tition with me did attempt to force himhonor and should be gratified to hold ed to stamp this imputation upon me, self upon your party two years agoa seat in a consultative body, to whose and I am held up by you to the Nation. that of the votes he did receive, a large session I have looked with extremest al Republican party and to the world, portion was reluctantly given him-that anxiety, and from whose united wisdom, in your solemn and deliberate opinion, he was permitted to fail in his election, calmness and compromise, I hope so as inferior to a cast off political trim- although the party had the power to emuch for the relief and resuscitation of mer, and less worthy of the confidence lect him, because they had no confithe fallen fate of our country. But re- and support of the party to which I be | dence in him-because they regarded garding, as I am constrained to do, this long. Can we look for the justifica- him as politically equivocal -that you appointment in connexion and simulta- tion of this your opinion in the reform now after a full discussion in commitneous with another act of your body, which the individual brought into com- tee, weighted and compared this man which tends to cast an imputation up- petition with me, may be supposed to with me, and finally determined, that on my political character which I feel have undergone in the last two years? in your opinion he was more fit, and that it does not deserve, and to present what are the evidence of reformation - more likely to gain the confidence and me to the world, as far as your procee- of his superior fitness and worthiness of support of the party than I was. These dings can reach, as a stigmatized and favor and confidence? It is painful to facts then, which are undeniable, place A Polish proverb savs-You may degraded man, I must forego an appoint- be forced into historical facts, but shall me before the world as inferior and less by the world, as I fear it is, but a patch- office that was open to his reach in that jected and cast off for political equivo. ed up compromise to snothe my feelings time or shall we find them in the rea- cation. What is the next thing? Five or to varnish over an act of cruel injus- sons assigned by those who recommen. or six weeks after this decision of yours, ver and the political state of this district sought?-reasons known to the Execu- ratify your condemnation of me by vobeing cast and decided, no objection can tive Council, and which are too disgus- ting your nomination. They vote your exist to the development I am now com- ting to detail. Or shall we find them nomination, and they add their condempelled to make-more particularly as in that species of devotion to his party nation to yours, banishing me from the the competition for Congress is merely and their cause indicated by the fact. party as unfit and unworthy. Already formal, if it exist at all—and as I ex | that whilst he was busily engaged in | the question has been earnestly asked A teacher one day endeavouring to pect and entreat every friend of mine untiring exertions to cause himself to me, what have you done so as to offend and application of a passive verb, said Republican Ticket for the General As- the same time as actively employed in to him, a passive verb expresses the sembly and for the Country Commis- trying to get into a high office of con-

most becoming respect, without the gentlemen, if my name had not been slightest impeachment of motives, I mentioned at all, I should have had no trust you will hear me with favour and right to complain, and I should have bear with the exposition and expostula. been silent-because to be overlooked, tions of wounded sensibility.

nominated as a candidate for Congress. It may not perhaps be generally I learn that but two persons were put man than to favor him to whom they tion by my silent acquiescence. tion to be held in Baltimore in Decem- | er held by any man, for thirty years appeal to facts must prove it. past as wanting in zeal and fidelity to It is as notorions as the past election.

siderable pecuniary profit -and pardon The numbskull paused a moment, and that I had cause to complain of a wrong | you, all who, composed the majority of scratching his head by way of aiding done me by those I served—it is done the Committee that preferred the man acting pusillanimously, perhaps worse- confiding in his political fidelity and I might be supposed to cling to an ap- devotion to your party, and that there Nelson said that the politics of courts pointment from a love of preferment, was no reason to fear, under a contrary have made their appeal to me, and I dence, it was greatly different, as I am have earnestly listened to them not informed from the sentiment generally A religious sect has recently sprung ness, before I resorted to facts that which the nomination was every where

> fice of any sort, that can justify the beomitted, or even neglected, does not ne-Your first act in Committee I under | cessarily imply opprobrium - or had my stood was to consider the most impor- name been weighed and compared with tant duty, that of selecting a man to be a man, known as uniformly true and faithful to the party to which he professed to belong in that case, I could have complained, for there would have

If you did not mean to say that I ous inference, when my name is put in was politically faithless—or if you recompetition with such a man and re. ally did believe me sound and worthy jected, but that I am less fit to be a of confidence-had your decision been condidate for Congress, less likely to the reverse of what it is, would any conciliate the approbation and support aspersion have been cast upon him who of the National Republican party, than was put in competition with me? It not a man notoriously discarded at the last the conclusion is, that the sacrifice of election by that party as a political in. myself was disregarded, and you threw triguer and tergiversator from whom your protection around one who might to select a suitable person to represent him? Is not this the obvious, the irre- Thus disparaged and discarded, I am sistible influence? I appeal to you, gen- left to the hope of gathering consolatlemen, and to men of all parties friend- tion in the supposition, that you did not I have seen in one of the pub- Iv and adversary if this is a just and intend to stigmatize, or to injure me lic Journals of Easton, what I supposed fair representation of my political char- I can have no wish tobelieve otherwise: to be an authentic statement of the dis- acter. I appeal, not to my friends, I but what will it avail me? an injury or charge of your duties as the Committee will not vex them with the question, wrong is not less so, because it did not at Hillshorough on the 18th ultimo, in but to my political opponents, and my spring from a bad motive. Death by me the representative for this Congres- all that has been essayed against me, wilful deliberate assassination. The sional district to the National Conven of my being doubtful, or that I was ev- injury inflicted cannot be denied, as an

If I could view this appointment ir- the party I professed to serve. Yet that the individual brought into compeded him for the place of Attorney Gen | the people are called upon, in pursu-The electoral election being now o eral a few weeks past, the last office he ance of party discipline, to approve and